Heard Woman Flier Laud Hitler, Two Testify; Diary Exhibited.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10 (U. P.).—Laura Ingalls' own words and belongings were arrayed against her today in support of the Government's charge that as a paid German agent she attempted to soften this country "to receive Adolf Hitler."

The 38-year-old aviatrix, holder of numerous records, is accused of wilful failure to register as a German agent with the State Department. She faces a maximum penalty if convicted of eight to 24 months in prison and a $10,000 fine.

Her small, red leather bound diary in which she jotted cryptic allusions to her purported dealings with German representatives here was exhibited to the jury.

'Established Contact'

In the well-thumbed diary were such notes as "letter to 1439," and "established contact."

The Government contends that "letter to 1439" referred to communication by the famed flier with the German Embassy.

"Established contact," according to the prosecution, meant that Miss Ingalls had got in touch with Baron Ulrich von Gienanth, second secretary of the German Embassy during the period when the flier is accused of working in behalf of the Third Reich.

Two prosecution witnesses testified yesterday that the diminutive flier denounced this country's Government in conversations with them and praised Hitler's.

Admits Taking $400

Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation produced brief cases filled with documentary evidence found in apartments where she had been a guest. In one briefcase investigators found a translation of Hitler's "Mein Kampf" with many passages underlined in red ink.

James F. Reilly, defense counsel, admitted in his opening statement that Miss Ingalls had accepted a total of $400 in payments from Baron Gienanth.

Taught in City

The Rev. Fr. John Duffy

The Rev. Fr. John Duffy, the Army chaplain who was wounded in the Philippines while saving Mass at an altar made of ammunition crates, was formerly a teacher at Cathedral High School, his Indianapolis friends recalled today.

Father Duffy—he holds the rank of major in the Army—still was studying for the priesthood when he came to Indianapolis in 1923. He was noted as a public speaker during his stay here. He left here in 1925 and was ordained in 1926, celebrating his first Mass at Lafayette, his birthplace.

Father Duffy taught economics and coached the debating team at Cathedral High. He turned out a championship team of debaters, who included William H. Krieg, Joseph P. McNamara and John Ro-cap, now Indianapolis lawyers; Leonard Riley, who has been engaged in radio work; Arnold Williams, professor of English at a South Carolina college, and Charles Retmeier, now deceased.

Gen. George Washington will be portrayed by Kenneth E. Yates at 8 p. m. Friday when the Scottish Rite players present "John Brent," a patriotic Masonic play at the Cathedral, 650 N. Meridian St.

The play concerns Gen. Washington's private espionage system composed primarily of men of the Masonic Order.

Prominent Masons of the City take leading roles in the play. They include Kenneth E. Yates, Crawford Barker, Carl F. White, Gene D. Wilcox and John Hobson. Otto W. Cox will read the prologue.

The play is open to all master Masons who present their Blue Lodge cards for admittance.

Valentine Dance

The young men and women with junior memberships in the Scottish Rite will hold a Valentine Dance Saturday at 9 p. m. The Danvers Julian Orchestra will play.

An open house will be held Feb. 27 at 8 p. m. for all Blue Lodge master Masons and their wives. Fifth Column Under Filipino Leadership And Financed by Japan Exposed in U. S.

growing. Already they are helping Japan by supplying information about movements of American troops and ships.

Recruits Sought

THEY ARE trying to recruit some of the Filipinos with whom the Navy lately replaced its Japanese cooks and messboys. They have their spies among the many Filipinos volunteering to fight the Japanese, and to work in munitions factories. There they are trying not only to sabotage or slow production, but also to steal weapons for "The Gang," all of whom are to be armed.

The new Fifth Column tries to recruit for its future ranks not only more Filipinos, but any and all possible men of Spanish blood, including Franco Spaniards, Puerto Rican Nationalists, Mexicans, Cubans. To fight Anglo-

MUNCIE MAN HEADS CLOTHIERS OF STATE

The Indiana Retail Clothiers and Furnishers Association elected Fee Ullem of Muncie president at the close of the annual two-day convention here yesterday.

Other officers named were M. A. Calvert, Bloomington, vice president; Harry P. Fletcher of Ft. Wayne and Paul Gilbert of South Bend, co-chairman of the board; Mrs. Rosemary Ballard, South Bend, secretary-treasurer; and Henry J. Bailey, Logansport; Frank Cannon, Greencastle; R. Duval, Winchester; A. R. Knoebel, Madison; and Roland Loehr, Richmond, all directors.

The Association adopted a resolution calling for curtailment of home deliveries by Indiana retail stores to one delivery a day in an effort to conserve rubber and rolling stock.

HOME CALL TOO FORCEFUL

PORT ARTHUR, Tex. (U. P.).—A middle-aged well-dressed Port Arthur woman was fined $50 for deliberately driving her automobile into the side of a liquor store. She told police she crashed into the building to leave the cafe next door and return home.

Saxon Liberalism, they plan to send spies to both the American and British West Indies, and there, here, everywhere, try to arouse the horrid spectre of race hatred.

Conceal Their Blows

ALREADY THEY are trying to inflame American Negroes against the whites. As catspaws of the Japanese, "The Gang" is reviving that German hope of 1917 which led to the capture of the notorious spy Pablo Waberski, while trying to stir up mutiny among Negro troops.

The plot failed dismally then, and would fail now, when the morale of the Negro troops is officially rated second to none.

They are clever at concealing their knife-thrusts at our war effort. There is one apparently quite harmless organization—a "social club." Like many such organizations in these polyglot, free United States, it "throws parties." Perfectly respectable parties, where young men and women of Filipino, Puerto Rican or other Latin American background can get together, dance and enjoy themselves.

But beneath the surface gaiety, members of "The Gang" are all eyes and ears to see or hear evidence of anti-American feeling that will betray a possible convert.

Sometimes the lure is the "Numbers racket," so popular among Latin-Americans. Tickets are sold in the darkened back rooms of Harlem dives by men who know how to make an intend tool rich or poor, as suits their purpose.

Just a Tiny Fraction

OR THE HUNTING ground may be the more aristocratic Franco Spanish organizations of the Falangistas still flourishing in this country. After Pearl Harbor, one pretended to cease operations—but it only pretended.

"The Gang" are malignant and devious and dark in their ways; but they are only a tiny fraction of our Filipino and Latin-American population, who are generally loyal and dependable. Already some of them, and some Negroes, are proving this by giving the authorities information about the new Fifth Column which should make possible its defeat without arousing hysteria.
