It's Not All Fun for Two Southerners Who Seek Office of Outer Guard, Shrine's Only Elective Post

Council Politics Serious Fun For 2 Who Want to Be Outer Guard.

It's all in fun—yet it's a pretty serious business for a couple of Shriners and their supporters.

The politics that goes with any democratic organization and in the case of the Shrine it's the contest for the post of Imperial Outer Guard, the only elective position in the Imperial Council.

Imperial Outer Guard is the bottom rung in the Imperial Council. Imperial Potentate is the top of the ladder. It takes about a dozen years to reach the top.

Withdrew for Lloyd

Harold Lloyd, famous movie actor, is the present Outer Guard, having been elected last year at Memphis. At that time he was opposed by Roland D. (Pete) Baldwin of Jacksonville, Fla., and Hubert M. Potest of Wake Forest, N. C.

At the last minute, Mr. Potest and Mr. Baldwin withdrew to make Mr. Lloyd's election unanimous.

So this year, the two Southerners are back in the running again. Their campaigns are well under way with each having his headquarters set up in the Claypool Hotel.

Roland D. Baldwin

Mr. Potest's candidacy is being sponsored by the Temples of North and South Carolina. Mr. Baldwin is backed by the Florida Temples.

A college professor and author, Mr. Potest is past potente of Sudan Temple and past grand master of the North Carolina Grand Lodge of Masons. In the winter he is a professor at Wake Forest College and in the summer he teaches at Columbia University.

Mr. Potest is an authority on the classics, having written seven books on the subject. In his college days at Wake Forest he became the first southern intercollegiate tennis champion. He is a member of Phi Beta Kappa and is an executive councilor of Kappa Alpha.

Other in Business

Mr. Baldwin is a business executive in Jacksonville and is past potente of Morocco Temple, the oldest temple in the South. He is a war veteran, and was wounded during the Marine's charge in Belleau Wood.

He is director of the Hope Tavern Foundation for Crippled Children, the largest such organization in Florida. He also is director of the Children's Home Society of Florida.

Mr. Baldwin is a Rotarian and charter member of the Jacksonville Junior Chamber of Commerce. He directed the Jacksonville Community Chest campaigns two years. He also is a member of the Duval County defense commission.
