

TECH PUPILS GET ONLY WAR FACTS

Special Bulletins Issued; Aviation Expert Talks On Far East.

The new war facts committee at Technical High School has but one objective—"to see that nothing but the truth is spoken at Tech about the war."

Members of the committee, who also are faculty members, will edit a special bi-weekly bulletin containing true facts concerning the war. Committee members are C. S. Stewart, chairman; D. C. Park, O. S. Flick, Miss Ruth Stone and Miss Annalee Webb.

Aviation Expert Speaks

Kent Sagendorph, aviation journalist and a member of the staff of Aero Digest, was to speak before a group of pupils today.

Mr. Sagendorph who has served with the third Pursuit at Manila, is familiar with Japan, Korea and Siberia, and was to discuss the Far East situation.

Pupils and teachers ended their Victory Book campaign with a total of 1010 books—10 over their goal. Miss Louise Mann, head of the school library, was in charge.

STUDY DEFENSE AT SHORTRIDGE

Seniors Offered Courses in Precision Instruments, Blue Print Reading.

Shortridge High School is co-operating in the defense training field by offering to members of the '42 graduating class several courses in blue print reading and precision instruments.

A course is also scheduled in machine calculation.

Debate Squad Loses

The debating squad at Shortridge met its first inter-scholastic defeat of the semester this week to Annabelle Simmons and Emma Laskey of Washington High School.

However, Myron Gustavus Phillips of Wabash College said that the outstanding individual performance of the debate was by Elizabeth Josey, Shortridge speaker. The decision was given to Washington on its "excellent work."

CLASS AT BEN DAVIS BUILDS FA. M TOOLS

The vocational agriculture department of Ben Davis High School is pointing toward the future.

In each class special stress is placed on how to make repairs of tools and machinery. Recently one boy became interested in soldering and he built a supercharger for his car.

Others of the class have been repairing farm machinery and building poultry equipment. Three hog houses have been constructed. The shop is equipped with two forges and facilities for wood and metal work.

The Ben Davis High School P-T. A. will sponsor a card party at 8 p. m. Feb. 23 at Municipal Gardens.

Spanish Club to Dance

The Spanish Club of Ben Davis High School will sponsor a Valentine dance tonight at the school. Invitations have been sent to Spanish Clubs in Indianapolis and Marion County schools.

At the intermission a Spanish dance will be given by Bernadine Cook. Betty Scott will sing. Norma Ashley will play an accordion solo.

Members of the dance committee are Marjorie Vance, Robert Baker, Jo Ann Haywood, Richard Wright, Walter Bushey, Dorothy Bowman, Becky Rowlinson, Leonard Williams, Louise Morris, Lillian Gibson, Virginia Saters, Ted Miller and Ethyl Huffman. John Carthy and his Serenaders will furnish the music.

Summer 4-H plans were discussed at a meeting of the Sew and Sprout Club of Ben Davis High School recently.

The next meeting of the Senatus Polulusque Romanus, Latin Club of Ben Davis High School, will be March 19.
