UNVEIL FRANKLIN PL. TUE

Times Special—
FRANKLIN, Ind., Oct. 24.—A bronze plaque honoring Franklin College as the birthplace of the Indiana High School Press Association was unveiled here yesterday at the opening convocation of the 20th anniversary convention of the organization.

Gay Goals Beckon Butler

Annual Parade Will Open Homecoming Program Today

Butler University students will wind through downtown streets this afternoon in the annual homecoming parade.

Featured will be the Butler Band, bands of campus organizations, and marching units.

Another event today, as part of the program welcoming the visiting grads, was the freshman-sophomore tussle, held at the corner of Hampton Drive and Sunset Ave.

Climax of the homecoming will be the Butler-Ohio football game tomorrow at 2 p. m.

Then the Bonfire

University officials will welcome graduates and students on a radio program on Station WISH tonight and at 8 p. m., the traditional bonfire will be held on the campus. Fraternities and sororities have been foraging for fuel for days. Whoever gets there first with the most fuel gets a prize.

After the first has burned long enough for quiet conversation, Coach Tony Hinkle will give a talk and introduce members of the football team.

The Scarlet Quill, honorary society for senior women, will award a prize to the fraternity and sorority houses having the best decorations in a contest to be decided at 10 a. m. tomorrow. After noon luncheons at chapter houses, everyone will adjourn to the Bowl, where a flag-raising ceremony at 1:35 p. m. will precede the game.

The final event is the dance sponsored jointly by Scarlet Quill and the Blue Key, senior men's honorary society. It will be held in the fieldhouse from 9 p. m. tomorrow.
