

Activities

Society—

Betty Hamersadt Is Engaged;
Marylee Porter to Be Wed Feb. 23

NEWS OF WEDDINGS which will occur in the late winter and spring is claiming the social spotlight. Mr. and Mrs. William Diehl Hamersadt announce the engagement of their daughter, Katherine Lizette (Betty), to Paul Wertz Scheuring, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Scheuring.

The wedding will be in the spring. The bride-to-be attended Semple School in New York and Mr. Scheuring is a graduate of Butler University and attended the University of Pennsylvania.

Among February weddings will be that of Miss Marylee Porter to John Robert Morehouse on Feb. 23. The bride-to-be is the daughter of Mrs. E. D. Porter Jr. and Mr. Morehouse is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. Morehouse.

The marriage ceremony will be read by Dr. William A. Shullenberger in the home of Mrs. Porter's son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Thompson. Miss Porter has chosen her cousin, Miss Cynthia Test, as her only attendant. Harvey Morehouse will serve as his brother's best man.

Members of the bride and bridegroom's families will attend the wedding of Miss Nahoma Cecilia Schneider and Charles B. Feibleman at 5:30 o'clock this afternoon at the home of Rabbi Morris M. Feuerlicht. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Schneider and Mr. Feibleman is the son of Isidore Feibleman.

After a short wedding trip the couple will be at home at 26 E. 14th St., Apartment 504. Miss Schneider attended John Herron Art School and Mr. Feibleman is a graduate of Harvard and the Harvard University Law School.

Among out-of-town guests for the ceremony will be Mrs. Henry L. Weil of Lowell, Mass., the bridegroom's sister. Mrs. Weil was Miss Rachel Kahn Feibleman before her marriage Sept. 4. Also attending the wedding will be Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Schroeder, Cincinnati, an uncle and aunt of the bride.

Committees Named for Day Nursery Luncheon

COMMITTEES assisting Mrs. Clarence F. Merrell, general chairman, with arrangements for the annual meeting of the Indianapolis Day Nursery Association include Mrs. Eli Lilly and Mrs. Q. G. Noblitt, program. Patrick Murphy Malin, director of the American Branch of the International Migration Service in New York, will speak on "International Migration—A Problem of Democracy" at the luncheon to be held Tuesday noon in the Columbia Club.

Also assisting Mrs. Merrell are Mesdames Harper Ransburg, W. A. Huntsinger, Arthur Gilliam and Ralph Hudson, invitations; Mrs. Walter Krull and Mrs. James L. Murray, tickets; Mrs. Fred Dickson and Mrs. R. W. Spiegel, table arrangements and hostesses, and Mesdames M. J. Spencer, James T. Cunningham and Harold West, general arrangements.

The meeting is open to the public and reservations may be made with Mrs. John E. Messick, the Association's president.

Orchard School Mothers to Meet

HOSTESS for Study Group 2 of Orchard School mothers at a 1 p. m. meeting Monday will be Mrs. Raymond F. Mead, 407 Hampton Drive.

Carleton Washburne's book, "A Living Philosophy of Education," will be reviewed and discussed by Mesdames Leslie S. Lee, Thomas C. Bachelor, Weber D. Donaldson, Wendell Barrett and Elvan Y. Tarkington and the school director, Gordon H. Thompson.

Mrs. Tarkington is program chairman of the study group formed by mothers of primary and intermediate grade children.

D. A. R. to Hear Dr. Burdette

CITIZENSHIP DAY of the Daughters of the American Revolution will be observed by the Caroline Scott Harrison Chapter Thursday afternoon in the chapter house, 824 N. Pennsylvania St. A business meeting, program and tea are being planned.

Dr. Franklin Burdette of Butler University will make the address of the afternoon, speaking on "Citizenship." Music by Mrs. Lorena Moore Aughinbaugh, soprano, accompanied by Mrs. Agnes Helgeson, will open the 2:30 o'clock program. Both Mrs. Aughinbaugh and Mrs. Helgeson are members of Mu Phi Epsilon Sorority.

Tea hostesses will be Mrs. William H. Coleman and Mrs. James Lathrop Gavin, former regents of the chapter. The tea committee consists of Mrs. Daniel S. Robinson, chairman; Mrs. Frank LaFoe Link, vice chairman; Mesdames Robert N. Fulton, John L. Goldthwaite, Herbert R. Hill, John S. Lloyd, Charles W. Merrill, Robert L. McKeechie, Edward B. Raub and Oble J. Smith, the Mesdames Josephine B. Herron, Florence W. Morrison, Sarah T. Sisson and Corinne Welling.

The business meeting will begin at 2 p. m. Delegates and alternates will be chosen for the annual convention April 14 to 19 in Washington. The finance committee will report on plans for a Valentine Bridge, Friday, Feb. 14, in the chapter house.

Garvin Brown to Speak

A LADIES' NIGHT program of the Indianapolis Literary Club Monday in the D. A. R. chapter house will include a talk by Garvin S. Brown on "John S. Mosby."

Benefit Tea Is Tomorrow

ADDITIONAL patrons and patronesses for the musicale and tea to be given tomorrow afternoon at the Indianapolis Athletic Club by the American Theater Wing for British War Relief have been announced. John Mason Brown, theatrical critic of the New York Post, will be the honor guest. T. M. Redick is bringing Miss Barbara Johnson and Tommie Wright, pianists and students at Indiana University, to present a musical program.

The additional sponsors include Governor and Mrs. Henry F. Schriener, Col. and Mrs. Alvin M. Owsley, Dr. and Mrs. Frederick G. McMillan, Messrs. and Mesdames Robert A. Adams, Raymond F. Cron, C. Norman Green, Henry Rogers Mallory, V. M. Ray, A. E. Witt, Frank Blinford, C. D. Alexander and the Mesdames H. K. Metcalf, W. A. Atkins, John Lang, Howard Pelham, Philip Adler, R. G. Lazarus, Edwin Craft and Miss Nancy Bellingier.

City Hospital Auxiliary of W. D. C. Will Have Luncheon Tuesday At the Nurses' Home

Woman's Department Club groups have released plans for meetings next week to include teas and a luncheon.

The Community Welfare Department's City Hospital Auxiliary will meet for a 12:30 o'clock luncheon Tuesday at the nurses' home in honor of Lincoln's birthday. Mrs. E. A. Carson, chairman, will preside at a business meeting to make plans for activities of freshman nurses entering in February.

The committee in charge of the luncheon consists of Mrs. Robert Bryce, chairman, assisted by Mesdames Carson, Ray B. Doward, Ralph I. Thompson, V. V. Smith and Marritt E. Woolf.

At a program following luncheon, a resume will be presented of the auxiliary's work since its founding in 1923. Its philanthropic activities have included the sponsorship of a music director, the donating of books and magazines for the nurses' home, programs for special occasions, scholarships, loan funds, luncheons and trips to city parks.

Tea will follow the Literature and Drama Department's program Wednesday afternoon at the clubhouse, with Mrs. Oscar Matthews in charge and Mrs. Wayne Reddick, chairman. Mrs. Edward A. Brown and Mrs. C. Eugene Wolcott are to be on the program.

Assistants will be Mesdames H. Alden Adams, Melissa J. Cornish, Russell Grey Fortune, Harvey L. Grimes, Charles T. Hanna, S. J. Hensley, E. Preston Jones, Howard J. Lacy, Robert Lambert, Frank E. Malott, Arley E. McNeely and William A. Smith.

The February meeting of the Art Department will be held Monday at 2:30 p. m. in the clubhouse, 1702 N. Meridian St. Miss Betty Foster will speak on "Through Castle Keyholes," and illustrate her talk with original water colors of art shrines and scenes she visited while traveling abroad in 1936.

Mrs. W. C. Bartholomew and Mrs. Howard D. Spurgeon are in charge of tea to be served in the Mary Q. Burnett Room, which is exhibiting paintings by Carl Graf this month. Their assistants will be Mesdames Charles W. Field, James E. Hughes, Howard D. Spurgeon and Mrs. James B. Phillips, D. R. Randolph and John P. Shoaf, Miss Mary M. Bryce and Miss Dorothy Phillips.

The Man Liszt To Be Reviewed

A Franz Liszt program has been arranged by Mrs. Paul E. Dorsey for this meeting Monday evening at Nu Zeta Alumnae Chapter of Sigma Alpha Iota, national professional music sorority. Mrs. Dorothy Knight Green, 4624 N. Pennsylvania St., will be hostess for a 6 o'clock dinner.

Preceding Mrs. Russell J. Sanders' review of "The Man Liszt" (Ernest Newman), Mrs. William A. Devin will sing several of the composer's songs. Her accompanist will be Mrs. Arthur Moninger.

Assisting hostesses will be Mesdames Charles C. Martin, L. T. Sogard, Paul Duckwall, O. R. Toley and E. W. Snyder, Miss Mary Zried and Miss Edna Phinney.

Gille-Schaler Rite Tomorrow

The marriage of Miss Mildred Louise Schaler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Stamm, 1224 N. Linwood Ave., to Donald H. Gille, will take place at 4 p. m. tomorrow in the Irvington Presbyterian Church with Dr. John B. Ferguson officiating. Mr. Gille is the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Gille, 964 N. Lesley Ave.

The altar at which the service is read will be decorated with palms, candelabra and sprays of flowers. Miss Jeanne Adele Schaffer, organist, will play for the ceremony. Gowns of the bride's attendants will be fashioned of net in colonial style with full skirts and high, round necklines. The bolero jackets of the bridesmaids will have short, puffed sleeves. They will wear gardenias in their hair.

Miss Vivian Frost, maid of honor, will be in champagne net and the bridesmaids, Miss Betty Westlund and Mrs. Donald Kelso, will be in blue and pink, respectively. Their French bouquets will be of gardenias, roses and forget-me-nots. A basket of rose petals will be carried by Barbara Joyce Wagner, flower girl, who will wear blue net.

The bridegroom is of white slipper satin made with sweetheart neckline, leg-o'-mutton sleeves and a full skirt forming a slight train. The veil, held by a cluster of orange blossoms, will reach the floor. Roses, gardenias and forget-me-nots will form the bride's bouquet. She will be given in marriage by her father, Mrs. Stamm, mother of the bride, will wear a dusty rose gown with black accessories and a gardenia corsage. Jet sequine trim the black jacket dress which Mrs. Gille will wear. Her accessories will be black and she will wear red roses.

Following the ceremony a reception will be held at the home of the bride's parents, with Mrs. J. L. Frost assisting.

For a motor trip to New Orleans the bride has chosen a muted plaid cashmere suit in beige and brown tones with which she will wear brown alligator shoes and purse and a large, off-the-face hat of brown felt. Her flowers will be gardenias.

The couple will be at home after Feb. 15 in the Linwood Apartments. Attending the wedding from out of the city will be Mr. and Mrs. Gille, Quiney, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Schaefer, St. Louis; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mack, Wheeling, W. Va.; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Snyder, Paul Duckwall, O. R. Toley and E. W. Snyder, Miss Mary Zried and Miss Edna Phinney.

Mayflower Descendants Plan 'Plymouth Program' Friday

Members of the Indiana Society of Mayflower Descendants will be entertained with a "Plymouth Program" Friday night at the Propylaeum by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Albert Gall. Mrs. Paul Whipple will present musical numbers.

Euvola Club To Have Tea

The upswing in junior social activity will begin this month.

Euvola Club members at Shortridge High School will entertain tomorrow with a formal tea at the home of Miss Jane Barbara Williams, 4747 N. Meridian St. Tea assistants will be the Mesdames Nancy Jefferson, Kathryn Jackson, Rosemary Wilmette and Patty Smith.

Club guests will be the Mesdames Mildred Balke, Marny Baxter, Patsy Bishop, Veronica Bower, Pat Bowser, Maxine Bridgeman, Pat Burnett, Jean Clark, Susan Countryman, Carolyn and Virginia Coxen, Mary Em Crunk, Jane Curle, Phyllis Dell, Jane and Joan Denham, Jean Faulkner, Doris Fessler, Lillian Fletcher, Betty Gant, Jean Gates, Mary Jo Gray, Patty Hagedorn, Betsy Harding, Ruth Heady, Rose Ann Hilkene, Carolyn Hiller, Mary Hinson, Jean Hixon, June Hoatson and Marny Home.

Others will be Phyllis Jordan, Katherine Kixmiller, Peggy Lananah, Emily Lewis, John Lyda, Ann McGinnis, Betty Jo McIlvaine, Kathryn Nema, Nancy Niven, Marian Osburn, Joyce Overbay, Barbara Patterson, Jane Pettijohn, Marjorie Powers, Helen Reis, Isabel Remy, Jean Richoff, Frances and Joan Robinson, Marilyn Rogers, Jean Rybolt, Jean Scaf, Margaret Shively, Jesse Lou Small, Eileen Smith, Jean Stackhouse, Barbara Starrett, Sally Waddington, Margaret Waldo, Betty Lee Washburn, Joan Wilson, Nancy Wilcox and Mary Ann Zinn.

Consumer Talk Scheduled

Mrs. Sylvia Shiras of Milwaukee, Wis., will be presented by the Consumer Division of the Indianapolis Council of Women as guest speaker at the council's monthly meeting Tuesday in Ayres' auditorium. Division members will be special hostesses for the all-day meeting.

"The Consumer Up to Date" will be discussed in the afternoon by Mrs. Shiras, director of the Household Finance Corporation's Household Research Center in Milwaukee. She is a former director of home economics in Minnesota's rural rehabilitation program and an extension instructor at the University of Minnesota. Mrs. Lowell S. Fisher, program chairman, will introduce her.

At the 10 a. m. session Mrs. J. Malcolm Dunn, consumer chairman, will report on the work of her committee. Miss Meta Gruner of the Indianapolis Orphans' Home will be presented by Mrs. George P. Ruth, welfare chairman, and will speak on "Caring for Other People's Children."

Other speakers will be Mrs. James L. Murray, president of the Indiana Congress of Parents and Teachers, whose talk on "Current Bills of Interest to Women's Groups" has been arranged by Mrs. Guy O. Byrd, legislative chairman, and J. Patrick Rooney, assistant director of city parks. Following introduction by Mrs. Thomas Sheerin, chairman of the Mayor's Committee on Recreation, Mr. Rooney will discuss "Public Gains and Future Plans."

Mesdames Eleanor Miller, Frieda S. Robinson and Claude Potts will be special guests at the meeting. The president, Mrs. Laura E. Ray, will preside.

Dickey-D'Alton Service Read

Following their marriage at 10 o'clock this morning, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Dickey left on a wedding trip through the South. The bride is the former Miss Margaret D'Alton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William P. D'Alton, 1602 E. Washington St. The Rev. Fr. Victor Gossens read the marriage service in the rectory of Holy Cross Catholic Church. The couple's attendants were Miss Bernice D'Alton of Chicago, sister of the bride, and Harlan Laycock of Mishawaka.

Miss D'Alton's bridal costume was a heavenly blue crepe dress with a veiled off-the-face turtleneck and a corsage of bridal roses and lilies-of-the-valley. Her sister wore rose crepe with matching accessories and a corsage of sweetheart roses.

After Feb. 15 Mr. and Mrs. Dickey will be at home in Indianapolis. A former resident of Memphis, Tenn., Mr. Dickey is a graduate of Purdue University.

Hallie Powers to Be Wed

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Fowler announce the approaching marriage of their daughter, Miss Hallie Powers. Miss Powers will be married to James E. Fowler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hobart Murphy, on Friday.