

In the Services— INDIANA POLICE TRAINING M. P.

Instruction at Ft. Harrison
Supplemented; Detective
Gives Talk.

The military police at Ft. Harrison are receiving training from the Indiana State Police Department in addition to their regular Army instruction.

Detective Fred Foster of the Connersville post lectured to the police battalion recently on hand to hand combat and self defense.

Trains on West Coast

Paul Arnold may not be seeing the world with the Navy but he is getting a good look at a big section of the United States.

Paul Arnold

Seaman Arnold is 22 and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth V. Arnold of Thayer, Ind. He is the brother of Mrs. Lorraine Bulger, 305 N. Walcott St. He lived at the home of his sister a short time before entering the service.

Officers will be elected at a meeting of fathers, mothers and wives of enlisted men of the 17th Division of Organized U. S. Naval Reserves Sunday afternoon.

The meeting will be at 2 o'clock in the War Memorial. Mrs. Mabel L. Brancos, 2621 Allen Ave., mother of one of the men in the division, is in charge of organizing the club.

Aboard Battleship

Edward L. Fries is aboard one of the Navy's "battleships" somewhere on sea duty.

He had been a member of the Navy reserves for two years before being inducted last May. He is 22, a graduate of Manual High School and the son of Mrs. Frieda Fries, 1441 Charles St. Seaman Fries worked in the Big Four roundhouse as a boilermaker and welder for a time.

Edward Fries

Jack H. Schernekau has enlisted in the Army and is now stationed at Ft. Harrison for primary training. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul G. Schernekau, 4740 E. 71st St.

Pvt. Harlan A. Crouch Jr. was recently graduated from the Chute Field branch of the Army Air Corps Technical Schools. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Crouch, 401 S. Arlington Ave.

'Honest Abe' Sure Would Like This

HOW "HONEST ABE" Lincoln was honored on his birthday by "Honest Alie" Harding was told today by Rosemary Horn, 6050 E. 9th St.

Miss Horn lost a small coin purse containing $25 last July near Shadeland Drive and 21st St. Mr. Harding, custodian at Pleasant Run School, found the purse Wednesday in a field near the spot where Miss Horn missed it. Tracing her through social security stubs in the purse, Mr. Harding delivered the purse to Miss Horn yesterday.

Miss Horn, receptionist and continuity writer at WISH, will use the money to buy a Defense Bond.
