

GLASS EYE CRACKED IN HUNTING MISHAP

ALEXANDRIA, Minn., Oct. 24 (U. P.).—John Nisler, 73, Watkins, Minn., sought a new eye today after his left one was shattered by buckshot fired from the gun of his daughter while the two were hunting near here yesterday.

Part of the buckshot struck her father's left eye. The eye—a glass one—shattered, but he suffered no physical harm.

'Now I Know They'll Eat,' Writes Mother Abandoning Babies

CHICAGO, Oct. 24 (U. P.).—The crying had been going on intermittently for hours. Neighbors thought it must be in the Palmer flat. One of them went to see.

Mrs. Rose Palmer, 29, was gone. Huddled in the squalid apartment were her four children, aged 5 to 5 months. Their clothes were clean but so worn the patches had been patched. The children were barefoot but also clean except for tear stains.

Nurses from the juvenile home came to get the children. The nurses, who said the children were starving and had been undernourished for weeks, found a note on a ragged but freshly-washed pile of clothes. It read:

"To whom it may concern: Please do not think I am deliberately deserting my babies, but I see no other way out of this. I have tried everything under the sun to keep them and take proper care of them, but I cannot go on seeing my babies half eating and no shoes on their feet, and bedbugs and roaches crawling all over them. And now we're being put out, so we have nowhere to go.

"I've gone without food myself to give them more. I've gone to the papers and every relief agency I know of to get help, but to no avail. My husband deserted us almost a year ago, and I cannot find him to get him to help me.

"Please take good care of my baby, as she is ill. I've taken her to relief doctors and tried every formula I could afford, but I cannot give her special food that she needs.

"I love my babies and I don't want to give them up. At least now I know they'll eat and have a roof over their head. And please when I get a job and can take care of them, I'll come for them.

"God forgive me my sin of bringing babies into this world and not being able to give them the least necessities of life.

"A desperate mother."

"P. S. If the children cry, tell them they're going to school and they'll go willingly."

MANHOLE LIDS USED FOR METAL IN JAPAN

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24 (U. P.).—Japan's raw material shortage is so grave that the Japanese are picking up rain gutters, manhole lids and nameplates in a metal conservation drive, the Commerce Department's official publication—Foreign Commerce Weekly—revealed today.

Salvage companies are raising sunken ships for scrap; iron fences around government and large business buildings have disappeared.

Gene Tierney III After Collapse

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 24 (U. P.).—Actress Gene Tierney was reported suffering from nervous exhaustion and a severe cold today. She collapsed yesterday on a movie set. She was taken home and work on the production was halted.

Dr. Robert Rathbone said she had been overworking. Since coming to Hollywood her only vacation had been a brief one, when she and Count Oleg Cassini, a fashion designer, were married.

K. P. ROOKIE DRINKS 18 PINTS OF MILK

FT. CUSTER, Mich. (U. P.).—A Michigan farm rookie, assigned to kitchen police duty in a mess hall here, wondered if it would be all right if he drank one of the half-pint bottles of milk.

The cook, who had been noticing him working pretty hard, said, "Sure. And if you want another one later, take it."

When they caught up to him he had put away 36 half pints. He told his K. P. buddies he was accustomed to drinking more than that at home.
