

SOCIETY...

Society—

Indiana Artists Club Exhibit
Will Open Oct. 19 With Dinner

C. J. BULLIET, art critic of the Chicago Daily News, will be guest speaker at the dinner given in connection with the preview of the ninth annual exhibition of the Indiana Artists Club, Saturday, Oct. 19.

The exhibition will be in Ayres' Tearoom foyer and will open to the public Oct. 21. The gallery will open at 6 p. m. for the preview and dinner is to be served at 8:30 p. m. in Ayres' Tearoom. Officers of the club are Frederick Paley, president; Katherine Groh Blasingham, first vice president; Floyd D. Hopper, second vice president; Hill Sharp, Muncie, Ind., third vice president; Miss Betty Foster, secretary; and Damien J. Lyman, treasurer. Mrs. Paul T. Rochford is chairman for the dinner and Mrs. Paul T. Payne, co-chairman. Mrs. Wendell P. Coler is purchase prize chairman and Mrs. Helen M. Woodward chairman of associate and sustaining members.

Civic Theater Production Committees Named

TAKING its cue from the opening play, "Of Thee I Sing," and the forthcoming general election, the Civic Theater will assume the atmosphere of an election campaign on the night of Oct. 18. "Of Thee I Sing," musical comedy by George Kaufman and Morrie Ryskind, awarded a Pulitzer prize and running on Broadway for two years, bases its plot on a presidential election.

Richard Hoover, director, is being assisted in the production by Mrs. William G. Sparks, music director, and Johnny Sweet, dance director.

Mr. Hoover has appointed production committee chairmen to assist with backstage arrangements. Mrs. E. Hardee Adrians is scene production chairman; Mrs. E. S. O'Neill, costume chairman, and Mrs. F. W. Ahrbecker, properties chairman. They will be assisted by individual committees.

Among those looking forward to the theater's opening, traditionally a gala event of the winter social season, are the theater directors; J. Perry Meek, president; Frank J. Hoke, first vice president; Norman Green, second vice president; Miss Helen Coffey, secretary; Harlan Livengood, treasurer; Miss Sara Lauter, Mesdames Rosamond Van Camp Hill, Chauncey H. Eno II, E. E. Whitehill and Russell S. Williams; Miss Betty Tharp, C. Hollis Hull, Mortimer C. Furst, Wallace O. Lee, William Macgregor Morris, Thomas L. Neal, Tomer M. Overley, Harold B. Tharp, Ronald S. Skyrme, R. Kirby Whyte, DeWitt Morgan and Harry V. Wade.

Tickets for the production will be on sale at the Theater Friday.

Southern Club Party Is Oct. 19

ANNOUNCEMENTS of the "Pot o' Gold" party which will open the Southern Club's season Oct. 19 at the Propylaeum have been received by members. The invitations to the informal dinner party at 6:30 p. m. are in the form of gold bonds.

Committee members for the event are Messrs. and Mesdames A. Glenn Shoptaugh, George T. Landis, T. M. Riddick, E. W. Harris and W. B. Freilhofer.

The committee will meet with club officers Monday night at the home of the president, A. Lee Rice and Mrs. Rice, to complete final arrangements for the party. Mrs. Charles Stephens is vice president; William H. Book, secretary, and T. M. Foley, treasurer.

Literary Club to Open Season

The Indianapolis Literary Club will open its 1940-41 season Monday with a "Ladies' Night" meeting. Ernest R. Babbitt will speak on "The Functioning of the University in Higher Education." Fletcher Hodges is president of the club.

Mayflower Descendants Board to Meet

MRS. TILDEN F. GREER, governor of the Society of Mayflower Descendants, has called a meeting of the organization's board of assistants for noon Monday. A luncheon will be served in Ayres' tearoom.

Comings and Goings

MRS. THOMAS R. MARSHALL returned yesterday from a trip to New York. Mr. and Mrs. Timothy P. Sexton and their daughter, Mary Catherine, are visiting the Sextons' son, John P. Sexton, and his family in Tucson, Ariz., where they are spending the winter. John E. Messick Jr. and Ronald A. Foster spent last week-end at French Lick Springs. Another visitor there this week was Arthur Buckley.

Meridian Hills Bridge Is Tonight

Among parties planned for the dinner bridge opening the fall season of Meridian Hills Country Club tonight will be that of Mr. and Mrs. George S. Olive. Their guests will be Messrs. and Mesdames Lawrence V. Sheridan, John Burch and Lawrence Remy. Among others who will entertain are Dr. and Mrs. C. A. Weller and Messrs. and Mesdames Marshall G. Knox, J. S. Marlowe, A. A. Zinn, James E. Bingham, M. Speers MacCollum and John N. Ott. The committee arranging the event is composed of Mr. and Mrs. Bingham, chairmen, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. MacCollum and Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Peterson. Fall flowers will form the decorative scheme.

Guild Luncheon To Be Monday

The Sunnyside Guild will meet Monday at the Columbia Club for a 12:30 luncheon. Mrs. Irving D. Hamilton will announce the date for the annual card party and the year's committee chairman.

Mrs. E. Park Akin, chairman of Mesdames Myron J. Austin, G. J. Bookwalter, Thomas Booth, Daniel L. Bower, Edward B. Boyer, N. E. Boyer, E. J. Brame, Donald Brodie and Ethel B. Bromert. On Tuesday at 3 p. m. the guild will entertain the patients at Sunnyside with a program from the Burroughs School of Music. Mrs. Alonzo B. Chapman, general chairman for entertainment at the Marion County Tuberculosis Hospital, has turned the meeting over to Mrs. A. C. Crandall and Mrs. C. V. Sorenson. Mrs. E. L. Burnett and Mrs. Gustav Schmidt are in charge of refreshments.

The program will include two dramatic skits by Miss Evelyn Steffan and Miss Eileen Fink and accordion numbers by Miss Helen Maloney and Miss Mary Jane Tucker. Miss Norma Louck, soloist, will be accompanied by Miss Elnie Patterson.

Breakfast to Honor Betty Jo Roberts

Miss Betty Jo Roberts, who has chosen Oct. 26 as the date of her marriage to Dr. George M. Baldwin, will be guest of honor tomorrow morning at a breakfast given by the Mesdames Charlene and Catharine Heard, 3445 Park Ave. Miss Roberts is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Roberts, 4801 Central Ave.

Mrs. Jack I. Robinson of Alexandria, Ind., a cousin of Miss Roberts who will be her only attendant, and Mrs. Roberts will be special guests at the breakfast. Other guests will be Mesdames James Roberts, Edgar H. Baum and Carl W. Piel Jr., and the Mesdames Barbara Baumgartner, Helen Clever and Alice Auerbach.

Steak Fry Is Tonight

A steak fry will be given tonight by members of Alpha Chapter, Zeta Chi Theta Sorority, and their guests at Shady Rest Farm. Members who will attend are Mesdames Glenn Broden, Louise Cohen, Martha Dickson, Dorothy Fisher, Luana Hill, Betty Lou Homslor, Dorothy Korn, Mary LaMasters, Ruth Ann Lett, Pauline Matthews, Kathleen Spence, Martha Sturm and Ruth Vinson.

McLeod-Lloyd Rite Is Performed

Mrs. Carrie H. Lloyd, 1434 N. Delaware St., and Ralph A. McLeod, 4540 Allisonville Road, were married yesterday morning at the residence of Dr. W. C. Hartinger, 36 W. Hampton Drive. Dr. Hartinger officiated.

Mrs. Lloyd was given in marriage by her son, Joe E. Lloyd. She wore a brown costume suit with matching squirrel cape, hunter's green accessories and a corsage of gardenias and sweetheart roses.

Mr. and Mrs. McLeod left for a trip south and will be at home after Oct. 23 at the Delaware St. address.

Couple to Wed On Parents' Anniversary

The wedding of Miss Estella Hartman to Lawrence Von Weller, at 8 p. m. today in St. John's Lutheran Church at Five Points, Ind., will occur on the 51st wedding anniversary of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Hartman, of Five Points, who were married in the same congregation.

The Rev. Louis Wambansann will officiate before an altar banked with palms and interspersed with candelabra and autumn flowers. Virgil Schachtsiek, organist, will play the wedding music and Miss Carolyn Louise Schwomeyer will sing "O Perfect Love."

Miss Gertrude Hartman, sister of the bride and maid of honor, will wear a rose moire taffeta gown made with a short, puffed sleeve jacket and full skirt. Her flowers will be Happy Day roses.

Mrs. Esther Hartman and Miss Ruth Kleinschmidt, bridesmaids, will be gowned in aquamarine taffeta fashioned on princess lines with sweetheart necklines and short, puffed sleeves. They will carry Taisman roses.

The junior bridesmaid, Miss Carolyn Louise Schwomeyer, will have a rose taffeta frock with shirred bodice and side panels. She is to carry a hymnal decorated with valley lilies and satin streamers. Betty Joyce Powers, flower girl, will be in a floor length frock of rose taffeta and will carry a nosegay of pink gladioli and pompon chrysanthemums. All of the attendants will wear gold lockets given them by the bride.

Ronald Eugene Hartman, ring bearer, will carry the two rings on a white satin pillow.

In deference to the wish of her parents and in honor of their anniversary, the bride and bridegroom will enter together. The bridegroom is of white slipper satin styled on old-fashioned lines with a sweetheart neckline and short, puffed sleeves. The full skirt, with shirred side panels headed with tiny ruffles at the hipline, forms a slight train.

To Carry Prayer Book

Her fingertip length veil of illusion will fall from a crown of pearlized blossoms and she will wear a cameo necklace worn by her mother at her wedding. The prayer book she is to carry will be decorated with an orchid, sweetheart roses and a cascade of satin streamers.

Vernon Markins will be best man and ushers are to be Edward Hartman, brother of the bride, and Donald Poffenberger, nephew of the bridegroom.

The mothers of the couple, Mrs. Hartman and Mrs. Laura Von Miller, will wear black crepe frocks trimmed in white, and corsages of Johanna Hill roses. An informal reception at the home of the bride's parents will follow the ceremony.

The couple is to leave for a motor trip through the Middle West, and will be at home with the bride's parents upon their return.

Church Groups Set Meetings

Indianapolis churches will hold a reception and special meetings next week.

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of the IRVINGTON METHODIST CHURCH will give a reception tomorrow evening for the pastor, Dr. Ezra L. Hutchens, and Mrs. Hutchens, and for all new members of the church. The receiving line will include Dr. and Mrs. Hutchens, Mrs. Marie Parker, Dr. and Mrs. Guy O. Carpenter, Messrs. and Mesdames Paul Mozingo, E. C. Ropkey, W. R. Krickenberg and Derrill Reed, Miss Ruth Anne Duncan and John Crail.

The Rt. Rev. Msgr. Thomas J. Donnelly, rector of West Baden College, will be guest speaker at the fall quarterly meeting of the INDIANAPOLIS DISTRICT COUNCIL OF THE INDIANAPOLIS DIOCESAN COUNCIL, NATIONAL COUNCIL OF CATHOLIC WOMEN, at 2 p. m. Tuesday in the Catholic Center, 1004 N. Pennsylvania St.

"Catholic Action through the National Council of Catholic Women and the Centrality of Christian Doctrine" will be Msgr. Donnelly's topic. The Rev. Fr. August R. Fussenegger, diocesan spiritual director, will also speak and the Rev. Fr. Francis Roell, pastor of St. Andrew's Church in Richmond, Ind., will give the invocation.

Mrs. Catherine Monarch, vice president of the Richmond Center of the council, will preside at an election of officers. A district board meeting at 11 a. m. and a registration of delegates at 1 p. m. will precede the open meeting.

The INDIANAPOLIS FEDERATION OF EVANGELICAL CHURCH WOMEN will meet Friday at the Broadway Evangelical Church, 56th and Broadway. A 12:30 luncheon will follow a business meeting at 11 o'clock.

The afternoon session will include special music and a talk by Mrs. J. H. Smiley of the women's service group of the Methodist churches.

Tea Is Tomorrow

The Indianapolis Lodge of the American Theosophical Society will open its fall season with a tea at 6:30 p. m. tomorrow at the lodge rooms, 38½ N. Pennsylvania St., Studio 411. Mrs. Emma Lou Murray, vice president, will pour. Music and a talk by Fred William Renz, president, will follow the tea. The public is invited.

1. Mr. and Mrs. Walter R. Mayer announce the engagement of their niece, Betty Jean MacDonald, to Richard Thompson, son of Mr. R. W. Thompson. The wedding will be Nov. 30 at the Propylaeum.
2. Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Kelleher announce the engagement of their daughter, Alice Jean Kelleher, to Harold G. Huse, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy L. Huse. The wedding will be Thanksgiving Day. (Dexheimer-Carlson Photo.)
3. Miss Barbara Ballinger's engagement to Robert J. Clay, son of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Clay of Logansport, Ind., has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Ballinger. The wedding will be Oct. 23 at the Broadway Methodist Church. (W. Hurley Ashby Photo.)

4. Mrs. Ralph E. Triller was Miss Mary Koehler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Koehler, before her marriage Sept. 28 at the Propylaeum. Mr. and Mrs. Triller will be at home at 57 E. Maple Road after Oct. 15. (Photo Craft Photo.)
5. Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Cook announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Mabel Lucille, to Ward Bunker, son of Mrs. Mary Bunker of Pendleton, Ind. The wedding will be Oct. 19 at 4:30 p. m. in the couple's new home in Pendleton. (Voorhis Photo.)
6. Mrs. Harold E. Miller was Miss Patricia Kervan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Kervan, before her marriage Sept. 28. (Ramos-Porter Photo.)

7. Miss Marguerite Bowland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David I. Bowland, will be married to Frederick H. Minger Oct. 12 at the First Presbyterian Church. (Dexheimer-Carlson Photo.)

Magill-Hall Rite Is Performed

Following their marriage at 8:30 o'clock this morning in St. Matthew's Episcopal Church, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Magill are on a wedding trip to Northern Ontario. Mrs. Magill, the former Miss Mary Isabel Hall, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Edgar Hall, N. Shortridge Road.

The Rev. J. Willard Yoder officiated at the wedding service, performed before an altar decorated with palms and flowers. Mrs. Robert Magill, organist, played a program of bridal music.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a Cadet blue costume suit with black trimming and a blue hat with black accessories. Her corsage was of orchids.

Mrs. Richard Trusty was her sister's only attendant. Her costume was a black dress trimmed with gold sequins and worn with black accessories. She carried a corsage of rubrum lilies. Mr. Trusty was the bride's best man.

The couple left for their trip immediately following the ceremony and will be at home after Oct. 26 at 7718 Marquette Ave., Chicago, Ill. Mrs. Magill is a graduate of the St. Vincent's School of Nurses Training and Mr. Magill attended Indiana University.

Begin Season

Alumnae of St. John's Academy will hold their first meeting of the season at 7:45 p. m. Monday at the Academy.

R. H. Hockett Takes Bride

The Rev. Errol T. Elliott will perform the marriage ceremony, at 3 p. m. today in the First Friends Church, for Miss Rosemary Bell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Bell, Sheridan, Ind., and R. Howard Hockett, son of W. B. Hockett, 428 W. 46th St.

William Jackwitz, organist, will play for the ceremony which is to be read before an altar decorated with palms and candelabra. The bride is to be given in marriage by her father.

She will wear an autumn green costume suit trimmed with beaver, a brown velvet pompadour hat, brown accessories and an orchid corsage. Her only attendant will be her sister, Miss Katharine Bell, who will wear a smoke blue costume suit with a navy felt pompadour hat, navy accessories and a corsage of Taisman roses. She will wear a single strand of pearls given her by the bride.

Eugene Davies is to be best man and Daniel Penrod and John Burch, ushers. Mrs. Bell, mother of the bride, will wear a military blue crepe and blue accessories and Mrs. Hockett is to be in a blue dress with black accessories. Both will wear corsages of fall flowers.

The couple will receive informally at the rear of the church after the ceremony before leaving on a motor trip. They will be at home after Oct. 15 at 816 N. Sherman Drive. Mr. Hockett attended Earlham College.

Riley Program to Be Broadcast

Guests attending the Indianapolis Public Library's radio broadcast from the Riley Memorial Hospital Monday in observance of Riley's birthday will be entertained at a tea in the Central Library dining room following the program.

Those who will attend are Mrs. Clayton Ridge, Miss Helen Humphrey, Mayor Reginald Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. Luther L. Dickerson, Hugh McK. Landon, Dr. William Hatch, C. D. Alexander, William Book, James Carr, Dewitt Morgan, P. C. Reilly, J. B. Martin, Val Nolan and members of the Riley Cheer Guild.

Miss Cereye Ohr and Miss Carrie Scott will act as hostesses and Miss Helen Barber will pour. Miss Lucille Dickman, city librarian assigned to Riley Hospital, is in charge of arrangements.

