

SOCIETY—

'April Showers Tonight'
Is Lambs Club Forecast

There will be "April Showers" in the Columbia Club ballroom tonight no matter what the weather man provides elsewhere. The Lambs Club Frolic will feature the musical show of that name.

The opening chorus by the entire company will be "April Showers" followed by Dr. Wayne L. Ritter and the company singing "Easter Parade." Johnnie Sweet, dance director for the production, will do a waltz clog with the latter number.

An Italian flower vendor, impersonated by Stuart Dean, will appear with a wheelbarrow from which Miss Louise Argus will distribute bouquets to the Top Hat Octet. She will sing "The Message of the Violet" as she gives the flowers to Horace F. Hill III, Paul R. Matthews, William Macgregor Morris, Jack H. Rhodes, Dr. Ritter, Robert D. Robinson, Vernon Roth and Harry S. Shepard.

Octet Will Be Featured

Joseph C. Wallace will appear with the Bachelor Girls, Miss Betty Brown and the Mesdames Otto William Eisenlohr, Harrison Eiteljorg, Dudley Gallahue, Walter Stuhldreher and Henry E. Todd, in a skit titled "The Bachelor Fox."

The Top Hat Octet will appear with Mrs. J. Harry Green and Mr. Robinson in "All the Things You Are." In the "Me and My Shadow" number, Dudley Gallahue will be "Me" and Joe Louis Jr., "My Shadow."

Mrs. Green will sing "When Spring Is in the Air" with the Top Hat Octet and Mrs. William Frederick Souder, Mr. Sweet and Mr. Robinson will do "Two Cigarettes in the Dark." "Wasn't It a Lovely Day to Be Caught in the Rain" will be the finale.

Mrs. Ritter and Miss Smith Jr. will be pianists and Mr. Eiteljorg will be commentator. Singers and strollers will be Mr. and Mrs. Julius Birge, Mr. Souder, Mr. Stuhldreher, Mrs. Rhodes, Mr. Todd, Sylvester Johnson Jr. and John Gordon Kingham. Dr. and Mrs. Ritter head the production committee, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Robinson and Mr. and Mrs. John K. Ruckelshaus.

Reservations Pour In

More than 200 reservations have been made for the Frolic. Mr. and Mrs. Blaine E. Matthews of Portsmouth, O., who are spending the week-end with Mrs. Matthews' sister, Mrs. David Andrews, and Mr. Andrews will entertain a party of 12 at dinner.

Other large parties will be those of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Madden, Herbert J. Reade, Mr. and Mrs. Abbott Johnson II of Muncie, Ind., Mr. and Mrs. Burrell Wright and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gallagher.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Atkins will be Messrs. and Mesdames Samuel B. Sutphin, J. P. Frenzel and Roger G. Wolcott.

Ruth Zinn Will Wed Today

Miss Ruth Zinn will become the bride of Robert Davy Eaglesfield Jr. today at 4 p. m. in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Zinn.

The mantel before which Dr. Jean S. Miller will perform the ceremony will be decorated with a low plateau of white calladium, genista and stocks and yellow pansies and roses interspersed with candles. Narrow white satin ribbons caught with bouquets of spring flowers will be used to form an aisleway for the bride and her attendant, Miss Joanne Disette.

Before the ceremony, Dale Young, organist, will play the Intermezzo from "Cavalleria Rusticana," the "Prize Song" from "Die Meistersinger," Rubinstein's "Kammerlied-Ostrow," the "Venetian Love Song," "To An Evening Star" and "Ave Maria." "Liebestraum" will be played during the ceremony and the Lohengrin and Mendelssohn wedding marches will be used for the processional and recessional.

Mr. Zinn will give his daughter in marriage. She will wear a candlelight satin gown, designed with a high neck, long, fitted sleeves and a bouffant skirt falling into a train from the waistline. Her finger-tip illusion veil will fall from a Juliet cap of seed pearls and she will carry a fan of white calla lilies.

Miss Disette will wear a marquisette with long, full sleeves gathered into wristbands, a romance neckline and a bouffant skirt. She will wear a pansy-colored velvet bow in her hair to match the mantel. She will carry a fan of white calla lilies.
