

RETIRED PASTOR DIES HERE AT 71

Rev. A. A. Dunlavy Had Been Ill for Three Years; Services Friday.

The Rev. A. A. Dunlavy, retired Methodist minister of Otterbein, died yesterday in Methodist Hospital. He was 71 and had been ill for three years.

The Rev. Mr. Dunlavy was a native of Putnam County and had served for 38 years in the Northwest Indiana Conference of the Methodist Church. He retired several years ago. He held pastorates at Ellettsville, Argos, Hillsboro, Monon, Otterbein and other communities. Since his retirement he had lived in Otterbein.

Funeral services will be at 1 p. m. Friday at Otterbein. Burial will be at Greencastle. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Amanda Dunlavy; three brothers, William O. Dunlavy, Indianapolis; John Dunlavy, Greencastle; and Omer Dunlavy, Fillmore; and two daughters, Miss Pauline Dunlavy, a Mishawaka school teacher.

Mrs. Carrie Dugan, a resident of Indianapolis for 45 years, died yesterday at her home, 521 Alton Ave. She was 72 and a native of Greensburg.

Mrs. Dugan was a member of the Tabernacle Baptist Church. She is survived by a son, Joseph O. Dugan, Muncie; a daughter, Mrs. Mary Sellers, Grand Haven, Mich.; four sisters, Mrs. Laura Robbins, Greensburg; Mrs. Clementine McKinney, Indianapolis; Mrs. Naomi McGinnis, land, Hope; and Mrs. Lucy Lee, Martinsville; and a brother, Harry Reniger, Indianapolis, and a grandson, Donald D. Dugan, Indianapolis. Funeral services will be at 2:30 p. m. tomorrow in the Gremlin Funeral Home and burial will be in Crown Hill Cemetery.

CIVIC GROUPS DIFFER ON TROLLEY CHANGE

Two civic organizations were arrayed against each other today during a Works Board hearing of a proposed trolley line change, and the Board took the matter under advisement until they compose their differences.

Indianapolis Railways, Inc., proposed that the Brightwood trackless trolley line be extended from Sherman Dr. and 31st St. to Forest Manor Ave. and 34th St. to replace the feeder bus line it now operates at a $11,000 annual loss.

The Northeast Men's League, represented by Arthur Haight, opposed the change, and the East 38th St. Civic League, represented by Charles Linder, favored it.

WATCH IS GIVEN BEST ATTENDANT

Former Boston Editor Pleads Aid to Britain.

Fifteen past presidents of the Indianapolis Rotary Club of Indianapolis were honored at luncheon yesterday in the Riley Room of the Claypool Hotel.

Standing beneath the excerpt from a Riley poem:

"Let us fold away our ears,
And put by our foolish tears,
And through all the coming years,
Just be glad."

retired president C. D. Alexander introduced one by one the past presidents seated at the speakers' table.

Past Presidents
They were Frank P. Manly, Dr. M. E. Clark, William E. Henkel, Dallas Hitz, James A. Ross, Clark S. Wheeler, Obie J. Smith, Ralph H. Edgerton, Mr. Alexander, Almus G. Ruddell, J. Duane Dugan, Edwin R. Hisey, Omar S. Hunt, William M. Zeller and Luther L. Dickerson, who also introduced visiting Rotarians amid the protesting clatter of falling silver as the introduction passed the allotted time limit.

Harry W. Dragoo, Rotary member with the best attendance record for 1940, received the Heaton attendance award (an engraved watch). The annual Past Presidents' luncheon is observed by tradition at the first meeting of the New Year. The club believes that having the Past Presidents initiate the programs of a new calendar year affords an opportunity for all members to pay the respects due them.

Urges All Aid to Britain

Speaker of the meeting was James T. Williams Jr., former editor of the Boston Transcript. His subject was "Washington And The World Today From The American Point Of View."

Mr. Williams, in urging all aid to Britain short of war, pointed out that if Britain falls, America will be surrounded by enemies.

UNIVERSITY IN KHAKI
VANCOUVER, British Columbia, Jan. 8. (U. P.)—President L. S. Klinkin promised in September that this would be a "khaki term" at the University of British Columbia—and the promise has been fulfilled. The U. B. C. campus is swarming with uniforms these days. Military training takes precedence over all sports.

C. H. LINN DEAD IN PUEBLO AT 69

Former Resident Attended School Here, Worked For Gas Company.

C. H. Linn, a former resident of Indianapolis, died Monday in Pueblo, Colo., where he had lived for 35 years. He was 69.

Mr. Linn was born in College Corner, but his family moved to Indianapolis while he was very young. He attended High School No. 1, which is now Shortridge, and later was employed by the Citizens Gas Co.

He went to Colorado for his health and was employed there by the Colorado Iron & Fuel Co. until his death. His wife died in 1917.

Mr. Linn was a member of the East Tenth Street Methodist Church, the Masons and the Scottish Rite. He is survived by a son, Thomas E. Linn, Pueblo; four sisters, Mrs. Love V. M. Thompson, Miss Lillie A. Linn, Mrs. Maude E. Johnson, a brother, Fred E. Linn, and a nephew, Harry L. Johnson, all of Indianapolis.

Funeral services and burial will be in Pueblo.

Henry Schabel

Henry Schabel died last night at his home, 548 Cole St. He was a member of Red Cloud Tribe, No. 18, Improved Order of Redmen, and the United Ancient Order of Druids. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Lola Schabel; a son, Theodore Schabel; a brother, Ted Schabel, Terre Haute; two half-brothers, Fred Myers, Indianapolis, and John Schabel, Bloomington, and a sister, Mrs. Flora Griffin, Trafalgar.

KIWANIS OF INDIANA OPENS CONFERENCE

The 10th annual mid-winter conference of the Indiana District of Kiwanis International opened today at the Columbia Club.

Speakers included George Leist, retiring governor; Robert Lindsey, former district governor; Roy S. Ruckman, governor; Richard Chapman, president of the Nappanee Club; Marshall Barnard, Franklin, Ind.; Harvey O. Field, Nappanee, Ind.; Austin Kress, Terre Haute, former governor, and W. Earle Jacobs, Kokomo.

Delegates attended a luncheon of the Indianapolis club and heard Charles Holman of St. Louis, international trustee and counselor of the Indiana District.

District committees were to hold round table discussions this afternoon.

CENTRAL AVE. BUS EXTENSION ASKED

The People's Motor Coach Co., an Indianapolis Railways, Inc., subsidiary, petitioned the Works Board today for the extension of its Central Ave. bus line to Arden Addition.

In proposing the extension, the company also asked permission to abandon a part of its Arden-Ravenswood Crosstown service which now provides transportation to the addition.

The Central Ave. line would be extended from its present terminus at 68th St. and College Ave. north on College to 70th St., west on 70th to Central Ave. and returning over the same route.

This is approximately the route covered by part of the Arden-Ravenswood line which would be abandoned and would continue as service only to the Ravenswood community.

Ohioan Goes to War, But the Wrong One

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 8 (U. P.).—Richard C. Daly has had to give up the war to join the American Army.

A member of the Canadian Kentish Regiment, destined for "a real lick of fighting overseas soon," Daly came home to Elyria, O., on Christmas furlough and the draft got him.

He was in a quandary when he came here yesterday to confer with Adj. Gen. Gilson D. Light, State Selective Service head, over whether to desert the Canadian Army or dodge the American draft.

Mr. Light telephoned Dr. Clarence A. Dykstra, National Draft Director, who ruled that Daly had no choice—he belonged to the American Army.

Daly said: "Guess I joined the wrong war."
