Charlotte Twitty Will Become Bride of Dr. Shirley

Tall wands of white gladioli and blue delphinium arranged against a natural background of evergreens will form the setting for the marriage ceremony, at 5:30 p. m. today, for Miss Charlotte Twitty and Dr. Robert Gunther Shirley of Los Angeles. The wedding will be in the garden at Cheeney Creek Farm, home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Twitty. Dr. Shirley is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Phineas Shirley of Los Angeles.

The Rev. Fr. Joseph V. Somes is to perform the ceremony. A program of bridal arias will be played by Mrs. Edward P. Hart, organist.

The bride will be given in marriage by her father. Her gown of pale delphinium blue has a long, fitted bodice of Alencon lace and a very full skirt of marganze. Ruffles of marganze and lace finish the long sleeves and outline the low, round neckline. She will wear a deep delphinium blue garden bat and will carry a sheaf of light and dark blue delphinium and pink phlox.

A soft rose garden dress, with lace bodice and crepe skirt, will be worn by the bride's mother. She will have a matching picture hat and will wear violets. Mrs. Shirley will wear a black and white printed chiffon with a large black bat and a corsage of gardenias.

Couple Will Live in Los Angeles

The couple will leave for a motor trip following a reception at the Twitty home, and will be at home in Los Angeles after Aug. 15. The going-away costume of the bride will be a green and red plaid linen-tweed costume with which she will wear dark green accessories.

The bride is a graduate of Ward Belmont School, Nashville, Tenn., and Goucher College, Baltimore. She is a member of Kappa Gamma Sorority. Dr. Shirley was graduated from Johns Hopkins University and the Johns Hopkins School of Medicine. He is a member of Phi Gamma Delta Fraternity.

Mrs. E. G. Hinshaw Entertains Today for Mary Jo Harvey; Sue Ammerman to Be Guest

A kitchen and a linen shower appear with the setting of dates for pre-nuptial parties in today's bridal notes.

Mrs. E. Gordon Hinshaw was to entertain this afternoon with a red and blue kitchen shower for Miss Mary Jo Harvey whose engagement to Charles Maurice Hegarty of Newport, Ind., was announced last month.

Miss Harvey is the daughter of Mrs. Harry C. Jackson of Newport, and Mr. Hegarty's parents are Mr. and Mrs. William M. Hegarty of Newport. The marriage will be in the fall. The bride-to-be is the dietitian of Tudor Hall School.

Mrs. Hinshaw was to be assisted by her mother, Mrs. Louise B. Pohlman. Guests in addition to Miss Harvey and her mother were to include Mesdames Lewis Muir Jr., William B. Adams, James E. Clark, William H. Norman, E. George Schaefer, Gustav E. Pohlman, William A. Dunne and Oscar M. Helmert.

Others were to be Mrs. Max White, Dana, Ind.; Mrs. Ophrie R. Bridges, Franklin, Ind.; Mrs. R. Miller Waymire, Spencer, Ind.; Misses Charlotte and Martha Engle, Mary Eleanor Parrett and Catherine Lewis and Miss Eugenia Van Vleet, Newport, Ind.

The Rev. Ernst A. Piepenbrok will read the ceremony before a background of greenery lighted by cathedral candles. Mrs. Amy Cleary Morrison, organist, will play a group of bridal arias, including "Liebesraum," Schubert's "Serenade" and "Sweetest Story Ever Told."

The bridal gown is of white marquisette over taffeta, designed with short, puffed sleeves, a high, round neckline and a tight bodice with a tucked yoke edged with an inverted ruffle. The bouffant skirt forms a slight train. The two-tiered, finger-tip-length veil will fall from a halo of tucked marquisette caught with a band of orange blossoms. The bride will wear matching mitts and carry a soft colonial bouquet of white roses, pompon asters and sweetpeas tied with silvered French chiffon. Her father will give her in marriage.

Miss Marian Fisher, maid of honor, will wear a petal pink marquisette frock over deep pink taffeta. Tiny puffed sleeves finish the basque bodice and the skirt is extremely full. Her flowers will be a sheaf of pink larkspur and pink and white pompon asters tied with pink French chiffon. Her mother will give her in marriage.

A lingerie shower will be given Thursday by Miss Mary Jane Shafer and her aunt, Mrs. Earl Shafer, 5145 Capitol Ave. Miss Ellen Hamilton and Miss Dorothy Wehling will be hostesses at a kitchen shower to be given by Mrs. Miriam Ransburg and her mother, Mrs. Donald F. Fitzgerald will entertain Aug. 8 with a luncheon shower at their home, 5757 Allisonville Road.

Miss Carol Irene Wilson, cousin and namesake of the bride, will be junior bridesmaid. Her long, petal pink marquisette frock will be worn over pale pink taffeta. It is fashioned with short, puffed sleeves, a sweetheart neckline and a full skirt. She will wear a band of larkspur in her hair and will carry a bouquet like that of the maid of honor.
