

In the Services— SEEK MEN FOR OFFICER SCHOOL

Selection Board Quizzes Fort's Applicants For Training.

A board of officers from the Headquarters of the Fifth Corps Area, was at Ft. Harrison today, to examine and select warrant officers and enlisted men to attend the Officers Candidate Schools. The board will remain at the Fort through Thursday.

Warrant officers and enlisted men who have achieved a rating of 110 in the general classification test are eligible to apply for admission to the officers schools. The board members are Lieut. Col. Ernest F. Dukes, Maj. Robert W. Copehan, Maj. Frederick E. Cain, Maj. Walter B. Lacock and Lieut. Russell H. Horton.

Repairs Rolling Stock

The Army utilized Robert L. Kirk's knowledge of machinery when he entered the service. He left a position as inspector at the Allison Division of General Motors Corp. to join the forces and was placed in the mechanical corps repairing the Army's rolling stock. Pvt. Kirk is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Kirk, 1108 S. Richland Ave., and he spent last Sunday with them on a short leave. He has returned to his station at Ft. Belvoir, Va. Pvt. Kirk attended Washington High School and has been in the service since last April.

HE COULD HITCH-HIKE

BERNE, Ind., Feb. 10 (U. P.).—Clarence Jones of Montana today knows exactly what a tire shortage is. While he was visiting his parents here, thieves stole two wheels and tires from his car. The tire rationing program makes no allowance for such happenings, and Mr. Jones may have to walk back to Montana.
