

BRANDED CATTLE CONVICT RUSTLER

HEREFORD, Tex., Oct. 9 (U. P.).—Branded cattle traced from Deaf Smith County, Tex., to Cedar Rapids, Iowa, brought conviction to a rustler on the Panhandle Plains. J. M. Bussell was convicted of stealing nine head of cattle from Mrs. C. M. Brown, who lives near Prison in Deaf Smith County. He was sentenced to two years in prison.

The cattle had been sold to an Iowa stockman at Lubbock, Tex., and were traced to the stockyards in Cedar Rapids through brands. Sheriff's officers and inspectors for the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association, Inc., led the search through a dozen states.

Ft. Harrison Commander Gets Second Star

Maj. Gen. Joseph M. Cummins, commanding Ft. Harrison and the Fifth Regular Army division, was awarded two stars on his shoulders today—one more than previously. The second star, insignia of his increase in rank from a brigadier general to a major general, was pinned on yesterday by Mrs. Cummins at post ceremonies, marked also by a review of the 11th infantry and a 13-gun salute. Gen. Cummins, who served in France during the World War I, is one of several newly commissioned "two star" generals under the Army's expansion program. Commissioned a second lieutenant

SEA ONCE ROLLED OVER ROCKIES AREA

DENVER, Oct. 9 (U. P.).—A great sea once rolled over that part of America where the majestic Rocky Mountains now tower thousands of feet above sea level. Then came a mighty volcanic action that literally turned the earth inside out. This happened one and one-half billion years ago, University of Denver geologists decided after an extensive study of the rocks and formations in the Rocky Mountain region along the Continental Divide.
