

BOARD REFUSES 'EASY WAY OUT'

Safety Body Seeks Council Approval of Purchases Although Legal Chief Has Ruled It Not Necessary; 'Better Policy,' Says Keach.

At City Hall, department heads have a dread of submitting purchases of more than $2000 to City Council for approval.

In the first place, the purchase can be delayed for months by the Council. And the members have a habit of asking uncomfortable questions about the purchases.

In keeping with tradition, Safety Board members always have asked the Council to approve purchases. And on many a Council meeting night, Board President Leroy J. Keach has worked hard to get Council's okay for some police or fire department item.

NAVAL WARFARE TO BE DEPICTED

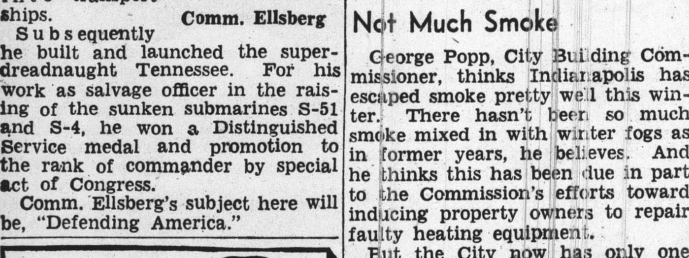

Comm. Ellsberg to Tell of Latest Developments in Defense.

The latest developments in naval warfare and general problems of defense will be discussed by Comm. Ellsberg, U. S. Navy, retired, before the Indianapolis Town Hall audience at 11 a. m. Saturday at English's Theater.

An engineer and inventor, Comm. Ellsberg, during the first World War, was a supervisor of the New York Naval Yard, directing conversion of seized German transatlantic liners into transport ships.

Subsequently he built and launched the super-dreadnaught Tennessee. For his work as salvage officer in the raising of the sunken submarines S-51 and S-4, he won a Distinguished Service medal and promotion to the rank of commander by special act of Congress.

Comm. Ellsberg's subject here will be, "Defending America."
