The Rev. E. Ainger Powell will read the ceremony before an altar banked with ferns and vases of Talsman roses. The chancel will be lighted by candelabra entwined with smilax. Cheston L. Heath, organist, will play the Lohengrin wedding march and Mrs. Lenore Ivey Frederickson will sing "O Perfect Love."

Mr. Worthall will give his daughter in marriage. Her gown of embroidered net over taffeta is fashioned with a square neckline, short puffed sleeves and a skirt falling into a slight train. A cap of orange blossoms will hold her fingertip-length illusion veil and she will wear long lace mitts, an heirloom of the family. She will carry a white prayer book with a single orchid from which will fall streamers knotted with lilies of the valley.

Bride's Sister Is Attendant

The bride's sister, Mrs. Mary Evalline Husted, will be matron of honor. Her gown of aquamarine chiffon has a shirred bodice with puffed sleeves and a full skirt. She will wear matching lace mitts and a leghorn picture hat and will carry a sheaf of delphinium and Talsman roses. Miss Mildred Mae Cox will wear moonbeam yellow chiffon styled like the matron of honor's gown. Shee, too, will wear a leghorn hat and carry delphinium and Talsman roses.

Herman C. Fischer will be best man and ushers will be Michael A. Worthall, brother of the bride, Edwin L. Paul, Carl R. Huber and James W. Worthall.

Mrs. Worthall, mother of the bride, will be in black lace trimmed in white lace, and a white picture hat. Her corsage will be of sweet, heart roses and forget-me-nots. A crown of powder blue sheer with full-length matching coat will be worn by the bridegroom's mother. She will have a small white hat and will wear white calluses.

Reception to Follow

A reception at the home of the bride's parents will follow the ceremony. The bride's table will be centered with a tiered wedding cake surrounded by bride's roses and ferns. Other tables will be decorated with delphinium. Baskets of pink and white peonies will be used throughout the house.

Following a trip to Chicago the couple will be at home at 3608 Balsam Ave. The bride will travel in a sheer white frock over which she will wear a black redingote. Her accessories will be white and she will wear an orchid corsage.

Mary Ann Leach Becomes Bride

The Schola Cantorum of St. Peter and Paul Cathedral, of which the bridegroom is a member, sang the music of the nuptial mass for Miss Mary Ann Leach and Henry J. Budenz III this morning in St. Joan of Arc Catholic Church. Elmer A. Steffen, K. S. G., directed the musical program for the ceremony which took place at 9 o'clock.

At the offertory Edward LaShelle sang "Ave Maria" (Kahn), accompanied by Edward Krieger, organist. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Zeo W. Leach, 5727 N. Delaware St., and Mr. Budenz is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Budenz Jr. of Terre Haute, Ind.

The Rev. Fr. Clement M. Bosler officiated at the ceremony. The main altar was banked with palms and cibotium ferns and decorated with tall cathedral candles and gold vases of white lilies. The side altars were decorated with tall vases of Briarcliff roses and delphinium, and the pews were marked with white satin ribbon and lilies.

Miss Lois Randolph, maid of honor, and Miss Mary Catherine Budenz, sister of the bridegroom, wore marquisette gowns designed with short puffed sleeves, high gathered necklines shirred into tightly fitted bodices, and full skirts trimmed with bands of pink and blue ribbon. Miss Budenz wore French pink and Miss Budenz wore aqua. Miss Joan Rita Leach, sister of the bride, was junior bridesmaid. Her bon-bon pink velvety frock was made with a sweetheart neckline, puffed sleeves, fitted bodice and full skirt.

All of the attendants wore hats of pink and blue net trimmed with matching ribbons and tied with large net bows at the back. They carried colonial bouquets of Briarcliff roses and delphinium from which fell pink and blue streamers.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, chose a gown of white velvety marquisette, with a sweetheart neckline and long, fitted sleeves finished with polka dots over the hands. The full skirt sweeping into a long train fell from a long, pointed bodice. Her fingertip-length veil of white illusion was designed with a halo trimmed with lilies of the valley. She carried a cascade bouquet of gardenias, white orchids and roses tied with French lace ribbon.

Douglas Stevens was best man. Ushers were Robert Paul Leach, brother of the bride, and Maurice A. Schill, cousin of the bridegroom. Mrs. Leach, the bride's mother, was crowned in heavenly blue marquisette and lace, worn with pink accessories. She wore a corsage of pink roses and Belmont gardenias. Mrs. Budenz, mother of the bridegroom, wore a tearose sheer with powder blue accessories and a corsage of Talsman roses and delphinium.

Breakfast at I. A. C. A wedding breakfast for the immediate families in the Green Room of the Indianapolis Athletic Club followed the ceremony, and a reception was to be held this afternoon from 2 to 4 p. m. Vases of spring flowers decorated the bride's table and the tiered wedding cake was surrounded by a mound of roses and delphinium. The table was lighted with pink and blue tapers.

The couple will be at home in Indianapolis upon their return from a wedding trip. The bride's going away costume will be of white shirred with which she will wear cocoa brown accessories and white orchids. She attended Alabama University where she was a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma Sorority.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. John F. Cahill, Pontiac, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. E. Robert Leach, Ft. Wayne, Ind.; Mr. and Mrs. Edward G. Leach, Emmingham, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. Carl A. Schill and Mrs. Maurice A. Schill, Lakewood, O., and Thomas O'Brien, Terre Haute, Ind.

Attendants Wore Halo Hats. The ceremony, performed by the Rev. Roy Ewing Vale, will take place before a background of palms and ferns interspersed with Madonna lilies. Miss Donna Alles, organist, will play a program of bridal music, including "Ich Liebe Dich," "At Dawning," "Speed Thee My Arrow," "To a Wild Rose," Mendelssohn's "Song" and "The Sweet Mystery of Life" and "The Bells of St. Mary's." Mrs. Edward B. Crowell, sister-in-law of the bride, will sing "Because" and "I Love You Truly." She will wear a gown of pink net and lace with a corsage of Briarcliff roses and baby's breath.

Mr. Crowell will give his daughter in marriage. Her gown of white marquisette and Chantilly lace is fashioned with a romance neckline, short puffed sleeves and a full skirt forming a full train. Matching lace gloves and a full length veil of illusion will complete her coronet of seed pearls complete her costume. She will carry a rose point lace handkerchief which belonged to her great aunt and will wear a gold necklace with a pearl drop which was her mother's wedding gift from her father. Her flowers will be a cascade of American Pride roses and lilies of the valley.

New York Girl Is Attendant. Miss June Lippert, East Aurora, N. Y., maid of honor, will wear aqua marquisette in bouffant style with a square neckline bordered in Alencon lace. Bands of the lace are inset in the skirt. She will wear a fillet of sweetheart roses in her hair and will carry a cascade of Briarcliff roses and baby's breath. The flower girl, Norma Jane Reiboldt, Swazee, Ind., will have a frock of pleated pink chiffon and will wear a band of sweetheart roses in her hair. She will carry a white basket filled with pink rose petals. John Randolph, Lafayette, Ind., brother of the bridegroom, will be best man and the ushers will be Edward B. Crowell, brother of the bride, and Samuel Curtis, Lafayette.

The bride's mother has chosen a silver blue chiffon with which she will wear white accessories and a corsage of gardenias. Mrs. Randolph's gown will be of pink lace worn with pink accessories and delphinium.

A reception at the home of the bride's parents will follow the ceremony.
