Top Directors, Actors Named in Poll;
South Bend's Expecting a Big Week

By JAMES THRASHER

EVERY STAR has his day, and has been having it in all the years since critics' polls and Oscars and Academy Awards were instituted.

But until this year, the director has been hiding his light under a megaphone. The film industry knew how important he was, and so did some movie fans who might be put in the connoisseur class. But to the general public he was, with a few exceptions, just another name in the endless list of credits preceding each film.

This summer, however, the Film Daily, a trade paper, decided to do something about it. So the editors polled exhibitors and newspaper reviewers for what should be an accurate estimate of directorial qualities, both from the commercial and artistic standpoints.

The top five directors selected were as follows:

Frank Capra ("Mr. Smith Goes to Washington"), John Ford ("The Grapes of Wrath"), "Drums Along the Mohawk"), Young Mr. Lincoln"), England's Alfred Hitchcock ("Rebecca," "Jamaica Inn"), Ernst Lubitsch (" Ninotchka," "Shop Around the Corner"), and Sam Wood ("Goodbye, Mr. Chips").

The five met in New York and, in case you hadn't guessed, indicate the pictures which these men have directed during the year specified in the poll.

The next five megaphones chosen were William Dieterle, King Vidor, George Cukor, Victor Fleming and Michael Curtiz. All in all the critics and exhibitors picked 60 directors.

NOR WERE the actors neglected. Awards went to stars, supporting players and juveniles. Robert Donat was voted first among the actors, with Spencer Tracy, James Stewart, Raymond Massey and Laurence Olivier as runners up.

The film's cast, headed by Pat O'Brien, Gale Page, Ronald Reagan and Donald Crisp, is scheduled to arrive in South Bend on Thursday. Kate Smith also will be among those present.

There will be a public reception at the station, and in the evening, a banquet in the Notre Dame dancing hall.

On Friday morning the visitors will place a wreath on Mr. Rockne's grave. Miss Smith will do her regular broadcast from South Bend at 7 p.m., at which time Mr. O'Brien will be giving what is promised to be a "typical Rockne fight talk" at the football rally. After the premiere there will be grand ball, at which time it is hoped that all four of the Notre Dame teams will be fast asseep.

The Hollywood contingent will leave for home after the game Saturday. But for those who want to stick around, there will be a concert by the U. S. Navy Band to ring down the curtain on what promises to be an exciting week.
