

TRADERS POINT Hunt

Society—

Willa Dryden to Present Program
At "Propylaeum Day" Thursday

THE ENTERTAINMENT committee of the Propylaeum will present Willa Dryden, lyric soprano, at the first "Propylaeum Day" of the season Thursday. Charles Lurvey will be the accompanist.

Members of the entertainment committee assisting Mrs. Frederick E. Matson, chairman, are Mesdames Roy Elder Adams, Maurice E. Tennant, Arthur R. Brown, Oscar N. Torian, Fred L. Carter, Henry J. McCoy, Frank G. Wood, Charles O. Roemier, Robert E. Sweeney, Cora L. Epps, John P. Collett, Newton Todd, Frank C. Balke, H. A. Van Osdol, Samuel Dowden, Ross H. Wallace, Paul H. White, C. A. Harms, Frank D. Stalnaker, Daniel S. Robinson, Ralph K. Smith, Bernays Kennedy and O. D. Bohlen.

Others are Mesdames Carl Vernon Griffith, Frank C. Groninger, Leo T. Trook, William H. Wemmer, William C. Dobson, James H. Genung, Thomas C. Howe, M. D. Segur, Howard T. Griffith, W. W. Critchlow, John H. Toy, George V. Underwood, Julia Lilly Darlington, Thomas F. Hudgings, Edward Lynn, William Niles Wishard, James B. Nelson, C. J. Prentiss, Edward Zink, J. Irving Holcomb, Ferris T. Taylor, Henry B. Danner, Russell Sullivan and J. M. Williams and Misses Edith Allen, Della Dearborn, Margaret Day, Anna Hasselman and Grace L. Brown.

Miss Dryden's program will include Schubert's "Frühlingstraum" and "Rastlose Liebe" and Brahms' "Sonntag" and "Botschaft"; "Eben, ne andro iontana" from Alfredo Catalani's "La Wally," "Green" (Debussy), "La Statue de Czarskoe-Selo" (Cesar Cui), "Tambourin" (Julien Tiersot), "La Partida" (F. M. Alvarez), "Nana" (Manuel de Falla) and "Los locos por amor" (Joaquin Turina).

She will conclude her program with "Laughing Song" from Johann Strauss' "The Bat," "We Walked in the Garden" (Clara Edwards), "Sometimes" (Madeleine Clark Walther), "Wallpaper" (Charles Kinsford) and "The Best Is Yet to Be" (Pearl G. Curran).

The Propylaeum membership committee for 1940-41 has been announced. Mrs. Matson is chairman and other members are Mesdames Hugh Carpenter, Ralph S. Chappell, Harvey J. Elam, J. Emmett Hall, William Perry Hahn, John W. Kern, William Allen Moore, William Fletcher, Herbert W. Todd and E. E. Voyles.

Symphony Luncheons Scheduled

MRS. HERBERT T. WAGNER, member of the executive board of the Indiana State Symphony Society's women's committee, has announced the continuance this year of the popular pre-concert luncheons and explanatory music talks given on Fridays just before each pair of concerts to be played by the Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra. Mrs. Wagner is chairman of this branch of women's committee activities.

Luncheons and lectures will be given in the Athenaeum as usual; members of the women's committee and season ticket holders are eligible to attend both events. People may attend either or both, Mrs. Wagner said. There is a nominal charge for the luncheons but the lectures are complimentary.

Official music commentator for the lecture series will again be Mrs. Lenore Coffin, and guest speakers will be invited for special programs. The lectures, usually attended by several hundred women, are concerned with explanations and evaluations of the program to be played that afternoon and the following evening by the Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra.

"Due to the marked increase in the number of season ticket holders for the Friday afternoon series, we expect attendance at the luncheon-lectures to be larger than ever before," Mrs. Wagner said.

Among Friday afternoon subscribers who may take advantage of the programs are Mesdames Edward A. Gardner, F. Elbert Glass, John K. Goodwin, Howard T. Griffith, William C. Griffith, Guy Dixon, W. H. Hamaker, M. P. Helm, Walter C. Hiser, A. R. Holliday, Addison Howe, William H. Insley and F. L. Iske.

Also numbered among probable patrons are Mesdames Sylvania Johnson, M. V. Kahler, J. J. Kennedy, James L. Kingsbury, John Kolmer, Homer C. Lathrop, A. L. Leatherman, Ralph A. Lemcke, Albert H. Losche, and Erwin Luessow.

The first of the luncheon lectures will be held on Friday, Nov. 15, the opening date of the concert series.

Tudor Play Will Be Oct. 26

THE JUNIOR CLASS of Tudor Hall School will present Arthur Wing Pinero's "The Schoolmistress" in the school auditorium at 8:15 p. m. Oct. 26. The play is a farce on life in an English boarding school of about 1890.

Miss Mary Landis will play the title role, and principal characters will be depicted by Misses Margaret Rogers, Anne Amelia Marmon and Evaline Hitz. Others in the cast are Misses Suzanne Gantner, Caroline Gray, Barbara Winslow, Alice Slappey, Sallie Eglesfield, Ann Spiegel, Helen Headley, Patricia McConaughay, Florence Mouch, Julia Jane Carman and Heberton Weiss.

The production staff includes Miss Sara Lee Kramer, technical director; Miss Ethel Janet White, business manager; Miss Slappey, assistant business manager; Misses Gray and Spiegel, costume co-chairmen; Miss Suzanne Littell, property chairman, and Misses Weiss and Carman, publicity chairmen.

Meridian Hills Bridge to Be Tuesday

MRS. ALAN C. SWEETSER and Mrs. Horace E. Storer are in charge of the last luncheon bridge party of the Meridian Hills Country Club at 1 p. m. Tuesday at the clubhouse.

Also on the October program is the annual stockholders meeting to be held at 8 p. m. Monday, Oct. 21. Annual reports will be given by the club president, Walter L. Brant, and committee chairmen. Three directors will be chosen.

Supper Honors Barbara Ballinger and Fiance

MISS BARBARA BALLINGER and her fiance, Robert J. Clay, whose marriage will be Oct. 23 in the Broadway Methodist Church, will be honored guests at a buffet supper and silver shower given to-night by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Reilly at their home.

Guests will be Messrs. and Mesdames Emsley W. Johnson Jr., Robert Lewis and Paul Dolzall, Miss Bettynn Jones, Martha Norman, Jean Rau and Mary Jane Shafer, Norman Kelly and L. Nicholas Summers.

Churches Plan Programs

A musical tea and style show, a picnic and a fair and supper are included in church group activities next week.

A fall musical tea and style show will be given by the Women's Society, IRVINGTON METHODIST CHURCH, at 2 p. m. Monday.

Miss Harriet Payne of the Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra, will present viola solo and the Girls' Sextet of Technical High School, directed by Miss Louise Swan, will sing.

Mr. Arthur Robinson, general chairman, will be assisted by Mrs. George Vestal, tickets; Mrs. Lorenzo Jones, program; Mrs. Oscar Wadsworth, decorations; Mrs. A. F. Henry and Mrs. Mary Nell Musselman, candy; Mrs. Thomas Stover, cookies; Mrs. C. W. Hitchcock and Mrs. Margaret Clapp, tea, and Mrs. Sam Walker, reception.

A showing of the moving picture, "Our Master's Voice," will be sponsored by the Brotherhood of the IMMANUEL EVANGELICAL AND REFORMED CHURCH at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday.

On Tuesday evening, the Women's Missionary Society of the church will entertain members of the Girls' Missionary Guild at a 6 p. m. supper. Reservations may be made with Mrs. George Joslin or Mrs. Henry Jasper.

The first of the luncheon lectures will be held on Friday, Nov. 15, the opening date of the concert series.

The Triangle Club of ALL SOULS UNITARIAN CHURCH will have a picnic at Smith's cabin near Mooresville, Ind., tomorrow from 3 to 7 p. m. A treasure hunt will be a feature of the program. Mrs. Fred S. Smith and Mrs. John M. O'Connell will serve the supper.

The Red Cross Unit of the Jessy Wallin Heywood Alliance of the church will meet at 10 a. m. Thursday to work for the Red Cross. The Wednesday section of the Alliance will meet at 12:30 p. m. Wednesday.

The Rev. Wesley Pugh of Muncie, Ind., will read the service before an improvised altar surrounded by ferns, greenery and white chrysanthemums and lighted by seven-branch candelabra. Miss Mary Kathryn Rhoads will sing "I Love You Truly" and "At Dawnings" and Pasquale Montani, Indianapolis harpist, will play.

The bride, who will be given in marriage by her father, will wear a pinkish pink satin gown made with a square neckline edged with Alencon lace, a fitted bodice and a long train. Her veil of illusion also will be edged with lace and her arm bouquet will be of white bridal roses and white orchids.

Mr. Karl Stipher, her sister's only attendant, will wear pink satin and carry pink roses and blue chrysanthemums. Clyde Lee will be his son's best man.

The bride's mother will wear black accessories with a dove gray dress and a corsage of sunburst roses. Mrs. Lee's brown costume will be worn with matching accessories and with a corsage of yellow roses and baby chrysanthemums.

Following a reception, Mr. and Mrs. Lee will leave on a Southern wedding trip and will be at home after Oct. 26 at 3640 N. Meridian St., Indianapolis. The bride's traveling ensemble will be an olive green costume suit worn with brown accessories and a corsage of orchids.

Miss Houghteling is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta and Mr. Lee belongs to Sigma Chi. Both attended Butler University.

Richard Thompson Is Engaged

Word has been received of the engagement of Miss Louellen Gibson Cornett, Louisville, Ky., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Denver Bennett Cornett of Louisville, to Richard Howard Thompson, son of Mrs. Edward D. Porter Jr., 3805 N. Delaware St.

The wedding will be next month in Louisville. Miss Cornett was graduated from the Louisville Collegiate School and attended Briarcliff Junior College. She also studied at the New York School of Fine and Applied Art and at the Louisville Art Center. Mr. Thompson was graduated from DePauw University where he was a member of Delta Kappa Epsilon Fraternity.

The Rev. Wesley Pugh of Muncie, Ind., will read the service before an improvised altar surrounded by ferns, greenery and white chrysanthemums and lighted by seven-branch candelabra. Miss Mary Kathryn Rhoads will sing "I Love You Truly" and "At Dawnings" and Pasquale Montani, Indianapolis harpist, will play.

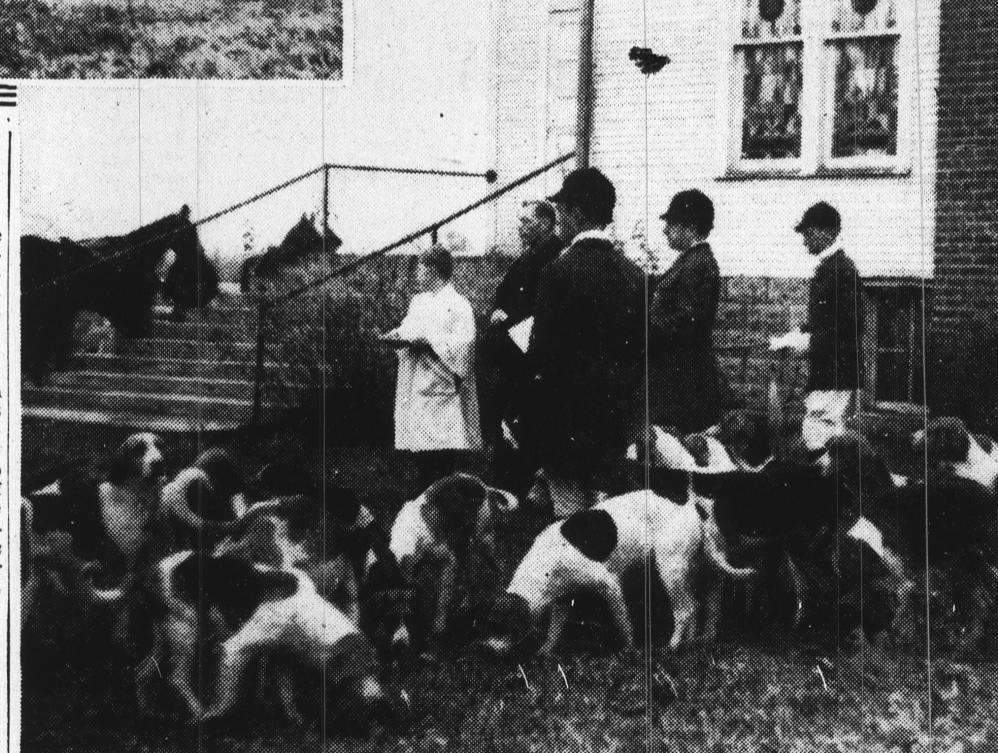

The bride, who will be given in marriage by her father, will wear a pinkish pink satin gown made with a square neckline edged with Alencon lace, a fitted bodice and a long train. Her veil of illusion also will be edged with lace and her arm bouquet will be of white bridal roses and white orchids.

Mr. Karl Stipher, her sister's only attendant, will wear pink satin and carry pink roses and blue chrysanthemums. Clyde Lee will be his son's best man.

The bride's mother will wear black accessories with a dove gray dress and a corsage of sunburst roses. Mrs. Lee's brown costume will be worn with matching accessories and with a corsage of yellow roses and baby chrysanthemums.

Following a reception, Mr. and Mrs. Lee will leave on a Southern wedding trip and will be at home after Oct. 26 at 3640 N. Meridian St., Indianapolis. The bride's traveling ensemble will be an olive green costume suit worn with brown accessories and a corsage of orchids.

Miss Houghteling is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta and Mr. Lee belongs to Sigma Chi. Both attended Butler University.

Louise Mayes To Be Married

The Rev. Charles R. Holmes, cousin of the bride, will officiate at the wedding tomorrow of Miss Louise Mayes to Byron L. Donough. The ceremony will be in the Roosevelt Temple Methodist Church immediately following the morning service.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Mayes, 541 N. Oakland Ave. She will wear a solid blue ensemble with a corsage of chrysanthemums in fall shades.

Her only attendant, Mrs. Ernest B. Smith, will wear cinnamon brown with chrysanthemums.

A wedding breakfast at Bluff Crest followed the ceremony and a reception will be held at the home of the bride's mother at 8 p. m. to-night. Mr. and Mrs. Seyfried will be at home after next week with the bride's mother.

The Rev. Charles R. Holmes, cousin of the bride, will officiate at the wedding tomorrow of Miss Louise Mayes to Byron L. Donough. The ceremony will be in the Roosevelt Temple Methodist Church immediately following the morning service.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Mayes, 541 N. Oakland Ave. She will wear a solid blue ensemble with a corsage of chrysanthemums in fall shades.

Her only attendant, Mrs. Ernest B. Smith, will wear cinnamon brown with chrysanthemums.

A wedding breakfast at Bluff Crest followed the ceremony and a reception will be held at the home of the bride's mother at 8 p. m. to-night. Mr. and Mrs. Seyfried will be at home after next week with the bride's mother.

The Rev. Charles R. Holmes, cousin of the bride, will officiate at the wedding tomorrow of Miss Louise Mayes to Byron L. Donough. The ceremony will be in the Roosevelt Temple Methodist Church immediately following the morning service.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Mayes, 541 N. Oakland Ave. She will wear a solid blue ensemble with a corsage of chrysanthemums in fall shades.

Her only attendant, Mrs. Ernest B. Smith, will wear cinnamon brown with chrysanthemums.

A wedding breakfast at Bluff Crest followed the ceremony and a reception will be held at the home of the bride's mother at 8 p. m. to-night. Mr. and Mrs. Seyfried will be at home after next week with the bride's mother.

The Rev. Charles R. Holmes, cousin of the bride, will officiate at the wedding tomorrow of Miss Louise Mayes to Byron L. Donough. The ceremony will be in the Roosevelt Temple Methodist Church immediately following the morning service.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Mayes, 541 N. Oakland Ave. She will wear a solid blue ensemble with a corsage of chrysanthemums in fall shades.

Her only attendant, Mrs. Ernest B. Smith, will wear cinnamon brown with chrysanthemums.

A wedding breakfast at Bluff Crest followed the ceremony and a reception will be held at the home of the bride's mother at 8 p. m. to-night. Mr. and Mrs. Seyfried will be at home after next week with the bride's mother.

The Rev. Charles R. Holmes, cousin of the bride, will officiate at the wedding tomorrow of Miss Louise Mayes to Byron L. Donough. The ceremony will be in the Roosevelt Temple Methodist Church immediately following the morning service.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Mayes, 541 N. Oakland Ave. She will wear a solid blue ensemble with a corsage of chrysanthemums in fall shades.

Her only attendant, Mrs. Ernest B. Smith, will wear cinnamon brown with chrysanthemums.

A wedding breakfast at Bluff Crest followed the ceremony and a reception will be held at the home of the bride's mother at 8 p. m. to-night. Mr. and Mrs. Seyfried will be at home after next week with the bride's mother.

The Rev. Charles R. Holmes, cousin of the bride, will officiate at the wedding tomorrow of Miss Louise Mayes to Byron L. Donough. The ceremony will be in the Roosevelt Temple Methodist Church immediately following the morning service.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Mayes, 541 N. Oakland Ave. She will wear a solid blue ensemble with a corsage of chrysanthemums in fall shades.

Her only attendant, Mrs. Ernest B. Smith, will wear cinnamon brown with chrysanthemums.

A wedding breakfast at Bluff Crest followed the ceremony and a reception will be held at the home of the bride's mother at 8 p. m. to-night. Mr. and Mrs. Seyfried will be at home after next week with the bride's mother.

The Rev. Charles R. Holmes, cousin of the bride, will officiate at the wedding tomorrow of Miss Louise Mayes to Byron L. Donough. The ceremony will be in the Roosevelt Temple Methodist Church immediately following the morning service.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Mayes, 541 N. Oakland Ave. She will wear a solid blue ensemble with a corsage of chrysanthemums in fall shades.

Her only attendant, Mrs. Ernest B. Smith, will wear cinnamon brown with chrysanthemums.

A wedding breakfast at Bluff Crest followed the ceremony and a reception will be held at the home of the bride's mother at 8 p. m. to-night. Mr. and Mrs. Seyfried will be at home after next week with the bride's mother.

The Rev. Charles R. Holmes, cousin of the bride, will officiate at the wedding tomorrow of Miss Louise Mayes to Byron L. Donough. The ceremony will be in the Roosevelt Temple Methodist Church immediately following the morning service.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Mayes, 541 N. Oakland Ave. She will wear a solid blue ensemble with a corsage of chrysanthemums in fall shades.

Her only attendant, Mrs. Ernest B. Smith, will wear cinnamon brown with chrysanthemums.

A wedding breakfast at Bluff Crest followed the ceremony and a reception will be held at the home of the bride's mother at 8 p. m. to-night. Mr. and Mrs. Seyfried will be at home after next week with the bride's mother.

The Rev. Charles R. Holmes, cousin of the bride, will officiate at the wedding tomorrow of Miss Louise Mayes to Byron L. Donough. The ceremony will be in the Roosevelt Temple Methodist Church immediately following the morning service.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Mayes, 541 N. Oakland Ave. She will wear a solid blue ensemble with a corsage of chrysanthemums in fall shades.

Her only attendant, Mrs. Ernest B. Smith, will wear cinnamon brown with chrysanthemums.

A wedding breakfast at Bluff Crest followed the ceremony and a reception will be held at the home of the bride's mother at 8 p. m. to-night. Mr. and Mrs. Seyfried will be at home after next week with the bride's mother.

The Rev. Charles R. Holmes, cousin of the bride, will officiate at the wedding tomorrow of Miss Louise Mayes to Byron L. Donough. The ceremony will be in the Roosevelt Temple Methodist Church immediately following the morning service.