

In the Services— REFUSES RAISE, JOINS THE NAVY

R. L. Allen of Allison's Followed Example of His Father.

Raymond Lee Allen, not yet registered in the draft, turned down a pay increase on his job as inspector at the Allison engineering division of General Motors Corp., and joined the navy.

He is the son of Hubert Allen, 1028 Windsor st., who served as a boat-swain's mate in the last war and who recently volunteered for civil service construction work at Pearl Harbor.

Expert With Rifle

It didn't take Pvt. Robert L. Fahrback long to learn how to shoot a rifle.

He's been in the service only eight weeks but in a recent competition at Ft. Leonard Wood, Mo., he was one of the two men who qualified in rifle marksmanship out of 600 soldiers.

Pvt. Fahrback, the son of Albert Fahrback, 1455 S. Lyndhurst drive, is with the engineering replacement training center at Ft. Wood and will complete his basic training there Friday.

He has been home on furlough over the week-end and went back to camp yesterday. Pvt. Fahrback is a graduate of Ben Davis high school and a former employee of the Schwitzer-Cummins Co. here.

You Can Help AMERICA

When You Travel!

by going in MID-WEEK to ease WEEK-END congestion

War-time conditions tend to crowd transportation facilities on week-ends when soldiers and war workers travel. You can aid by going places during the mid-week when possible, and by getting tickets and travel information in advance. Going by Greyhound, you'll be saving your car and tires, saving money for the American needs. And you'll be saving money for Defense Bonds at low Super-Coach fares!

R. C. A. F. Flier Pays Visit Here

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Spangler, 368 S. Woodrow ave., and their daughter, Miss Mary Gardner, were host to a member of the Royal Canadian Air Force the past week.

The flier was William Kennedy, who is stationed at Alymer, Canada. His home is in Ottawa.

Mr. Kennedy has been friends of the Spanglers and Miss Gardner for several years. He left yesterday for his post.

NAVY CLUB TO HOLD SECOND MEETING

The U. S. S. Indianapolis No. 42, navy club, will hold a "launching meeting" at 8 p. m. tomorrow in the war memorial. It will be the first meeting of the local unit since its installation March 15.

The club was formed with 75 men, former members of the navy, marine corps or coast guard, as charter members. Howard Caldwell is commander. Other executive men of these three branches are eligible for membership.

Eleven Indianapolis men who have enlisted at the local army recruiting station are awaiting assignments at Ft. Harrison today. The men are:

Francis M. Huntsinger, 224 W. Ohio st.; Paul Myers, 1851 S. East

Place Soldiers On Mailing List

THE WHEELER CITY rescue mission is seeing to it that soldiers don't go without mail from home.

The young people's department each Sunday posts an honor roll of names of boys from mission families and also those with no relatives here. The names are assigned to volunteer writers, who send a letter and enclose some mission literature.

st.: Loys W. Branderburg, 3819 Graceland ave.; William Dicken, 235 W. McCarty st.; Clinton R. Martin, 238 W. Wyoming st.; Clyde D. Crosby, Beech Grove; Joseph N. Gehl, 3926 Graceland ave.; Jay E.
