

TULLY MARSHALL

ON JOB 25 YEARS

HOLLYWOOD, Jan. 7 (U. P.)—Tully Marshall, veteran actor of the stage and screen, is celebrating his 25th anniversary in Hollywood.

The 77-year-old film player came to Hollywood in the days of silent pictures with D. W. Griffith.

NEIGHBORHOODS

By Tim Tippett

"THE MALTESE FALCON," admittedly one of the best mysteries turned out by Hollywood in many a month, begins its tour of the neighborhoods this week. It's a deep tale of a whole crew of murderers killing off their fellow man to get hold of a bejeweled statuette of a falcon. Badman Humphrey Bogart is tops in the film and of course it wouldn't be a chiller without sinister Peter Lorre.

It's at the Belmont today through Saturday; at the Irving today; at the Rivoli tomorrow through Sunday and at the Zarling tomorrow through Saturday.
