

ON THE RADIO TONIGHT

TONIGHT
7:30—Aldrich Family, WIRE.
8:00—Music Hall, WIRE.
8:00—Town Meeting, WISH.

Bridgeman Mickey Rooney will receive a new assignment tonight when he takes over the job of master of ceremonies on Bing Crosby's "Music Hall" while the latter is participating in golf tournaments for the benefit of the Red Cross.

Guests of the brash young MGM star tonight will be Maureen O'Sullivan, Victor Mature and Igor Gorin. He will handle Bing's job for two weeks, singing duets with Mary Martin and crooning a hit himself. Naturally, he will bring along his drums for a few sessions of his own. The program is broadcast on WIRE at 8 o'clock.

WIBC and WISH will broadcast the banquet from the Claypool Hotel tonight in honor of the Indianapolis Indians and their new manager, Gabby Harnett. George Troutman, president of the American Association, will be the principal speaker, and Harry Geisel, American League umpire, will act as master of ceremonies. WIBC will carry the program from 9:15 o'clock.

What's This?
It's 36 feet of intestines—5 or 6 times the length of your body, thru which everything you eat must pass. Nature usually needs no help, but the wrong food, or too much of it, can cause temporary blockage (constipation) with aggravating gas, headaches, listlessness or bad breath. ADLERKA, with its 6 carminative and 3 laxative ingredients, relieves gas quickly and gets bowel action surprisingly fast. Ask your druggist for ADLERKA.

AROUND THE DIAL—Some future day, students, educators, historians and journalists may gather in a little 52d St. office building in New York. The reason is that there, in the NBC record library, are almost 100,000 transcriptions of President Roosevelt's discussion of the Pearl Harbor attack, Adolf Hitler's denunciation of Britain, Winston Churchill's encouragements to his people, Pope Pius leading his flock in prayer and Gen. De Gaulle bitterly attacking Vichy. . . . Chest-er Lauck, "Lum" of "Lum and Abner," has shipped his prize race-horse, "Lum's Pride," to Oaklawn Park in Arkansas where it will race in the Arkansas Derby. . . . Trudy Erwin, singer on Kay Kyser's show, had a date with an NBC engineer at the Hollywood marriage license bureau recently. The wedding will be some time in the spring. . . . Sonja Stokowski, daughter of Leopold Stokowski, is scheduled for an appearance on "Grand Central Station" tomorrow night. . . . "The Aldrich Family" has been named the outstanding commercial radio program in the Annual Advertising Awards recently announced. The program succeeds to an honor held in recent years by Jack Benny, Information Please and Fibber McGee and Molly.
