Chowder Parties Are Popular With Young Set

A buffet table set for a chowder party. The green hue of the linen and the use of a narrow runner covering only half the table top are new. So are the chowder bowl and cups at left.

Holy Land Film To Be Shown

Community singing of Christmas carols will feature the Christmas party of Sigma Chi Mothers' Club of Butler University Tuesday at the chapter house, 442 W. 46th St.

Mrs. Paul Ulrich will preside, and Mrs. Robert Kershaw, program chairman, will introduce Mrs. Wendell Shullenger who will present a Christmas story. Motion pictures of the Holy Land will be shown by Mrs. G. M. Seaton.

Mrs. Graham to Preside

The Indianapolis Street Railways Ladies' Auxiliary 1070 will have a special meeting at 7:30 p. m. today at Ft. Friendly, 512 N. Illinois St.

By MRS. GAYNOR MADDOX
CHOWDERS are stepping out this season. They ride to buffet suppers in bowls and make every one happy. Young people like them. Served late with a salad, coffee and a sweet, they give the bridge supper, or "eats" at a dance, a new note of plenty without expense.

Lima Bean Chowder
(Serves six to eight—allowing one cup per serving)
Five slices bacon, 1 medium-size onion, 4 cups water, 2 cups potato strips, 2 cups carrot cubes, 1 cup canned lima beans, 2 teaspoons salt, 1/2 teaspoon white pepper, 1/2 teaspoon garlic salt, 2 cups evaporated milk, 2 tablespoons butter.

Chop bacon, fry in large, heavy kettle, add onion sliced in rings and saute until limp but not brown. Add water, vegetables and seasonings. Cover and cook 15 minutes, or until tender. Add evaporated milk, heat just to boiling point and add butter.

Corn and Salt Pork Chowder
(6 large servings)

Two slices fat salt pork, 1 onion, 3 cups diced boiled potatoes, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon pepper, 4 cups boiling water, 1 No. 2 can cream style corn, 2 cups evaporated milk, 1 tablespoon cornstarch.

Cut the salt pork into small pieces and fry out fat. Add sliced onion and corn until browned. Put in diced potatoes, then add boiling water, corn and milk which has been heated to the boiling point. Thicken with cornstarch in a little cold water. Season and serve hot.

Manhattan Clam Chowder
(Serves 6, allowing 1/2 cup per serving)

One-half cup finely chopped onion, 1 clove garlic, 1/4 cup cut parsley, 2 tablespoons finely chopped green pepper, 2 tablespoons butter or shortening, 2 cups finely diced potatoes, 2 cups boiling water, 2 teaspoons salt, 1 1/2 cups canned tomato juice, 2 seven-ounce cans minced clams, 1/2 teaspoon sage, 1/2 teaspoon thyme, 1/4 cup finely sliced celery.

Saute onion, garlic, parsley, celery and green pepper in butter or shortening until limp but not brown. Add potatoes, boiling water and salt; cook 15 to 20 minutes or until potatoes are tender. Add tomato juice, clams, clam liquid and seasonings; bring just to boil.

Block's Announce Bridge Winners

Mrs. Dorothy Ellis, director of Block's bridge forum, has announced winners in the recent duplicate game. The list follows.

Section 1: North and south, Mrs. W. H. Bridgins and Mrs. M. A. Blackburn, first; Mrs. W. A. Myers and Mrs. Arthur Pratt, second; east and west, Mrs. Wayne Warwick and Mrs. Clay Mitchell, first; Mrs. C. L. Arvin and Mrs. H. D. Kendrick, second.

Section 2: North and south, Mrs. William Gerrard and Mrs. A. G. Hendricks, first; Mrs. E. F. Pascho and Mrs. J. F. Rhodes, second; east and west, Mrs. F. C. Lewis and Mrs. W. E. Smith, first; Mrs. William F. Eckhart and Mrs. Charles Maudlin, second.

Section 3: North and south, Mrs. E. R. Jones and Mrs. Paul Givens, first; Mrs. Almee Thayer and Mrs. William Helfenberger, second; east and west, Mrs. William F. Krieg and Mrs. E. G. Kemper, first; Mrs. Vernon Warner and Mrs. S. R. Richardson, second.

Clean Refrigerator

To avoid unpleasant odors and possible mold when a refrigerator is not to be in use for some time, remove all food and clean the icebox thoroughly. Wash the food compartments with a mild soda solution to remove lingering odors. Dry thoroughly with a soft absorbent cloth and leave the door ajar so that air may circulate freely.

Mrs. Singleton Hostess

The Oldest Study Club will have a Christmas luncheon Tuesday at the home of the president, Mrs. W. A. Singleton, 1428 N. LaSalle St.

Scout Leaders End Training

The Indianapolis Girl Scout Council has named seven local women as licensed campers following their completion of a six-weeks' training course recently. A similar course, required of all Girl Scout leaders who take troops on overnight hikes, will be given in February.

Leaders who completed the course are Mesdames R. L. Newman, E. W. Byers, M. V. Van Kirk, Geneva Everett, James Richardson and Wilfred Singleton and Miss Florence McConahy.

Troop 122 held an investiture service recently at the Speedway Christian Church and received a troop flag from the Woman's Auxiliary of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Speedway Post 2839. Miss Sarah Parke received the flag from Mrs. Joseph Weber, senior department vice president of the Indiana Woman's Auxiliary.

Following the presentation and a patriotic program, troop members served tea to their mothers and a committee from the auxiliary, the Mesdames Edgar Davidson, Howard Chambers, Fred Wolf, Olive Switzer, Ralph Farley, Glen Collins and Irwin Hamke.

Parent Council's Dinner Tonight

The annual dinner of the Parent Council of Boy Scout Troop 28 will be held at 6:30 p. m. today at the Meadlawn Christian Church, Fletcher Ave. near S. Sherman Drive.

Chief Emeritus F. O. Belzer will attend and S. L. Norton of the Indianapolis Council Headquarters will be the principal speaker. M. M. Darmstadter, Pioneer District Commissioner, and other representatives of Scout Headquarters will be guests.

Musical numbers will be given by R. G. Oster, director of the Boy Scout Band and a member of the Indianapolis Council Headquarters. Miss Imogene Pierson, also of Jordan Conservatory, will appear as will the saxophone choir of the Boy Scout Band.

Pledge Services Set By Tau Phi Lambdas

Informal pledge services will be held at 7:30 p. m. today by Beta Iota Chapter, Tau Phi Lambda Sorority of the Supreme Forest, Woodmen's Circle, at the home of Miss Gladys Heck, 1827 N. Alabama St.

The 17 pledges will be initiated in formal ceremonies at 1:30 p. m. Sunday at the home of Miss Ruby Gene Beaver, 3138 Fall Creek Blvd., E. Drive. Miss Beaver is national president of the sorority.

Pledge Service Scheduled

Mrs. Richard Cheesman will preside at a meeting of Omega Nu Tau's Lambda Chapter Monday evening at the Hotel Lincoln. Pledge services will be held for Mrs. Donald Bourke, Mrs. Herschel Harold, the Misses Vivian Staley, Nina Lee Brittain, Amelia Boyland and Geraldine Heffernan.

Doll Show to Be Held at Butler

Miss Mary Bell, president of the Butler chapter of Y. W. C. A., has announced committees for the Doll Show to be held by that organization Dec. 10, 11 and 12 in the Y. M. C. A. room of the Arthur Jordan Memorial hall.

Miss Betty Jayne Schmalholz heads the publicity committee and Miss Betty Kerbox will assist. On the calling committee will be Miss Barbara Johnson assisted by the Misses Patricia McGuire, Ruth Ann Lett, Martha Ann Kirby, Indianapolis, and Marjorie Young, Anderson.

Sixteen coeds recently were pledged to Kappa Beta, religious sorority, Miss Katherine Cooper, Franklin, president, has announced. Indianapolis pledges include Misses Doris Brabender, Kathleen Shockley, Eloise Christman, Ruby Shotton, Wilma Ambuhl, Sally Vaughn, Phyllis Hadden, Geraldine Pugh, June Walters and Dolly Mitchell.

Others are Miss Frieda Sanders, Mitchell; Miss Jean Cooper, Franklin; Miss Betty Rose Ledbetter, Broken Arrow, Okla.; Miss Ruth Recktenwall, Westville; Miss Wyoming Robinson, Bridgeport, and Miss Mary Sanders, Angola. Initiation ceremonies are to be held at a later date.

French Veteran To Speak Here

A veteran of the Battle of Flanders last summer, Count Jehan de Nougé, will speak at a meeting of the Alliance Française Thursday at 8 o'clock in the Gold Room of the Hotel Washington. A 6:30 p. m. dinner at the hotel will precede the meeting.

Count de Nougé arrived in New York from France in October and is now on a lecture tour sponsored by the Federation of the Alliance Française of New York. When he was mobilized in the French Army in August, 1939, he was appointed as liaison officer between the British and French forces and assigned to the Coldstream Guards.

With the British Expeditionary Force, he took part in the battle of Louvain, the campaign in Flanders, and remained with his unit during the evacuation of Dunkirk. Returning to France after working a few days at a debarkation port in England, he remained two months in unoccupied territory until able to obtain permission from military authorities to leave the country. Count de Nougé will describe his experiences of last summer at the meeting Thursday.

Dance Is Tomorrow

The Employees' Benefit Club of the Continental Baking Co. will sponsor a dance tomorrow night in the second floor ballroom at the Athenaeum. Bob McKittrick's orchestra will play for dancing from 10 p. m. Miss Dorothy Gladden, John R. Franz and Walter Lich are in charge of arrangements.

John C. Nusbaums Are on Cruise

WILMINGTON, N. C., Nov. 29.—Mr. and Mrs. John C. Nusbaum, Indianapolis, have arrived here on their cruiser, "Victoria II." They left Esington Harbor, Philadelphia, on Nov. 17 for a trip through inland waterways along the coast to Miami, Fla.

They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Ford B. Beecher, Indianapolis, and Mrs. Emmett Farmer, Camby. Lew Winkler, Indianapolis, met the party at Norfolk, Va., and Mr. Farmer and his daughter, Marjorie Ann, flew to Georgetown, N. C., this week to join the party for a week's cruise to Jacksonville, Fla.

FAST ACTION HELPS PREVENT MANY COLDS

At the first sign of a cold, put a few drops of V-a-tro-nol on each nostril. Its stimulating action aids Nature's defenses against colds.

... And remember—when a head cold makes you suffer, or transient congestion "fills up" nose, spoils sleep, 3-purpose V-a-tro-nol gives valuable help as it (1) shrinks swollen membranes, (2) relieves irritation, (3) helps flush out nasal passages, clearing clogging mucus. Enjoy the relief it brings.
