Society—

Traders Point Hunt Will Have Its Annual Dance Tonight at Woodstock

THE CURRENT TREND toward greater simplicity in social events will be marked tonight as the Traders Point Hunt holds its annual dance at the Woodstock Club. This year a dinner-dance is superseding the traditional hunt ball.

In previous years, the ball has followed numerous cocktail parties and dinners in private homes; this year guests will gather at the club for a cocktail party before the dinner-dance.

As part of the plan to make the event smaller than heretofore, hunt members were permitted to invite only one local couple who were not Traders Point members—although no limit was placed on the number of out-of-town guests who might be invited. As a result, an attendance of about 200 is expected.

The colorful features of a hunt ball, however, will not be missing. Gowns worn by the women will be of traditional hunt ball colors—white, red, gray or black—and the men will wear their "pink" (scarlet to us) evening coats with robin's egg blue satin facings and burgundy velvet collars.

Mr. and Mrs. Julian Bobbs will attend with Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Dunn as their guests. With Mr. and Mrs. John H. Bookwalter will be Mr. and Mrs. Lothair Teeter of Hagerstown, Mrs. Jesse Fletcher and Joseph J. Daniels.

Lieut. Sutphin to Entertain

MR. AND MRS. RUSSELL L. WHITE of Carmel will have as their guests Mr. and Mrs. William A. Atkins. Mr. and Mrs. Samuel B. Sutphin will have no guests with them, while their son, Lieut. Samuel Reid Sutphin, U. S. N. R., will entertain Miss Evelyn Beard of Lexington, Ky., and Mr. and Mrs. John B. Morse of Lake Forest, Ill.

With Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mayer will be Mr. and Mrs. Albert Zoller. Guests of Miss Hilda Hibben will be Mr. and Mrs. Harry Reid Jr., formerly of New York, and Henry Severin. Miss Madeline Shields of "Foxville" Martinsville, and John W. Gambill will attend together.

John D. Tebben will entertain Mr. and Mrs. William B. Ansted and Miss Ruth Fishback. Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Rhoads will have with them Mr. and Mrs. Walter W. Kuhn, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Henry Weaver will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Rhoads Jr. Mr. and Mrs. Richard McGarrah Helms are entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Jeremiah L. Cadick.

Attending with Mr. and Mrs. William H. Ball, Muncie, will be Mr. and Mrs. Fred Crapo, Muncie, new members of the hunt, and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin R. Culver, St. Louis; Col. Edward Gregory of Culver Military Academy and Col. and Mrs. Alvin M. Owsley.

Mrs. Barrall Woods, Hamilton, Mass., and Warner Atkins, Cincinnati, will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Ruckelshaus. Mr. and Mrs. William C. Griffith's party will include Capt. and Mrs. Raymond McClung of New York and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harvey Bradley. Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Longsworth will be entertained by Mr. and Mrs. A. Kiefer Mayer.

Among Other Parties

IN MR. AND MRS. EARL B. BARNES' party will be Mr. and Mrs. Paul H. Durham, Kokomo, and Mrs. Donald M. Nixon and Mark C. Honeywell, Wabash. Mr. and Mrs. Herbert M. Woollen will take their house guests, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Quigg of Richmond, Ind., to the club. The Quiggs are members of the hunt.

With Mr. and Mrs. Perry E. O'Neal will be Mrs. O'Neal's brothers, William J. Holliday of Chicago and Frederick T. Holliday, and Mrs. Frederick Holliday. Mrs. Hortense Rauth Burpee's guests will be her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. David Lawrence Chambers Jr., and Blaine H. Miller.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Burford Danner will be Miss Mary Lou Cooper, Aurora, Ill., and Sylvester Johnson Jr. Among others at the club will be Messrs. and Mesdames Cornelius O. Alig, Frederic M. Ayres Jr., August C. Bohlen and Russell Fortune Sr.

Mrs. Griffith was chairman of the committee arranging tonight's dance. Her assistants were Mesdames Kurt F. Pantzer, Bowman Elder, Louis H. Schwitzer Jr., Frederic Taylor, Samuel B. Sutphin, O'Neal, Alig, Woollen, Ruckelshaus, A. Kiefer Mayer and Helms.

The hunt was to ride this afternoon at 2:15 o'clock from the Kinken Valley Farms, near Royalton, of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Wemmer.

Bridge Tournament Play-off Is Monday

MRS. G. H. A. CLOWES will be hostess Monday at her home for the play-off in the local semi-finals of the bridge tournament being sponsored by the women's committee of the Indiana State Symphony Society. Twenty women will begin play at 2 p. m. The tournament benefits the maintenance fund of the Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra.

Miss Joan Stefeld has the high score among the participants. Others, in the order of their scores, are Mesdames Leonard Solomon, Thomas Madden, William H. Jungclaes, M. W. Scowell, B. O. Brulington, Lucia Macbeth, Roger Kahn, J. K. Leasure, H. D. Hartley, Julia Darlington, Earl C. Randles, Fred Wagoner, William T. Burns, Wayne L. Ritter, T. Gordon Kelly, J. I. Davis, Sigmund Whitaker, Lanie de Got and C. B. Durham.

Holders of the four highest scores at the end of Monday afternoon's play will compete in the final tournament with the four players from outside Indianapolis, each of whom held the highest score in her region of the state. Finals will be held at 1:30 p. m. Monday, Dec. 15, in the Indianapolis Athletic Club, following a luncheon for the competition.

Chairman of the bridge tournament has been Mrs. Clewes, assisted by Mrs. William C. Griffith and Mrs. Joseph E. Cain as chairmen for Indianapolis, and by Mrs. Thaddeus R. Baker as general score chairman.

Museum Has Water Color Exhibit

THIRTY-EIGHT MEMBERS of the Philadelphia Water Color Club will be represented in an exhibition of water color art opening this week-end at John Herron Art Museum. The Club is a 40-year-old organization which has enrolled many famous artists.

The pictures hang in the special exhibitions gallery, replacing the Jacob Cox show. Ancient Chinese paintings from the del Drago Collection will be kept on exhibit in the stairway gallery through Dec. 14.

Among the best known water-colorists represented are Joseph Frank Gopsiel, Edith Emerson, Harry Leith-Ross, Thornton Oakley, Violet Oakley, Hobson Pittman, Henry C. Pitz and Andrew Wyeth.

Wilbur D. Peat, Museum director, will speak in the assembly hall tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock on "Trends in Contemporary Water Color Painting," pointing to some of the pictures on exhibit for his illustrations.

The tableaux of famous paintings, an annual presentation of the Art Association of Indianapolis for the membership, will be given Tuesday night at 8 o'clock in the Assembly hall for members exclusively, and will be repeated Wednesday night for the public.

Guild's Dance Will Benefit City Hospital

Proceeds of the annual dinner dance of St. Margaret's Hospital will tonight in the Indianapolis Athletic Club will go toward that organization's philanthropic work, including occupational therapy, at the City Hospital. Mrs. John H. Rau is the general chairman with Mrs. William F. Kraft as her assistant.

Programs for the dance will be in Christmas red with silver lettering. Sprays of huckleberry, interspersed with white candles and silver and red Christmas tree ornaments, will decorate the tables.

Since Christmas trees will be used about the orchestra platform above which will be spotlighted a huge Christmas wreath, Bob McKittrick and his orchestra will play.

The Arthur Murray Dance Studios will present a demonstration of ballroom dancing. Readings by a palmist will be another feature of the evening.

In one party will be the Messrs. and Mesdames William F. Sandmann, J. R. McNutt, J. B. Lanagan, S. W. Terry, P. L. McCord, H. C. Tyson, H. A. Shumaker, E. N. Gimble, J. N. Rowland of Dayton, O., and Mr. and Mrs. Byron Lutz, Troy, O.
