

SALES OFF NOW, DEAL IN MORALE

Furnishers Group, Hit by Priorities, Organizes 'Grin
And Win' Club.

CHICAGO, Jan. 6 (U. P.).—A group of manufacturers whom the war has left with nothing to buy and nothing to sell started today to offset the business blackout with a sense of humor.

The first of an expected 12,000 buyers arriving for the opening of the winter house furnishings market found the members of their industry hardest hit by priorities banding together in a "grin and win" club.

Founder of the club, whose motto is "if we can't sell merchandise, we can still pass a lot of morale over the counter," was Joseph A. Kaplan, former president of the New York House Furnishers Association. Mr. Kaplan's company, a distributor of insulation, finds itself without merchandise this year because of priorities favoring navy cable insulation and other military uses. Mr. Kaplan said manufacturers whose wares draw heavily on priorities were signing up for membership in "grin and win."

Butler Senior Is 'Man of Month'

MAX S. NORRIS, a senior at Butler University, has been chosen Man of the Month by Alpha Phi Omega, national service organization composed of former Boy Scouts enrolled in colleges.

Max S. Norris

Mr. Norris is president of the Butler chapter. He is an Eagle Scout, Minisino (highest rank); assistant scoutmaster of Troop 60, and instructor in horsemanship at the Central Indiana Council Boy Scout Camp.

SPEED UP MEDICAL SCHOOL SELECTIONS

Times Special

BLOOMINGTON, Ind., Jan. 6.—Medical students at Indiana University will be selected Feb. 3 instead of in May, as has been usual, in order to speed up medical training, according to Dean W. D. Gatch.

This earlier date will make it possible for those failing to meet the requirements to make application elsewhere before summer training starts, or to enter military service. The number of admissions granted will be on the 10 per cent increase basis which became effective last year.

Dr. Carl H. McCaskey of the Indianapolis medical school staff is chairman of the admission committee. Serving with him are Drs. Cyrus J. Clark, Matthew Winters, J. K. Berman, H. O. Mertz, C. G. Culbertson, J. O. Ritchey, D. A. Boyd, Robert A. Moore, Hugh E. Martin, L. T. Meeks and J. D. Van Nuy, all of the faculty of the Indianapolis medical school, and Dr. J. A. Badertscher, Paul Harmon and Edwin N. Kime of the Bloomington faculty.

LEAVES 103 DESCENDANTS

LOGANSPOUT, Ind., Jan. 6 (U. P.).—Jacob B. Flora, Camden, died yesterday, leaving 103 direct descendants, including eight children, 35 grandchildren and 68 great grandchildren. He was 88.

HOOSIERS FACE REAL DILEMMA

Asked to Choose Between Wickard, Henderson on Farm Price Control.

Times Special

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—Hoosiers in Congress today were confronted with the dilemma of choosing between Leon Henderson and their own Secretary of Agriculture Claude Wickard as price control administrator for agriculture products.

The problem was posed to them by President Hasell Schenck of the Indiana Farm Bureau. He called yesterday on both Senator Frederick Van Nuy (D. Ind.) and Raymond E. Willis (R. Ind.) to unfold his plan.

It is to offer an amendment to the price control bill, now pending in the Senate Banking and Currency Committee, which would require that before Mr. Henderson sets a price on anything agricultural he must first obtain Secretary Wickard's approval.

Willis Undecided

As a member of the Senate Agriculture Committee, Senator Willis said he went into the matter at some length with Mr. Schenck but had not yet made up his mind regarding the proposal.

Senator Van Nuy was too busy to give it his immediate attention. According to Mr. Schenck, the Farm Bureau proposal merely is designed to "give Agriculture its due."

Word of Amendment

"We will not demand parity payments from the Government when farm prices reach that level," he said.

The proposed amendment reads: "Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no action shall be taken by the administrator or any other person with respect to any agricultural commodity, or commodity processed or manufactured in whole or substantial part from any agricultural commodity, without the prior approval of the Secretary of Agriculture."

Low-Numbered Auto License Plates Will Go on Republicans' Cars This Year

When you see an automobile with a low license number this year, you can bet your last nickel that it belongs to a Republican.

For, for the first time in a decade, the Motor Vehicle License Bureau is under the control of a Republican, Secretary of State James Tucker, and he has issued the "choice" low numbers to party officials and personal friends.

The Democrats will have to content themselves with regular plates—just as the Republicans have had to do for the last 10 years.

Mr. Tucker issued the lowest plate, number 10001, to his father, James L. Tucker of Salem.

Next One Goes to Dawson

Lieut. Gov. Charles Dawson received license plate 10002; Dr. Warren S. Tucker, brother of the Secretary of State, 10003, and Ralph Gates, G. O. P. State Chairman, 10004.

The names of the 21 persons receiving the next lowest numbers follow:

10005, Mrs. Eleanor Snodgrass,

Nashville, G. O. P. vice State chairman; '06, John Bookwalter, Indianapolis, G. O. P. treasurer; '07, L. S. Bowman, Indianapolis, G. O. P. State auditor; '08, Rodger Curry, Bloomington insurance man; '09, J. H. Powers, Indianapolis; '10-11-12, Fred Ellison, manager of the Security Trust Building here; '13, John Hancock, Republican assistant State treasurer.

'14, Neil McCallum, secretary of the Republican State Committee; '15, Bertha Makin, secretary to Mr. McCallum; '16, V. A. Terry, secretary to Mr. Gates; '17, James Pierson of the Republican State Committee; '18, Mrs. Louis Ward, 4634 Cornelius Ave.; '19 and '21, Philmer J. Ward, Batesville; '20, James F. McDermott, Attica publisher.

Demand as Heavy as Ever

'22, M. S. Osterday of H. P. Watson & Co.; '23, A. L. Porter of the Republican State Committee; '24, Mrs. Ralph Yager of Decatur, and '25, Kendall Matthews, Wayne County deputy coroner.

The 1942 license plates were started with the number 10001 by order of Governor Schricker who believed starting the plates with a high number would eliminate the demand for low numbers.

Mr. Tucker says, however, that the demand for low numbers has been greater than ever!

BUTLER 'Y' HOLDS SCHOOL PROGRAMS

Members of the Butler University chapter of the Y. M. C. A. are conducting "Gra-Y" clubs in grade schools of the city, under the supervision of the Central "Y" office.

These clubs are to develop leaders, character building and providing recreation among pupils of the fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grades.

Chairmen of the four sections are: R. Carl Alford, east; J. Henry Miller, southwest; V. D. Parker, central; and Floyd A. Wilson, Butler chapter's executive secretary, north.

DANGER TIME HERE FOR WATER PIPES

Frozen water pipes are likely to make life doubly miserable for householders in frigid winter weather unless some precautions are taken, the Indianapolis Water Co. advises.

First of all, the valve on the pipe line that feeds your outside hose should be turned off and the pipe drained. And while you're about it, drain all other unnecessary water lines in buildings or corners where no heat is maintained regularly.

All other house plumbing exposed to cold air, especially in unheated basements, should be wrapped with layers of crumpled newspapers or other windproof material. And check your service line from your basement to the water main. Often service lines are not laid deep enough. Water mains are at least 4 1/2 feet below the ground surface.

WHEN needed... call us immediately. Our train staff will see that things run smoothly with our supervision.
