

① Mrs. McNutt Goes to Washington

SOCIETY—

This Ice Hockey's Really Slick; Skating Party Is Success, Too

The ice hockey bug bit Indianapolis last night. Every blue, yellow and red seat in the Coliseum was filled and Mr. and Mrs. Gus Fan stood five and six deep behind the wire netting at each goal.

Local society turned out en bloc and roared royally at each of the five Indianapolis goals. No one much knew what the game was about, it seems, but all approved. One rink-sider, with an air of great discovery, said, "I know why I thought there were only five men. I haven't been counting the men in the cages."

Despite the talk that everyone would be "dressed to the teeth," there were only a few in formal dress, most of them Civic Theater members, who had entertained at parties preceding the game. The Civic Theater sponsored the box seat sale. For the most part, the crowd came in spectator clothes and were thankful to have their coats tucked around their legs in the face of a rather frigid breeze from the ice.

The skating party afterward was a huge success in spirit if not in numbers. Only a few older men and women braved the ice, but the youngsters slipped and slid with gusto. A few authentic skating costumes made their debuts and lent a professional air if one didn't wear the wearers' feet.

Among enthusiastic boxholders were Miss Irving Moxley, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Neal, Mrs. Rosamond VanCamp Hill, Messrs. and Mesdames A. K. Scheidenhelm, Conrad Ruckelshaus, Irving Fauvre, Kurt Panzer, William Stokely, and Chauncey Eno. In Mr. and Mrs. Otto N. Frenzel's box were Mr. and Mrs. Wallace O. Lee, Wallace Lee Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reynolds and Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Boyers, their out-of-town guests.

Guests at Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Fiske's home for dinner last night were Messrs. and Mesdames Donald Test, Frank Hoke, Bon O. Aspy, Joseph Hanna, Ralph Boozer, Robert Stempel, William E. Munk, Perry Lesh, W. W. Dark and Mr. Frank Remy.

Pre-Concert Lecture Scheduled

Preceding the opening Friday afternoon concert by the Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra on Nov. 17, the women's committee of the Indiana State Symphony Society will hold the first of its scheduled pre-concert luncheon lectures under the general chairmanship of Mrs. Herbert M. Woollen. Mrs. Lenore Coffin will give a music talk.

Nearly 400 women are expected to attend the affair designated as the "Victory Luncheon" in honor of the members of the orchestra's volunteer staff who worked on the sale of season subscriptions with Mrs. Jack A. Goodman, chairman.

Among these women, who will be honor guests are Mesdames Phillip Adler Jr., Harold H. Arnholter, Dan W. Flickinger, William Herbert Gibbs, F. C. Groninger, Sylvester Johnson, Guy H. Shadiner, the Misses Mildred Falender, Rosalind Solomon, Irma Mae Steele, Betty Tharp, and Hazel Willman, Mrs. John O. Campbell of Marion and Miss Helen T. Whitcomb of Shelbyville. Mrs. Frederic M. Ayres, committee president, will present a trophy to the outstanding worker.

Special tables, which will be occupied by groups at every luncheon this year, have been reserved by Psi Iota Xi and Kappa Kappa Kappa Sororities, the Indianapolis branch of the American Association of University Women and by the wives of Indianapolis Klwanians.

Men interested in the welfare of the orchestra have been invited. They include the board of directors of the Indiana State Symphony Society; Ferdinand Schaefer, conductor emeritus of the orchestra; Messrs. W. Rowland Allen, DeWitt S. Morgan; Rabbi Morris M. Feuerthal and Msgr. Henry F. Dugan.

Many Invited to Attend

Among prominent Indiana women expected to attend are the chairmen of the 14 state units of the women's committee: Mrs. Ward G. Biddle, Bloomington; Miss Lois Luther, Brady; Mrs. Emily A. Powell, Columbus; Mrs. Carlton Shuck, Franklin; Mrs. Wesley Childers, Greencastle; Mrs. John A. Kauffman, Kokomo; Mrs. Floyd R. Eastwood, Lafayette; Mrs. C. D. Chilman, La Porte; Mrs. Robert J. Spencer, Marion; Mrs. Victor C. Hutzel, Muncie; Mrs. Montreay F. Hatt, New Castle; Mrs. Eugene K. Quigley, Richmond; Mrs. D. Wray DePree, Shelbyville, and Mrs. Howard Patton, Terre Haute.

Permanent committees in charge of all luncheon-lectures for the 1939-1940 concert season, have been appointed by Mrs. Woollen as follows: Mrs. John M. Cunningham, chairman of hostesses, with Mrs. Herbert Wagner and Miss Ada Bickling as co-chairmen; Mrs. August C. Bahlen and Mrs. Hortense Rauh Burpee, co-chairmen of menus; Mrs. Paul E. Fisher, ticket chairman, Mesdames Albert J. Beveridge Jr., Alfred W. Noling, Hiram W. McKee, John K. Ruckelshaus, Wayne Ritter, Robert F. Scott, Charles R. Weiss and Urban K. Wilde.

The auditorium committee, for the music talks which will follow each luncheon throughout the year, includes Mesdames Richard Helm and James S. Rogan. Mrs. George L. Denny is in charge of notices.

Reservations for the Friday luncheon will be received at the Murat Theater headquarters of the Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra until 5 p. m. Wednesday.

Propylaeum to Hear Bouton

S. Miles Bouton, who for 23 years was a foreign correspondent in Germany, will speak at 2:30 p. m. Thursday at the Propylaeum. He will talk on "Hitlerism or Civilization." Mr. Bouton spoke last year before the Propylaeum and several years ago to the Contemporary Club.

Mrs. Frederick E. Matson, president of the entertainment committee, and her assistants are presenting the lecture. They include Mesdames Robert N. Buchanan, Ryly Adams, Walter H. Hubbard, John W. Kern Sr., Ross C. Oettinger, Clarke Rogers, John E. Hollett, Hal R. Keeling, Howard R. Meeker, John T. Wheeler, C. D. Alexander, John Dale Crittenden, Cari Egleigh, H. A. Boomer, Henry C. Atkins, Albert G. Gall, Edna M. Christian, J. K. St. Russell Fortune, Leonard A. Ensminger, Kurt Vonnegut, Daniel B. Luten, William E. Gavin, Walter W. Kuhn, Hugh McGowan, Clyde H. George M. Dickson, Frank M. Fauvre, Frank L. Binfet, Herbert W. Todd, W. Richardson Sinclair, James S. Watson, Hughes Patten, George Buck, Walter Brown, Frederick C. Apke, Joe Rand Beckett, Walter H. Green, Edwin H. Forry, J. Emmett Hall, Harry Murphy, John W. Coffey, Benjamin D. Hitz and the Misses I. Hilda Stewart, Mary L. Sullivan, Emma Claypool, Belle Noble Dean and Gertrude Baker.

Peat to Talk at Museum

Wilbur Peat, director of the John Herron Art Museum, will present a gallery talk on the current exhibit of paintings by George Winter, first professional artist of the state, at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the museum. The talk will be free to the public.

Mr. Peat spent several months in research on the life and works of the artist as he assembled material for the first one-man show by George Winter. The artist came to Logansport from his home in England in 1837 and spent the rest of his life in the Wabash valley painting the Indians and scenery along the river.

Also on display this month at the museum is an exhibit of paintings and handicraft by Polish school children. The exhibition is in Sculpture Court. The woodwork, metalwork and glass are from the central workshop of the boys' high school in Warsaw.

Chili Supper Planned

hostesses will include Mesdames Howard Reed, Robert McAllister and Fred Phelan.

Rushes to be feted are the Misses Lois Moore, Marie and Anne Fox, Elaine Emery, Bernice Morgan, Rosemary Thurman and Mesdames Harlan Reude, Charles Neiman and Ruthes will be guests. Assistant Walter Tiffany.

1. Although Mrs. Paul V. McNutt has been married more than 20 years to a man who seldom has been out of the public eye, she insists her own career is at home. The Social Security Administrator is absent from home a good deal of the time but he enjoys its comforts, including breakfast, with Mrs. McNutt.

2. Mrs. McNutt set up an apartment in Indianapolis before establishing a home in the Shoreham. Here she is reading in the Washington apartment.

3. Anna, says Mrs. McNutt, is the world's best cook.

4. Faithful retainer "Kirk," the McNutt houseman, places a warm rug around Mrs. McNutt as she leaves in her car.

5. Mrs. McNutt's major outdoor activities are horseback riding and golf but one of her recreations is walking with her Doberman-Pinscher.

Times-Acme Photos.

1. Although Mrs. Paul V. McNutt has been married more than 20 years to a man who seldom has been out of the public eye, she insists her own career is at home. The Social Security Administrator is absent from home a good deal of the time but he enjoys its comforts, including breakfast, with Mrs. McNutt.

2. Mrs. McNutt set up an apartment in Indianapolis before establishing a home in the Shoreham. Here she is reading in the Washington apartment.

3. Anna, says Mrs. McNutt, is the world's best cook.

4. Faithful retainer "Kirk," the McNutt houseman, places a warm rug around Mrs. McNutt as she leaves in her car.

5. Mrs. McNutt's major outdoor activities are horseback riding and golf but one of her recreations is walking with her Doberman-Pinscher.

Times-Acme Photos.

1. Although Mrs. Paul V. McNutt has been married more than 20 years to a man who seldom has been out of the public eye, she insists her own career is at home. The Social Security Administrator is absent from home a good deal of the time but he enjoys its comforts, including breakfast, with Mrs. McNutt.

2. Mrs. McNutt set up an apartment in Indianapolis before establishing a home in the Shoreham. Here she is reading in the Washington apartment.

3. Anna, says Mrs. McNutt, is the world's best cook.

4. Faithful retainer "Kirk," the McNutt houseman, places a warm rug around Mrs. McNutt as she leaves in her car.

5. Mrs. McNutt's major outdoor activities are horseback riding and golf but one of her recreations is walking with her Doberman-Pinscher.

Times-Acme Photos.

1. Although Mrs. Paul V. McNutt has been married more than 20 years to a man who seldom has been out of the public eye, she insists her own career is at home. The Social Security Administrator is absent from home a good deal of the time but he enjoys its comforts, including breakfast, with Mrs. McNutt.

2. Mrs. McNutt set up an apartment in Indianapolis before establishing a home in the Shoreham. Here she is reading in the Washington apartment.

3. Anna, says Mrs. McNutt, is the world's best cook.

4. Faithful retainer "Kirk," the McNutt houseman, places a warm rug around Mrs. McNutt as she leaves in her car.

5. Mrs. McNutt's major outdoor activities are horseback riding and golf but one of her recreations is walking with her Doberman-Pinscher.

Times-Acme Photos.

1. Although Mrs. Paul V. McNutt has been married more than 20 years to a man who seldom has been out of the public eye, she insists her own career is at home. The Social Security Administrator is absent from home a good deal of the time but he enjoys its comforts, including breakfast, with Mrs. McNutt.

2. Mrs. McNutt set up an apartment in Indianapolis before establishing a home in the Shoreham. Here she is reading in the Washington apartment.

3. Anna, says Mrs. McNutt, is the world's best cook.

4. Faithful retainer "Kirk," the McNutt houseman, places a warm rug around Mrs. McNutt as she leaves in her car.

5. Mrs. McNutt's major outdoor activities are horseback riding and golf but one of her recreations is walking with her Doberman-Pinscher.

Times-Acme Photos.

1. Although Mrs. Paul V. McNutt has been married more than 20 years to a man who seldom has been out of the public eye, she insists her own career is at home. The Social Security Administrator is absent from home a good deal of the time but he enjoys its comforts, including breakfast, with Mrs. McNutt.

2. Mrs. McNutt set up an apartment in Indianapolis before establishing a home in the Shoreham. Here she is reading in the Washington apartment.

3. Anna, says Mrs. McNutt, is the world's best cook.

4. Faithful retainer "Kirk," the McNutt houseman, places a warm rug around Mrs. McNutt as she leaves in her car.

5. Mrs. McNutt's major outdoor activities are horseback riding and golf but one of her recreations is walking with her Doberman-Pinscher.

Times-Acme Photos.

1. Although Mrs. Paul V. McNutt has been married more than 20 years to a man who seldom has been out of the public eye, she insists her own career is at home. The Social Security Administrator is absent from home a good deal of the time but he enjoys its comforts, including breakfast, with Mrs. McNutt.

2. Mrs. McNutt set up an apartment in Indianapolis before establishing a home in the Shoreham. Here she is reading in the Washington apartment.

3. Anna, says Mrs. McNutt, is the world's best cook.

4. Faithful retainer "Kirk," the McNutt houseman, places a warm rug around Mrs. McNutt as she leaves in her car.

5. Mrs. McNutt's major outdoor activities are horseback riding and golf but one of her recreations is walking with her Doberman-Pinscher.

Times-Acme Photos.

1. Although Mrs. Paul V. McNutt has been married more than 20 years to a man who seldom has been out of the public eye, she insists her own career is at home. The Social Security Administrator is absent from home a good deal of the time but he enjoys its comforts, including breakfast, with Mrs. McNutt.

2. Mrs. McNutt set up an apartment in Indianapolis before establishing a home in the Shoreham. Here she is reading in the Washington apartment.

3. Anna, says Mrs. McNutt, is the world's best cook.

4. Faithful retainer "Kirk," the McNutt houseman, places a warm rug around Mrs. McNutt as she leaves in her car.

5. Mrs. McNutt's major outdoor activities are horseback riding and golf but one of her recreations is walking with her Doberman-Pinscher.

Times-Acme Photos.

1. Although Mrs. Paul V. McNutt has been married more than 20 years to a man who seldom has been out of the public eye, she insists her own career is at home. The Social Security Administrator is absent from home a good deal of the time but he enjoys its comforts, including breakfast, with Mrs. McNutt.

2. Mrs. McNutt set up an apartment in Indianapolis before establishing a home in the Shoreham. Here she is reading in the Washington apartment.

3. Anna, says Mrs. McNutt, is the world's best cook.

4. Faithful retainer "Kirk," the McNutt houseman, places a warm rug around Mrs. McNutt as she leaves in her car.

5. Mrs. McNutt's major outdoor activities are horseback riding and golf but one of her recreations is walking with her Doberman-Pinscher.

Times-Acme Photos.

1. Although Mrs. Paul V. McNutt has been married more than 20 years to a man who seldom has been out of the public eye, she insists her own career is at home. The Social Security Administrator is absent from home a good deal of the time but he enjoys its comforts, including breakfast, with Mrs. McNutt.

2. Mrs. McNutt set up an apartment in Indianapolis before establishing a home in the Shoreham. Here she is reading in the Washington apartment.

3. Anna, says Mrs. McNutt, is the world's best cook.

4. Faithful retainer "Kirk," the McNutt houseman, places a warm rug around Mrs. McNutt as she leaves in her car.

5. Mrs. McNutt's major outdoor activities are horseback riding and golf but one of her recreations is walking with her Doberman-Pinscher.

Times-Acme Photos.

1. Although Mrs. Paul V. McNutt has been married more than 20 years to a man who seldom has been out of the public eye, she insists her own career is at home. The Social Security Administrator is absent from home a good deal of the time but he enjoys its comforts, including breakfast, with Mrs. McNutt.

2. Mrs. McNutt set up an apartment in Indianapolis before establishing a home in the Shoreham. Here she is reading in the Washington apartment.

3. Anna, says Mrs. McNutt, is the world's best cook.

4. Faithful retainer "Kirk," the McNutt houseman, places a warm rug around Mrs. McNutt as she leaves in her car.

5. Mrs. McNutt's major outdoor activities are horseback riding and golf but one of her recreations is walking with her Doberman-Pinscher.

Times-Acme Photos.

1. Although Mrs. Paul V. McNutt has been married more than 20 years to a man who seldom has been out of the public eye, she insists her own career is at home. The Social Security Administrator is absent from home a good deal of the time but he enjoys its comforts, including breakfast, with Mrs. McNutt.

2. Mrs. McNutt set up an apartment in Indianapolis before establishing a home in the Shoreham. Here she is reading in the Washington apartment.

3. Anna, says Mrs. McNutt, is the world's best cook.

4. Faithful retainer "Kirk," the McNutt houseman, places a warm rug around Mrs. McNutt as she leaves in her car.

5. Mrs. McNutt's major outdoor activities are horseback riding and golf but one of her recreations is walking with her Doberman-Pinscher.