

THAT'S HIS PRIVILEGE
 PHILADELPHIA, June 4 (U. P.).—An unidentified man, his face red with rage, stamped six blocks down dignified Chestnut st. last night, buying newspapers headlining the Japanese raid on Dutch Harbor and tearing them into shreds. Police said he was within his rights.

Times Special
 WASHINGTON, June 4.—Top-flight federal experts have testified that the national youth administration training for war industry doesn't turn out any first class mechanics and largely is illusory. This testimony appears in the hearings before the house appropriations subcommittee made public with the presentation of the 1943 appropriation bill for the labor department and federal security agency. William F. Patterson, chief of apprenticeship, who has had the longest experience in this field of anyone in Washington, was closely questioned regarding the value of the NYA shops. Closely questioned by Representative Frank B. Keefe (R. Wis.), Mr. Patterson admitted that NYA trained youth "still need some training after they go on the job." Mrs. Clara M. Beyer, assistant director of apprenticeship, later supplemented this by saying: "About 90 per cent of all training has to be done on the job. That is the figure pretty generally accepted." President Roosevelt wanted to appropriate $51,000,000 to keep these NYA shops going.

BIKE RIDER KILLED
 WASHINGTON, Ind., June 4 (U. P.).—Edward Lawrence Bates, youthful bicycle rider of Farina, Ill., was killed late last night on Road 50, three miles west of here, when he was struck from behind by an automobile.
