SAYS ALL HUNTERS ARE NOT SPORTSMEN

TORONTO, April 9.—Hunters are not all sportsmen, Mrs. C. N. Edge, chairman of the emergency conservation committee, declared this morning before the meeting here of the seventh North American wildlife conference.

"We looked in Webster's dictionary," said Mrs. Edge, "and we read: Sportsman: One who in sports is fair and generous." After that, the speaker added, the committee applied the word "sportsman" only to those whose attitude qualified them for the high estimate implied in the definition. Mrs. Edge urged a closed season on waterfowl, declaring that one closed season would accomplish more than five seasons of limited shooting.
