

I. U. Loses; Purdue Wins, And Iowa Takes Over Second Place

Boilermakers
Beat Michigan
And Tie for 3d

Times Special
ANN ARBOR, Mich., March 3.—Purdue's Boilermakers, by virtue of a 52 to 41 victory over Michigan here last night, are in a three-way tie for third place in the Big 10.

Led by Frosty Sprawl, the Lafayette men put on a great rally to knock over the Wolverines after being on the short end of a 40 to 20 score with 13 minutes left to play.

The Boilermakers were behind, 28 to 22, at the half, and lagged for the third quarter, but with the count 11 points against them, Sprawl threw in three straight fielders to give them the break they were looking for.

Michigan's Last Point
Michigan's Doyle got the Wolverines' last point on a free throw and then Sprawl hit again. Mickey Tierney and Capt. Don Blanken hitiders and the score was tied at all.

From that point on, Purdue made the easy way, throwing the book at the Wolverines. Menke put in three buckets in a row and John Conrad and Tierney counted once each again to make it a virtual run-away.

Early in the game, the two teams played evenly, with the score tied at 6-all, 8-all and 12-all. But Michigan forged ahead on buckets by Holman.

Purdue hopes to make it a fairly successful season—if any season could be without winning the conference title—by winning Illinois to a fare-thee-well at Champaign in the finale next Saturday.

Overlin Gets Draw

CINCINNATI, O., March 3 (U.P.)—Ezzard Charles, 20-year-old Cincinnati Negro, and Ken Overlin, former world middleweight champion, battled to a 10-round draw last night in their light heavyweight fight.

'Pep' Pills for Junior Circuit

By TOMMY DEVINE

CHICAGO, March 3 (U.P.)—The University of Iowa basketball team, which has played in tough luck all season, claimed a measure of revenge today for past disappointments.

Iowa upset the Big Ten's newly crowned champions, Illinois, 46 to 32, last night at Iowa City before a crowd of 13,500 fans, the largest ever to see a game in the Hawk's fieldhouse. The victory was Iowa's 10th against four defeats and gave it an 8-12 record in the conference race.

Coach Doug Mills of Illinois started a quintet of reserve players against Iowa and these second stringers piled up a 23 to 16 advantage by half-time. At the start of the second period, the Illinois regulars took the floor but flashed none of the brilliance that carried them to the title.

With Tom Chapman and Ben Trickey leading the attack, the Hawkeyes hit a sizzling scoring pace in the final period and raced into the lead. When Iowa piled up a 32 to 27 advantage, Coach Mills withdrew his regulars and put the reserves back into action.

Chapman and Trickey each scored 12 points for Iowa, while Charley Fowler of Illinois garnered 14 points. Iowa's four conference defeats came by the scant total of 12 points as Illinois trimmed the Hawks 42 to 35 in their first meeting and the other setbacks were at the hands of Minnesota 41 to 39; Ohio State 54 to 52 and Purdue 45 to 44.

The previous limit of seven night games for each club was waived this season in a line with a request by President Roosevelt when he gave baseball the "green light" for wartime operation. Chicago, St. Louis, Cleveland and Philadelphia each will play 14 nocturnal contests at home and the Washington Senators 21 games.

Dates for the two all-star contests have been set as Monday, July 6, for the eastern game with New York the likely site and Tuesday, July 7, for the western game with Cleveland the tentative choice.

After 10 years in retirement, Miller emerged in 1934 breaking his first 200 targets in the Grand American. In 1937 he won the amateur clay target title with 200 straight and tied for the amateur doubles. In 1939 he collected the Grand American all-round title with 880 out of 900.
