Spring Party of the Junior Assembly Will Be in Two Sections This Year

THE ANNUAL SPRING PARTY of the Junior Assembly will be a "double header" event this year. The evening of April 11, young members of the afternoon classes of the Assembly will have their party at the Marrott Hotel and on April 17, the high-school age dancing students will have a party at the same place.

In addition there will be a ballet recital the evening of April 24 at the Woman's Department Club. Date for the February dance of the Assembly has been changed from the 20th to 27th. It will be at the Woman's Department Club.

Final event of the regularly scheduled dances before the spring parties will be a supper dance, March 20, at the Indianapolis Athletic Club. The committee for this month's dance, announced by Mrs. William Byram Gates, sponsor, includes Misses Anne Caldwell, Juliann Hartley, Joelyn Lyda and Martha Scott; James Bash, William Nordyke, Wesley Hare and William Wainwright.

D. A. R. Sponsors Bridge Tea

A BENEFIT Valentine bridge tea will be given at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon by the finance and student loan committees of the Caroline Scott Harrison Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution. The party will be at the chapter house.

The committee in charge includes Mrs. Carl E. Onstad, finance committee chairman; Miss Corinne Welling, student loan committee chairman; Mesdames J. Francis Madden, Daniel S. Robinson and Grant C. Appel and Miss Florence Morrison.

The finance committee aids the chapter's national defense projects—both preparedness and war relief movements. For several months a Red Cross sewing unit has been working at the chapter house and a contribution of $50 has been given to the Red Cross.

Recently a $1000 defense bond was purchased by the chapter, and all members registered last June for home defense including such services as nursing, sewing, cooking and clerical work. Duplicate registration cards are on file at the national D. A. R. headquarters. The chapter also has contributed to the U. S. O. Six students now are being aided through the student loan committee and a seventh will be helped with proceeds of Friday's party.

A recent activity of the chapter is the organization of a unit working with Bundles for America with Mrs. William C. Harrison as chairman. In addition to these projects, chapter members are collecting canceled postage stamps from which dye is extracted and sold, the resulting funds being used to maintain beds for crippled children in a London hospital. Mrs. Hugh H. Hanna is chairman for the latter.

Exhibit Work of Mrs. Florence B. Smithburn

WORK OF Mrs. Florence Bartley Smithburn, a graduate of John Herron Art School and a native of New Augusta, is being shown at the Herron Museum this month in connection with the current exhibition of primitive African arts and crafts.

Returning from Central Africa recently for a visit, she brought with her a number of her paintings of the landscape and natives of the country in which she has been living since 1938. Her husband, Dr. Kenneth Smithburn, is with the Rockefeller Foundation.

The Museum has secured the paintings for exhibition for the month. They are hanging in the textile room, where the arts and crafts are displayed. The pictures were shown last month at the Art Students League Gallery in New York.

Mrs. Smithburn has become well acquainted with the natives of Uganda and the Belgian Congo, and her work portrays them at a number of their customary pursuits. Dr. and Mrs. Smithburn will return to Africa the latter part of this month.

Mrs. Donald A. Morrison will be hostess at 2:30 o'clock Friday afternoon in her home for the monthly meeting of the Over the Teacups Club. The program will include a talk, "The Deep South in Literature," by Mrs. E. R. Shoemaker.

We, the Women— Some Things We Can Do Without

By RUTH MILLETT

NOW THAT AMERICA is at war and even the most frivolous among us has had to face the fact that sad and serious times are before us all, we can dispense with:

Pictures of women whose interest in defense is just strong enough to get them to some committee meeting in time to have their pictures taken.

All mention of Tommy Manville, his wives and his ex-wives.

All the phoney stories cooked up by press agents that link some dumb, blonde actress' name and bathing-suit-clad figure—with the war effort.

All and any stunts that tie up commercial products improperly with the war effort—such as being the first to put sandbags around your night club in a midwestern city for the sole purpose of getting your night club's name in the paper.

All and any news about the doings of Cafe Society.

All pictures of bathing beauties lined up on the boardwalk in a V-for-Victory pattern to publicize your resort hotel.

All nominations of the glamorous girl of the year.

All nominations of best dressed women.

The "cute" note in feminine styles.

DETAILS of the doings of over-publicized young heiresses who are having such a tough time keeping within their thousands-of-dollars-a-week budgets.

In normal times we could take quite a lot of such silly business. But these times are not normal. And so-called funny business like this is decidedly bad taste—and a bit nauseating to boot.
