RELIEVED BY RETONGA CAN EAT WITHOUT FEAR FIRST TIME IN YEARS

Muscular Pains and Sluggish Elimination Also Promptly Relieved, States Henderson Home Owner. Discusses Case to Help Others.

MR. ISAAC N. BAKER

According to the grateful and voluntary evidence of well-known men and women, the noted herbal and Vitamin B-1 medicine, Retonga, is bringing prompt relief to thousands of sufferers from the distress of nervous indigestion, undigestion, loss of appetite, toxic aches and pains in the muscles and joints from sluggish bowels, weak, rundown feeling, sleeplessness, loss of weight and strength and similar debilitating symptoms resulting from insufficient flow of digestive juices in the stomach, the toxic effects of constipation, and need of Vitamin B-1 for digestion, nerves and strength. Among the thousands throughout this section giving Retonga their strong public endorsement is Mr. Isaac N. Baker, well-known home owner of 524 S. Elm St., Henderson, Ky. Mr. Baker has been with the Eckert Packing Co. for twenty years, is a staunch member of the Christian Church, and is esteemed for his sterling character by his hundreds of friends.

"For about five years I suffered so much distress from indigestion that I hardly dared touch solid foods at all," declared Mr. Baker. "So much gas formed in my stomach that often I felt like I was being torn apart. Constipation was another trouble and I felt full of acids and poisons and had severe pains in my legs. My sleep did not seem to rest me and I felt so nervous, weak, and rundown that I hardly knew what would become of me."

If the first bottle of this noted herbal gastric tonic and Vitamin B-1 medicine fails to bring you gratifying relief its small cost will be refunded. Retonga may be obtained at all Hook's Dependable Drug Stores. $1.25 size, $1.00.

CHURCH SEEKS $150,000 FUND

Evangelical and Reformed War Relief Campaign Mapped by Board.

A drive to raise $150,000 for war relief by Dec. 31 was started today by 30,000 members of the National Board Churchmen's Brotherhood of the Evangelical and Reformed Church.

The Board, which closed a two-day meeting at St. John's Church this noon, has two other primary objectives.

By July 1 the organization hopes to have $2500 in its Army Chaplains' Fund.

"Boys Work," similar to the Boy Scouts, is the continuous objective. "Being a Big Brother to a Boy" is their motto. Junior Brotherhoods are in operation and men of the senior group act as parole agents for first offenders in juvenile courts.

Mass Meeting Held

This year added attention will be given to men in the service.

A mass meeting for men from 20 churches in the district was held at St. John's last night.

Talks were given by Dr. E. S. Fretz, president of the board, Collegeville, Pa.; Martin Zeier, first vice president, St. Louis; Joe Wetzel, second vice president, Edwardsville, Ill.; the Rev. Charles Freeman, associate executive secretary, Doylestown, Pa.; E. J. Westerbeck, executive secretary, St. Louis; Paul Debs, department chairman, Milwaukee, and Louie Fansalow, treasurer, Chicago.

A sister, Miss Florence Coffin, who lived with Mrs. Dunn, is the only immediate survivor.

Minnie A. Dunn Dead on Coast

SERVICES were to be held this afternoon in Beverly Hills, Cal., for Mrs. Minnie Alice Coffin Dunn, who died Monday in her home.

Mrs. Dunn, born in Indianapolis, was widely known as a wood carver and needle worker. She had been awarded gold medals at both the Chicago and St. Louis World Fairs.

She was a member of the Beverly Hills Presbyterian Church, the New York Mayflower Society, and founder of the Indiana Mayflower organization.

A sister, Miss Florence Coffin, who lived with Mrs. Dunn, is the only immediate survivor.

J. R. BENHAM DEAD; ORGANIZED UTILITIES

A pioneer southern Indiana utility organizer, Jesse R. Benham, died yesterday at the home of a daughter, Mrs. S. Z. Keller, 3202 Park Ave. He was 83.

In 1907 he helped organize the Clay City Light Co., and earlier he had worked in a sawmill and was a partner in a lumber company. In 1910 he withdrew from business and began farming near Clay City.

A County Commissioner for five years, he was the brother of the late John S. Benham, Congressman from the old Fourth Indiana District.

Other survivors are two sons, George G. of Oxford and Fred R. of this city; two daughters, Mrs. Don Harvey of Tarkio, Mo., and Mrs. Jesse E. Lawson of Harmony; three brothers, Alexander W. and Silas E. of Crothersville and James W. of Salem; 18 grandchildren, and eight great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at the First Presbyterian Church in Clay City. Burial will be in Union Chapel Cemetery.

FACES 2D CHARGE OF FAILING TO REGISTER

BOSTON, Feb. 11 (U. P.)—Henry C. Eastman, 36, who wants to "live in peace and be left alone by the Government," was held in $5000 after his second arrest for failing to register for the draft.

When arraigned before a U. S. Commissioner, Eastman said he "never heard of Pearl Harbor" and contended that "a good strong letter to Hitler could have averted this war."

Eastman, an itinerant artist, has served nine months in a penitentiary for failing to comply with the Selective Service law and now faces the second charge.
