

YOUTH MEETING OPENS TONIGHT

County Church Conference Will Hear Echoes of World Session.

Echoes of the World Conference of Christian Youth last summer at Amsterdam will be brought to the annual Marion County Young People's Conference in St. Paul's Methodist Church beginning tonight.

Miss Eleanor Young of Indianapolis and Arthur Pittenger, a DePauw University student, will report the world conference to about 200 local young people at the meeting, which is sponsored by the Marion County Council of Religious Education. Both of these young people were delegates to the Amsterdam sessions. They will speak tomorrow morning.

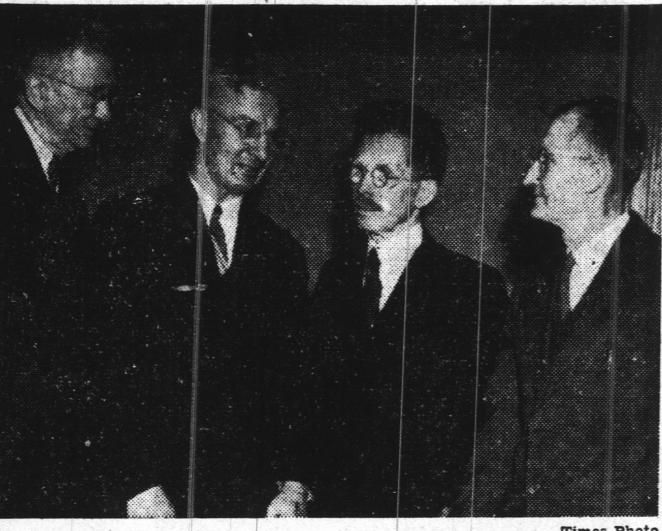

The conference motto, "Christus Victor" (Christ Triumphant), also will be the same one used at the world conference.

The County session will open at St. Paul's at 6:30 o'clock tonight with welcoming addresses being given by the Rev. C. R. Lisenby, host church pastor, and Samuel Privett, council president.

These talks will be followed by discussion groups led by Prof. James Webber of Indiana Central College, the Rev. Harry Campbell, First Presbyterian Church assistant pastor; Bert Hodge, a North Manchester young people's worker; the Rev. Almon J. Coble, Brightwood Methodist Church pastor; the Rev. George T. King, Emerson Avenue Baptist Church pastor, and the Rev. Richard Dempsey, Meridian Heights Presbyterian Church assistant pastor.

An early morning watch tomorrow will be led by Miss Lillie King, Central Christian Church young people's worker, and Phillip Shaw of Danville.

Dry Leaders Choose Slate

These Indiana Prohibition Party leaders participated in the one-day convention of their organization yesterday at Castle Hall. They are (left to right) Edward Blake, Chicago, national chairman; E. S. Lewis, Glenwood, state chairman; A. E. Wrenmore, Indianapolis, state vice chairman, and H. L. Seeger, Indianapolis, nominee for the Senate in 1938. Dr. S. E. McConn, president of Marion College, was named the party's nominee for U. S. Senator yesterday. Other nominees were: Mr. Seeger, for Governor; Harry Peacock, Kokomo, lieutenant governor; L. C. Byrum, Anderson, secretary of state; Roscoe Smith, Kokomo, auditor; George A. Hottell, Georgetown, treasurer; Marion C. Miller, Huntington, superintendent of public instruction; Lewis P. Miller, Moreland, Supreme Court reporter; W. A. Jackson, Attica, and Harold E. Mason, Huntington, presidential electors at large.

DR. I. OWEN FOSTER SCORES FINNISH LOAN

SENDS SCHOOL $20 AFTER 50-YEAR LAPSE

BLOOMINGTON, Ind., Feb. 23.—Dr. I. Owen Foster, of Indiana University, a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Congress from the Seventh District, issued a statement here today, condemning government loans to Finland.

"The Government has no business loaning money to Finland or any other nation at war. Such an act surely will lead America to the brink of war," he said.

Times Special

WARRENSBURG, Mo., Feb. 23 (U. P.)—An old woman has paid Central Missouri State Teachers College a debt she made 50 years ago.

Official declined to reveal her name, but they believed there was more to the payment than the usual story of a stricken conscience and a debt paid years after it was forgotten.

The letter, in which was inclosed a $20 money order, was written by a trembling hand.

HOLLYWOOD, Feb. 23 (U. P.)—Alice Faye, blond motion picture star and singer, today instructed her attorney to file suit for divorce against Tony Martin, a singer who became famous in New York after Hollywood had ignored him.

The actress said that she and Mr. Martin had been together only three months in the last 18, and she would seek a divorce on grounds of incompatible ways.

"A divorce is the only solution," she said. They were married in Yuma, Ariz., Sept. 8, 1937.

Times Special

FALL RIVER, Mass., Feb. 23 (U. P.)—It was a considerate thief who stole three slightly used automobile tires from the home of Ralph Saccone. In their place he left three old tires.

Times Special

WICHITA, Kan., Feb. 23 (U. P.)—A WPA replica of a Chippendale chair is six inches high and three inches wide. Cupboards stand nine to 10 inches high. Tables and settees range from five to eight inches in width and height. Each piece is authentic in every detail.

The furniture is exhibited in museums and schools to thousands of adults and school children, according to Mrs. Mary Addington, supervisor.

Educational agencies have realized pictures are valuable as teaching devices but three-dimensional objects are of even greater value.

she said. "In this way, we are able to bring directly to large groups of people types of furniture designed so well by its makers that after hundreds of years, the basic pattern has never been improved."

Times Special

WICHITA, Kan., Feb. 23 (U. P.)—A WPA replica of a Chippendale chair is six inches high and three inches wide. Cupboards stand nine to 10 inches high. Tables and settees range from five to eight inches in width and height. Each piece is authentic in every detail.

The furniture is exhibited in museums and schools to thousands of adults and school children, according to Mrs. Mary Addington, supervisor.

Educational agencies have realized pictures are valuable as teaching devices but three-dimensional objects are of even greater value.

she said. "In this way, we are able to bring directly to large groups of people types of furniture designed so well by its makers that after hundreds of years, the basic pattern has never been improved."

Times Special

FALL RIVER, Mass., Feb. 23 (U. P.)—It was a considerate thief who stole three slightly used automobile tires from the home of Ralph Saccone. In their place he left three old tires.

Times Special

WICHITA, Kan., Feb. 23 (U. P.)—A WPA replica of a Chippendale chair is six inches high and three inches wide. Cupboards stand nine to 10 inches high. Tables and settees range from five to eight inches in width and height. Each piece is authentic in every detail.

The furniture is exhibited in museums and schools to thousands of adults and school children, according to Mrs. Mary Addington, supervisor.

Educational agencies have realized pictures are valuable as teaching devices but three-dimensional objects are of even greater value.

she said. "In this way, we are able to bring directly to large groups of people types of furniture designed so well by its makers that after hundreds of years, the basic pattern has never been improved."

Times Special

FALL RIVER, Mass., Feb. 23 (U. P.)—It was a considerate thief who stole three slightly used automobile tires from the home of Ralph Saccone. In their place he left three old tires.

Times Special

WICHITA, Kan., Feb. 23 (U. P.)—A WPA replica of a Chippendale chair is six inches high and three inches wide. Cupboards stand nine to 10 inches high. Tables and settees range from five to eight inches in width and height. Each piece is authentic in every detail.

The furniture is exhibited in museums and schools to thousands of adults and school children, according to Mrs. Mary Addington, supervisor.

Educational agencies have realized pictures are valuable as teaching devices but three-dimensional objects are of even greater value.

she said. "In this way, we are able to bring directly to large groups of people types of furniture designed so well by its makers that after hundreds of years, the basic pattern has never been improved."

Times Special

FALL RIVER, Mass., Feb. 23 (U. P.)—It was a considerate thief who stole three slightly used automobile tires from the home of Ralph Saccone. In their place he left three old tires.

Times Special

WICHITA, Kan., Feb. 23 (U. P.)—A WPA replica of a Chippendale chair is six inches high and three inches wide. Cupboards stand nine to 10 inches high. Tables and settees range from five to eight inches in width and height. Each piece is authentic in every detail.

The furniture is exhibited in museums and schools to thousands of adults and school children, according to Mrs. Mary Addington, supervisor.

Educational agencies have realized pictures are valuable as teaching devices but three-dimensional objects are of even greater value.

she said. "In this way, we are able to bring directly to large groups of people types of furniture designed so well by its makers that after hundreds of years, the basic pattern has never been improved."

Times Special

FALL RIVER, Mass., Feb. 23 (U. P.)—It was a considerate thief who stole three slightly used automobile tires from the home of Ralph Saccone. In their place he left three old tires.

Times Special

WICHITA, Kan., Feb. 23 (U. P.)—A WPA replica of a Chippendale chair is six inches high and three inches wide. Cupboards stand nine to 10 inches high. Tables and settees range from five to eight inches in width and height. Each piece is authentic in every detail.

The furniture is exhibited in museums and schools to thousands of adults and school children, according to Mrs. Mary Addington, supervisor.

Educational agencies have realized pictures are valuable as teaching devices but three-dimensional objects are of even greater value.

she said. "In this way, we are able to bring directly to large groups of people types of furniture designed so well by its makers that after hundreds of years, the basic pattern has never been improved."

Times Special

FALL RIVER, Mass., Feb. 23 (U. P.)—It was a considerate thief who stole three slightly used automobile tires from the home of Ralph Saccone. In their place he left three old tires.

Times Special

WICHITA, Kan., Feb. 23 (U. P.)—A WPA replica of a Chippendale chair is six inches high and three inches wide. Cupboards stand nine to 10 inches high. Tables and settees range from five to eight inches in width and height. Each piece is authentic in every detail.

The furniture is exhibited in museums and schools to thousands of adults and school children, according to Mrs. Mary Addington, supervisor.

Educational agencies have realized pictures are valuable as teaching devices but three-dimensional objects are of even greater value.

she said. "In this way, we are able to bring directly to large groups of people types of furniture designed so well by its makers that after hundreds of years, the basic pattern has never been improved."

Times Special

FALL RIVER, Mass., Feb. 23 (U. P.)—It was a considerate thief who stole three slightly used automobile tires from the home of Ralph Saccone. In their place he left three old tires.

Times Special

WICHITA, Kan., Feb. 23 (U. P.)—A WPA replica of a Chippendale chair is six inches high and three inches wide. Cupboards stand nine to 10 inches high. Tables and settees range from five to eight inches in width and height. Each piece is authentic in every detail.

The furniture is exhibited in museums and schools to thousands of adults and school children, according to Mrs. Mary Addington, supervisor.

Educational agencies have realized pictures are valuable as teaching devices but three-dimensional objects are of even greater value.

she said. "In this way, we are able to bring directly to large groups of people types of furniture designed so well by its makers that after hundreds of years, the basic pattern has never been improved."

Times Special

FALL RIVER, Mass., Feb. 23 (U. P.)—It was a considerate thief who stole three slightly used automobile tires from the home of Ralph Saccone. In their place he left three old tires.

Times Special

WICHITA, Kan., Feb. 23 (U. P.)—A WPA replica of a Chippendale chair is six inches high and three inches wide. Cupboards stand nine to 10 inches high. Tables and settees range from five to eight inches in width and height. Each piece is authentic in every detail.

The furniture is exhibited in museums and schools to thousands of adults and school children, according to Mrs. Mary Addington, supervisor.

Educational agencies have realized pictures are valuable as teaching devices but three-dimensional objects are of even greater value.

she said. "In this way, we are able to bring directly to large groups of people types of furniture designed so well by its makers that after hundreds of years, the basic pattern has never been improved."

Times Special

FALL RIVER, Mass., Feb. 23 (U. P.)—It was a considerate thief who stole three slightly used automobile tires from the home of Ralph Saccone. In their place he left three old tires.

Times Special

WICHITA, Kan., Feb. 23 (U. P.)—A WPA replica of a Chippendale chair is six inches high and three inches wide. Cupboards stand nine to 10 inches high. Tables and settees range from five to eight inches in width and height. Each piece is authentic in every detail.

The furniture is exhibited in museums and schools to thousands of adults and school children, according to Mrs. Mary Addington, supervisor.

Educational agencies have realized pictures are valuable as teaching devices but three-dimensional objects are of even greater value.

she said. "In this way, we are able to bring directly to large groups of people types of furniture designed so well by its makers that after hundreds of years, the basic pattern has never been improved."

Times Special

FALL RIVER, Mass., Feb. 23 (U. P.)—It was a considerate thief who stole three slightly used automobile tires from the home of Ralph Saccone. In their place he left three old tires.

Times Special

WICHITA, Kan., Feb. 23 (U. P.)—A WPA replica of a Chippendale chair is six inches high and three inches wide. Cupboards stand nine to 10 inches high. Tables and settees range from five to eight inches in width and height. Each piece is authentic in every detail.

The furniture is exhibited in museums and schools to thousands of adults and school children, according to Mrs. Mary Addington, supervisor.

Educational agencies have realized pictures are valuable as teaching devices but three-dimensional objects are of even greater value.

she said. "In this way, we are able to bring directly to large groups of people types of furniture designed so well by its makers that after hundreds of years, the basic pattern has never been improved."

Times Special

FALL RIVER, Mass., Feb. 23 (U. P.)—It was a considerate thief who stole three slightly used automobile tires from the home of Ralph Saccone. In their place he left three old tires.

Times Special

WICHITA, Kan., Feb. 23 (U. P.)—A WPA replica of a Chippendale chair is six inches high and three inches wide. Cupboards stand nine to 10 inches high. Tables and settees range from five to eight inches in width and height. Each piece is authentic in every detail.

The furniture is exhibited in museums and schools to thousands of adults and school children, according to Mrs. Mary Addington, supervisor.

Educational agencies have realized pictures are valuable as teaching devices but three-dimensional objects are of even greater value.

she said. "In this way, we are able to bring directly to large groups of people types of furniture designed so well by its makers that after hundreds of years, the basic pattern has never been improved."

Times Special

FALL RIVER, Mass., Feb. 23 (U. P.)—It was a considerate thief who stole three slightly used automobile tires from the home of Ralph Saccone. In their place he left three old tires.

Times Special

WICHITA, Kan., Feb. 23 (U. P.)—A WPA replica of a Chippendale chair is six inches high and three inches wide. Cupboards stand nine to 10 inches high. Tables and settees range from five to eight inches in width and height. Each piece is authentic in every detail.

The furniture is exhibited in museums and schools to thousands of adults and school children, according to Mrs. Mary Addington, supervisor.

Educational agencies have realized pictures are valuable as teaching devices but three-dimensional objects are of even greater value.

she said. "In this way, we are able to bring directly to large groups of people types of furniture designed so well by its makers that after hundreds of years, the basic pattern has never been improved."

Times Special

FALL RIVER, Mass., Feb. 23 (U. P.)—It was a considerate thief who stole three slightly used automobile tires from the home of Ralph Saccone. In their place he left three old tires.

Times Special

WICHITA, Kan., Feb. 23 (U. P.)—A WPA replica of a Chippendale chair is six inches high and three inches wide. Cupboards stand nine to 10 inches high. Tables and settees range from five to eight inches in width and height. Each piece is authentic in every detail.

The furniture is exhibited in museums and schools to thousands of adults and school children, according to Mrs. Mary Addington, supervisor.

Educational agencies have realized pictures are valuable as teaching devices but three-dimensional objects are of even greater value.

she said. "In this way, we are able to bring directly to large groups of people types of furniture designed so well by its makers that