

DOCTORS DINE AND INSTALL OFFICERS . . . DR. MORGAN HONORED BY SOCIETY . . . NICE WORK, MRS. RYAN . . .

New officers of the Marion County Medical Society were installed at the annual dinner dance of that organization held last night at the Indianapolis Athletic Club. Left to right are Dr. Ben B. Moore, 1940 president; Dr. William Dugan, secretary-treasurer; and Dr. J. William Wright, chairman of the council. Dr. J. O. Ritchey (right) is the president-elect.

Dr. Herman G. Morgan proudly displays to Mrs. Morgan the plaque given him last night by the society in appreciation of "faithful and efficient service" as president in 1939. The citation further reads "in token of the high esteem in which he is held, this certificate is presented as an expression of our fraternal regard."

This group inspects a prize won at the dinner by Mrs. Glen Ryan (fourth from left). Dining together were (left to right, seated) Mrs. Ralph McQuiston, Dr. Frank McQuiston, Mrs. Ryan, Mrs. David Jones, Dr. Ryan and (standing, left to right) Dr. McQuiston and Dr. Jones.

SOCIETY—

Children to Vie for Riding Honors at Brown Stables.

Life around the R. H. Brown stables is by no means dull these days. The first in a series of five children's riding tournaments will be held at 8 p. m. Friday. That's the topnotch event, while on the side are numerous sleigh-ride and skating parties and skijoring—new to most local winter sports devotees.

The riding tournament, conducted by Mrs. Margaret Abraham Feore, will consist of five horsemanship classes and is open to children all over town. The first class is for riders 10 years old and under; the second for children between 11 and 14 years old; the third for riders between 15 and 18 years, and the fourth and fifth classes, the Junior and Senior Equestrian Clubs at Shortridge.

Tillman Buzenberg will judge the events. The groups will walk, trot and canter; then reverse and canter. The blue ribbon winner of each show will be awarded five points; red ribbon or second prize winner, four points, and so on down to the fourth prize winner who will get two points. At the end of the five tournaments, individual scores will be computed and the grand winner will be presented with a championship trophy.

Venturesome Try Out New Winter Sport

So much for the tournament and a little about the skijoring which involves a horse, a rider and a skier who hangs on behind. There are plenty of disasters, it seems, but they are soon forgotten. Among the venturesome few who attempt skijoring are Mesdames Clayton Mogg, Alex Metzger and Morris Rosner, and, of course, many of the younger fry, who think nothing of being dashed through a snowbank, face down.

One-horse cutters have appeared, as if from the blue, during the cold snap and are popular with young couples. The Alex Metzgers have a convenient skating pond right across the road from the stables and it has been jammed with skaters every afternoon and evening. The regular luncheon group that meets at the stables each Monday hurries to the pond as soon as dessert is over. Skaters after last Monday's gathering included Mesdames Frank McKibben, Ray Bunch, A. H. Fiske, Donald Test, Orland Church, Samuel Goldberg, Marjorie Bunch and Joan Metzger.

Filmarte Guild Program Will Be Topic

The Filmarte Guild's committee on student-teacher special showings will sponsor a tea from 4 to 5 p. m. Friday at John Herron Art Institute. The foreign films to be shown in the coming months before this group will be discussed.

Charles Hadley, new head of the voice department at Arthur Jordan Conservatory of Music, will talk on "Moonlight Sonata," "As You Like It" and "Grand Illusion." The historical significance of "Mayerling" will be discussed by Charles C. Martin, head of the language department at Technical High School.

Mrs. Martin heads the committee on tea arrangements, assisted by Mrs. Lenore Ivey Frederickson and Mrs. Donald Mattinson.

Patrons and patronesses named today include President D. S. Robinson of Butler University, DeWitt S. Morgan, superintendent of Indianapolis Public Schools; E. Francis Bowditch, headmaster of Park School; Miss Mary Cory, executive secretary of the Indiana University Extension Division; Gordon Thompson, director of Orchard School; Miss I. Hilda Stewart, principal of Tudor Hall School, and Mr. Martin and Harold Winslow, head of the music department at Manual High School.

New members of the subscription committee are Mesdames Herbert Gibbs, Neil Thomas, Dorothy Kohlstadt and the Misses Betty Jane Hesterstadt, Patricia Cullen, Charlotte Pearson and Helen Haggard. James Cullen and Miss Carol Miedema are members of the student workers committee. Mrs. H. H. Arnholter is general chairman of the showings.

The board of directors of the Indianapolis Day Nursery will hold its annual all-day meeting tomorrow at the nursery. The business session will open at 10 a. m. Luncheon will be at 1 p. m.

The Woman's Contract Club will play at 1:15 p. m. tomorrow at the Indianapolis Athletic Club.

Paul R. Matthews, co-director of music for "Knickerbocker Holiday," a musical comedy to open at the Civic Theater Friday, will review the play at a meeting of the Women's Affairs Committee study group meeting Friday morning. Mrs. Myron J. McKee, 4510 Park Ave., will be hostess.

Also on the program will be Mrs. John C. Dwyer, director of the Children's Civic Theater's first play this season, who will describe the Children's Theater at Atlanta, Ga., where she served as director.

St. Vincent's Hospital Guild Notes Seventh Year Jan. 24

St. Vincent's Hospital Guild will mark the seventh anniversary of its founding Jan. 24th with a luncheon-bridge at the Indianapolis Athletic Club. The cutting of the organization's birthday cake, a gift of Sister Rose, hospital superintendent, and baked in the hospital kitchen, is a traditional ceremony on Founders' Day.

Mrs. Frank A. Madden, guild president, will preside. Mrs. Harry Kitterman, luncheon chairman, is being assisted by Mrs. C. L. Eissman. The ticket committee includes Mrs. M. T. Patten, chairman; Mrs. T. B. Graves, co-chairman; Mesdames Fred Thomas, S. W. Terry, Everett Hays, Ralph Ittenbach, Hugh Brady, Tracy Whitaker, D. T. Burns, Norman Loomis, William Fred Sander, Kevin Brosnan, Charles Mason, Frank Lohrback, George J. Smith, Emil C. Rassman and Denver Fuller. Decorations are being planned by Mrs. Mildred Wilmett, assisted by Mesdames Ted Marbaugh, D. D. Outright and Thomas J. Scanlan. Mrs. Ralph Nessler and Mrs. J. William Wright are in charge of prizes.

The guild is a non-sectarian group which supplements the philanthropic work of the Sisters of Charity at the hospital among patients of all creeds. The organization's 500 members donate their services for patients in the maternity and children's wards. Welfare work funds are obtained through dues and the annual benefit supper dance. This year's ball will be April 6 at the I. A. C. Mrs. David C. Klausmeyer will be general chairman.
