James B. Cummins, Portland, Is Chosen President Of State Board.

James B. Cummins of Portland succeeded Francis M. Overstreet of Columbus as president of the Indiana State Fair Board at the closing business meeting of the annual two-day conference yesterday.

Otto L. Reddish of Waveland was elected vice president.

The Indiana Association of County and District Fairs, meeting in conjunction with the Fair Board at the Hotel Lincoln, named Robert Graham of Washington its new president, James Terry of Laporte, vice president, and William Clark of Franklin, secretary-treasurer.

The conference ended last night with a banquet at which Governor Schrieker and Lieut. Gov. Dawson spoke.

28 KILLED BY GALE
IN RIO DE JANEIRO

RIO DE JANEIRO, Jan. 8 (U.P.).—Officials listed 28 persons killed and 36 injured today in the city's "worst storm in 40 years," with rescuers toiling through the wreckage of collapsed buildings in search of still other victims.

Heavy rains caused the structures to crumble.

First in Town Hall Series for 1942

Baron von Trapp and his family of singers.

TRAPP SINGERS
HERE SATURDAY

Baron, Wife, Daughters
And Sons to Give Varied Program.

The Trapp Family Singers will be presented by Indianapolis Town Hall at 11 a. m. Saturday at English's Theater.

The group which will open the 1942 portion of Town Hall series is composed of the wife, five daughters and two sons of Baron Georg von Trapp, captain of an Austrian submarine during World War I.

Dr. Franz Wasner, young Catholic priest who was the family's chaplain on their estate in Austria, travels with them as conductor.

The von Trapps, dressed in native costume, present carols, soft songs and folk songs. When the Nazis took over Austria, Baron von Trapp was offered a position in the German Navy. He refused and the family left their native home.

Their hobby—a capella singing of old songs and folk tunes—became a means of livelihood in the United States.

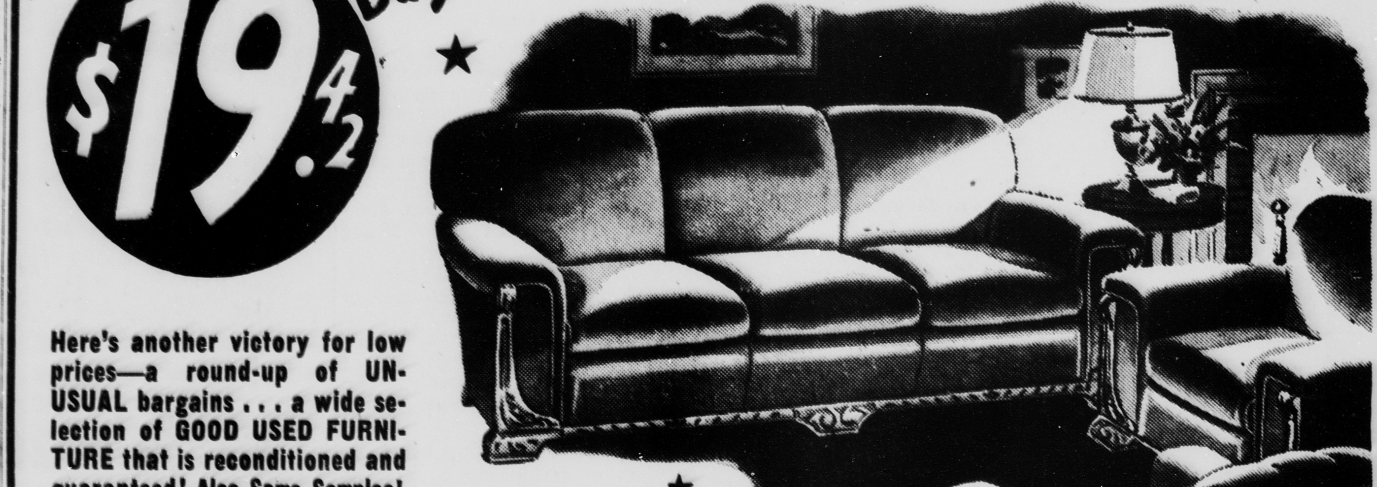

When not on a singing tour, members of the family make woodcuts, work in leather, weave, knit and work in clay at their home in Merion, Pa. Three younger children have not yet joined the singing group.

The group's program will include songs by Richard Dering, Hans Leo Hassler, Johannes Brahms, Tomas Luis de Vittoria and several more designated as "tyrolean song" and "Carinthian folk song."

Town Hall officials announce that the lecture of Miss Clare Booth, scheduled for a week from Saturday has been canceled because of Miss Booth's serious illness. Miss Erika Mann, recently returned from England, will replace her on that date. Her subject will be "Searchlight Through the Blackout."

BACK DEFENSE

National, Local Officers
Outline Program at Governor's Office.

A delegation of national and local officers of the auxiliary of the United Automobile Workers (C. I. O.) called on Governor Schrieker yesterday to pledge their support in the civil defense program and to notify him of organization defense plans.

Mrs. Faye Stephenson of Cleveland, international auxiliary president, said that the 12,000 members were available "to be placed wherever needed."

She also reported that the auxiliary plans to establish hostess clubs to aid in recreational programs for soldiers and to form clubs composed of mothers of men in the armed services.

'41 POSTAL RECEIPTS
SET RECORD HERE

If anyone thinks that the post-office in Indianapolis isn't in the upper brackets of big business, let him look at these figures:

Receipts for the year 1941 touched an all-time high of $4,998,564.36, which is about $15000 short of the five million dollar figure which the personnel has been striving to reach for some time. Last year's increase over 1940 is $240,930.14, according to Adolph Seidensticker, postmaster.

December business topped the same month of the year before by $49,700.

Britishers Out-Talk Foe;
20 Capture 250 Italians

NEW YORK, Jan. 8 (U. P.).—Twenty British airmen whose flying boat was shot down by German fighters in the Mediterranean, landed unarmed in Axis-held territory in Libya, argued with an Italian patrol about whether they or the Italians were prisoners, and finally reached the British lines fully armed and with 250 Italian prisoners.

The captain of the flying boat even made a bet with the leader of the Italian patrol that the Italians were trespassing on the British press service whose correspondent described it as "one of the most bizarre and humorous adventures of the desert war." He told this story:

The airmen swam ashore near Derna on the northeast Libyan coast and were discovered by a party of 20 Italians en route to Barce. This encounter presented the question of whether the British were Italian prisoners or vice versa, since the British leader contended the Italians were in British-occupied territory.

The Italians were armed, so the British accompanied them toward Barce. But the next morning the Italian major in command admitted he might be wrong and his party left the airmen without guard or escort.

Again heading eastward toward the British lines, the fliers soon encountered another party of 50 Italians who promptly surrendered their arms without noticing the plight of their captors. Another group of 50 Italians soon surrendered, then others, until the total reached 250.
