DIES 'BUNGLED JOB', C. I. O. LEADER SAYS

Rep. Martin Dies 'has bungled the job' of ferreting out the subversive elements in America, Walter Fribis, secretary-treasurer of the Indiana C. I. O., charged today.

Mr. Fribis made the charge in explaining the C. I. O.'s position on the proposal for continuance of the congressional committee on un-American activities headed by the Texan.

"The Indiana C. I. O. has never opposed genuine investigations of subversive activities," he said. "It has continued to oppose granting Congressmen Dies a further charter to gratuitous publicity."

"Mr. Dies has never investigated the enemies of our country. He has harassed and persecuted union leaders and organizations."

SERVICES TO STRESS VICTORY-BY-PRAYER

Victory-through-prayer services will be held nightly in the Phillips Temple C. M. E. church beginning at 8 tonight.

The Barnes Methodist church and the 17th Street Baptist church sponsor the services. The Rev.

Robert E. Skelton is pastor of the Methodist and the Rev. M. W. Edwards is pastor of the Baptist church.
