

Scout News— STATE COUNCIL TO NAME HEAD

Silver Beaver Awards Also
Will Be Made at Annual Meeting Wednesday.

The annual meeting of the Central Indiana Council of the Boy Scouts of America, at which a new council president is chosen and the silver beaver national awards are made, will be held Wednesday in the Tabernacle Presbyterian Church.

A business meeting will begin at 8:30 p. m., with the banquet and entertainment scheduled for one hour later.

Report on 1941 Activities

Every troop and cub pack in the council will be represented at the meeting. Reports will be given on the activities of Scouts during 1941, and a colorful pageant, in which all troops will participate, will be shown.

The silver beaver awards are made each year to the laymen who give outstanding service to the council. Four will receive the honor this year.

Miss Wilcox to Sing

Miss Phyllis Wilcox, the Indiana University student from Indianapolis who gained nation-wide attention recently in the "Hour of Charm" radio finals, will be present at the meeting to sing for the Scouts.

Rabbi Morris M. Feuerlicht will be the principal speaker at the banquet. His subject will be "Tolerance." A. G. Russell, council president, will preside and Lloyd Burns, district commissioner of the South Side, will be in charge of the pageant.

PURSE SNATCHERS ACTIVE OVER CITY

An East Side woman told police today that her purse was stolen last night by a man who put a gun to her back as she was entering her home, 130 S. Arlington Ave. The woman, Mrs. William Rodkey, said the purse contained $10, and that after taking it the man forced her into an alley near her home. He fled when she screamed, she told police.

A prowler and two other purse snatchers were active over the city last night. Peggy Charles, 13, of 2227 Brookside Ave., screamed when a man entered her home, and he ran out the back door.

Bernice Atwell, 2231 Broadway, told police that a man stepped from an automobile and grabbed her purse containing 50 cents as she was walking in the 600 block on E. 38th St. Police said the car had been reported earlier in the evening.

While walking in the 1500 block on S. East St. a man grabbed a purse from Miss Joan Osborn, 111 Kansas St., and then ran. She told police the purse contained $15 and a fountain pen.

RUSSIAVILLE CHURCH DESTROYED BY FIRE

RUSSIAVILLE, Ind., Jan. 9 (U. P.).—Authorities today blamed an overheated furnace for the fire which destroyed the Russiaville Methodist Church last night with an estimated loss of $50,000.

In bitter cold, volunteer firemen from Russiaville and Galveston fought the blaze for hours as a high wind threatened to spread the flames to nearby residences.

The fire started shortly after the weekly prayer meeting at the church was concluded. Church officials said the loss was covered by insurance.

COUNTY TEACHERS MEET TOMORROW

The Marion County Teachers' Institute will meet at Southport High School tomorrow.

Sectional discussion will occupy the morning, and Prof. George Davis, head of the Purdue University placement bureau, will address the general session in the afternoon.

The day's program is in charge of C. C. Leedy, Southport principal, and H. F. Griffey, County Superintendent, will be in charge of the general session.

Light Up Tonight In Brightwood

BRIGHTWOOD will become brighter at 7:30 p. m. tonight when Mayor Sullivan turns on a "battery" of new overhead street lights.

It will be an occasion for celebration by the Brightwood Merchants' Association. There will be a parade beneath the new lights, which have been installed by the City along Station St. and Roosevelt Ave. Speaking will be done in the Brightwood Methodist Church.

Sam Ingle is president of the Brightwood Merchants' Association. The committee arranging the lighting ceremony includes Robert Caskey, an electrician; the Rev. Almon J. Coble, pastor of the Brightwood Methodist Church; the Rev. William Breedlove, pastor of the Calvary Baptist Church; Dr. V. H. Gregg, a dentist, and J. W. Preston, a grocer.
