Mr. McGill, well known in city sport circles, was supervisor for three years at Ipalco Hall, employee recreation center. He is a former big league baseball player and served on athletic staffs at Chicago, Illinois, Northwestern and Butler Universities.

Rites Tomorrow For Mary Lewis

NEW YORK, Jan. 1 (U. P.).—Funeral services will be held tomorrow for Mary Lewis, 41, former star soprano of the Metropolitan Opera and one of the most publicized singers in America in the 1920's, who died yesterday at the Le Roy Sanatorium after a four-month illness.

Miss Lewis had lived in virtual retirement since the death in 1939 of her husband, Robert L. Hague, former vice president of the Standard Oil Co.

Born in Hot Springs, Ark., she began singing in church choirs in Little Rock, Ark., and Dallas, Tex., rose to stardom in the Ziegfeld Follies, and made her debut at the Metropolitan in January, 1926, singing the role of Mimi in "La Boheme."

Seldon D. Hall's Rites Tomorrow

FUNERAL SERVICES for Seldon D. Hall, who died yesterday, will be held at 1:30 p. m. tomorrow in the Dorsey Funeral Home. Burial will be in the Pleasant View Cemetery near Lebanon.

Mr. Hall, who was 65, lived at 104 S. Rural St. He had been employed for the last 12 years by the Mayflower Transit Co. He was born in Thornton, and had lived in Indianapolis most of his life.

Survivors are his wife, Mrs. Allie Hall; a son, Arthur Hall; a stepdaughter, Mrs. Ethel Winters, and five grandchildren, all of Indianapolis.

MRS. KEALING IS DEAD AT 100

Pennsylvania Native Spent
Most of Her Life in Indianapolis.

Mrs. Christina Kealing, who was 100 years old, died yesterday in her home, 3210 E. Washington St.

Mrs. Kealing was a member of the First Evangelical and Reformed Church. She was the widow of James Adam Kealing, a blacksmith, who died here 30 years ago. She was born in Bellefonte, Pa., but had spent most of her life here.

She came to Indianapolis by covered wagon 96 years ago. The family settled on a farm east of Irvington.

Mrs. Kealing had been bedridden for the past year. She would have been 101 in May.

She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Laura Stark and Miss Elizabeth Kealing; a grandson, Harold Kealing, and three great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at 1:30 p. m. Saturday in her home and at 2 p. m. in the First Evangelical Church. Burial will be in Crown Hill.

Marks 25 Years In Phone Service

TODAY MARKS the 25th anniversary in the telephone career of Mrs. Nellie Bakemeyer, long distance operator for the Indiana Bell Telephone Co.

She began work as an operator for the former Central Union Telephone Co. in Ben Davis, and was later transferred to the main office in Indianapolis, working as a local operator. She recently was transferred to long distance. Her home is at 257 Eastern Ave.
