

HOOSIERDOM TO HONOR ITS 15,000 NAVY MEN

PARADE TO MARK OBSERVANCE HERE

Chief of Naval Personnel to Speak at Tuesday Luncheon; Recruits to Be Sworn in During Circle Ceremony; Troops to Participate.

Since the Japs "asked for it" on that day last December, Hoosiers of the good, dry land of Indiana have taken to the navy like ducks to water.

Many a sun-tanned Hoosier boy who thought the gravel pit down the road was a pretty good-sized expanse of water, has seen the sea for the first time—and made a crack sailor. From Dec. 7 through Oct. 22, there have been 15,269 of them.

For that, and a lot of other reasons, Indiana has a big stake in Navy day next Tuesday.

Highlight of the celebration, first of its kind since the war, will be the address of Rear Admiral Randall Jacobs, chief of navy personnel. The rear admiral will address about 500 civic leaders, heads of patriotic societies and officers of the army, marines and navy at a noon luncheon in the Columbia club ballroom.

At 3:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, Rear Admiral Jacobs will swear in a group of recruits on Monument Circle.

At a similar ceremony last year, Admiral Chester W. Nimitz officiated as thousands of Indianapolis citizens looked on. Now Admiral Nimitz is commander-in-chief of the Pacific fleet.

At 7:30 o'clock, Homer Capehart, county Navy day chairman, will stage a Navy day torchlight parade through downtown streets, with an estimated 35,000 in the line of march.

The parade route—Assembly at St. Clair and Pennsylvania sts. South to Washington st. West to Meridian st. North to North st. West to Illinois st., dispersal.

Public is invited. L. T. Dwyer, state Navy day chairman, said that the luncheon at the Columbia club will be open to the public. Tickets are on sale at the chamber of commerce, co-sponsor of the affair with the Navy League of the United States.

Naval officers at the speakers' table will be Capt. G. P. Kraker, officer-in-charge of the naval ordnance plant here; Comm. R. H. G. Matthews, Indiana recruiting officer; Lieut. Comm. L. F. Brown, commander of the naval armory here; Lieut. Comm. S. B. Smith, resident inspector of naval material; Lieut. H. C. Sigtenhorst, commander of the Butler university naval signal school, and Lieut. Neil C. Russell, officer-in-charge of naval officer procurement here.

Army officers at the table will be Maj. Gen. Frank W. Milburn, commander of Camp Atterbury; Brig. Gen. Fred S. Borum, commander of Stout field; Col. F. D. Lynch, commander of the army storage depot at the fairgrounds; Col. Walter S. Drysdale, commander of Ft. Harrison; and Col. Martin Ray.

Represents Marines. Capt. Ralph E. Boulton, officer-in-charge of marine recruiting in Indiana, will represent the marines at the speakers' table.

Other guests will be Governor Schriker, Mayor Sullivan, Roane Warrick, American Legion commander; Robert T. Merrill, Veterans of Foreign Wars national commander, and Eugene Pulliam, state war bond head.

C. Walter McCarthy, of the Indianapolis News, will be master of ceremonies.

The speaker, Rear Admiral Jacobs, commanded a destroyer for force and anti-submarine detachment during the first war and did a hitch aboard the old battleship, the U. S. S. Indiana. He has been decorated four times: The Cuban Pacification medal, the Victory Medal and Destroyer Clasp, world war I; the Yangtze service medal for evacuation of Americans from China's upper Yangtze valley in 1927, and the defense service medal with the Atlantic fleet clasp.

"No Gas, No Rubber" The Navy day parade, a "no gas, no rubber" affair, will consist of seven divisions and reports will be the largest display of armed might and civilian patriotism to be made here since the outbreak of the war.

Troops from Ft. Harrison, Camp Atterbury and representatives of the army supply depot at the fairgrounds will join with men of the marine recruiting station and blue-jackets from the naval training schools in the line of march. William E. Reilly is marshal of the military division.

Division two, under the marshaling of William E. Munk, will include the state, county and city civilian defense units. Also in the division will be the state guard, boy scouts, civilian air patrol, war bond representatives, OOD motor corps members, air raid wardens, auxiliary firemen and policemen, Red Cross units and USO and service men's clubs representatives.

Lab will comprise another division, with Clyde McCormick, marshal of the A. F. of L. unit and Thomas Wilson the C. I. O.

Waring to Be Present. James C. Aher, marshal of the American Legion units, and Clarence Hull, marshal of the Veterans of Foreign War group in division five, have announced that all their posts and color guards will participate. Commander Waring of the American Legion has agreed to participate and Mr. Merrill, commander of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, is expected to be present.

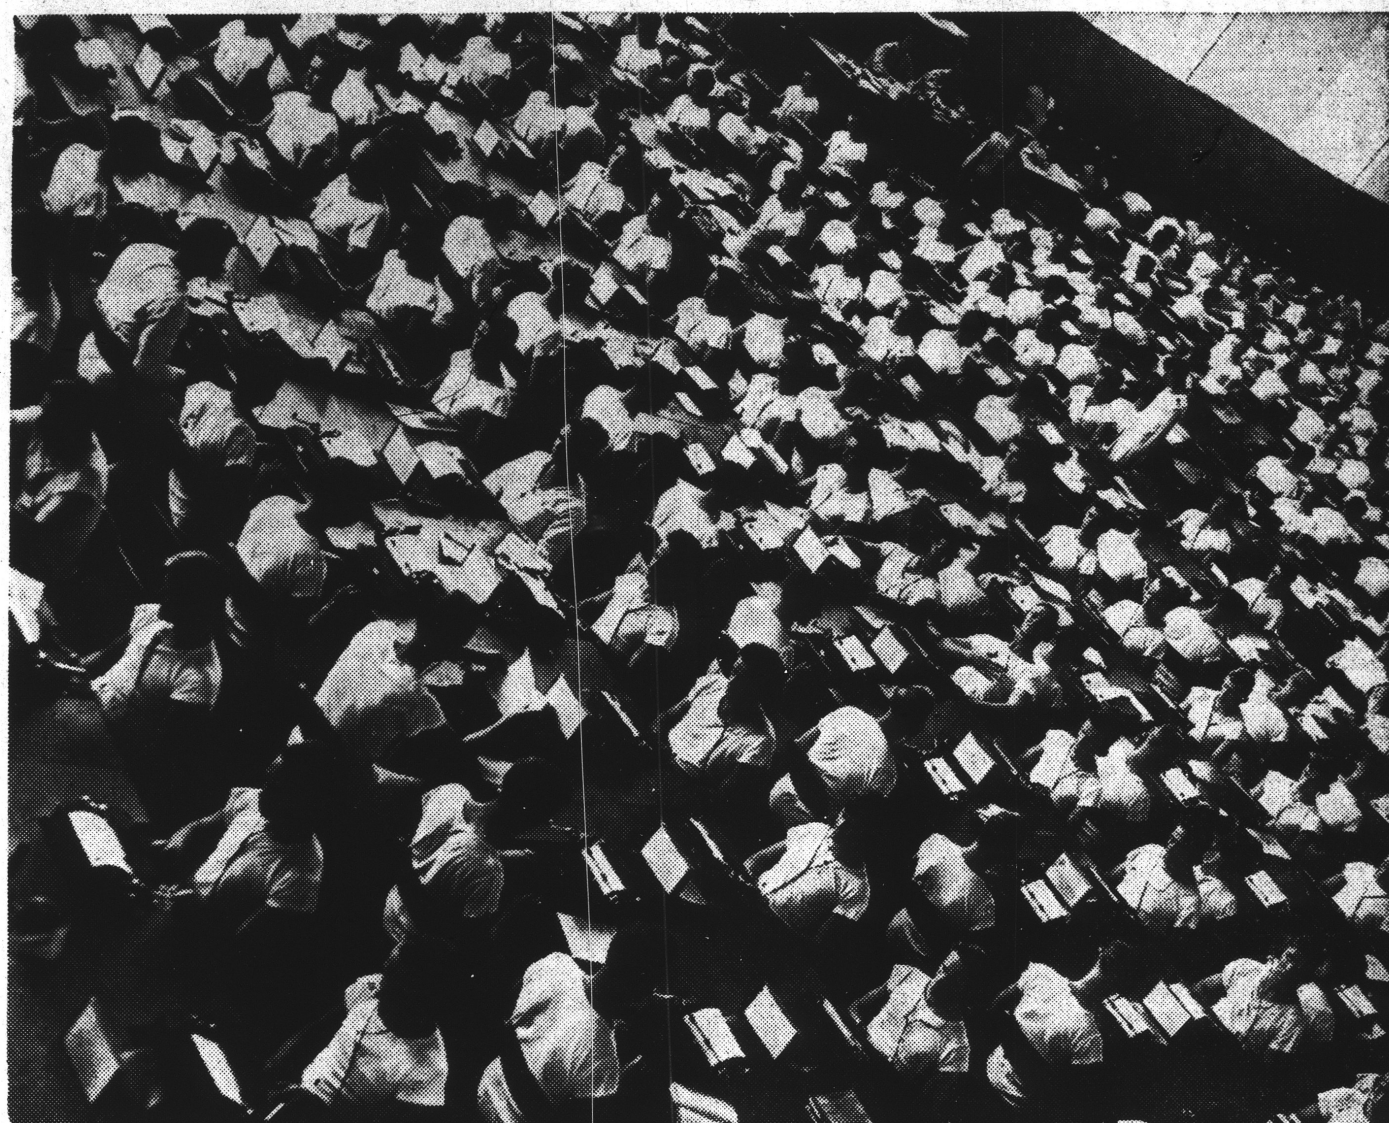

A fraternal division will be under the direction of Z. W. Leach and Joseph Speaks and most of the fraternal organizations are expected to be represented.

A horse division will be drawn up.

Study Navy's Insignia . . . New Radio Operators are Eager for Duty . . .

At the navy recruiting station officers describe insignia to prospective enlistees.

Hundreds of young men are being graduated as full-fledged radio operators. Here they are, attending radio school at the big naval armory on the White River. They're all eager for duty.

9 HALLOWEEN PARTIES SET

City Park Department Arranges Events in City.

Nine Halloween parties are included among activities planned by the city recreation department at community centers next week.

A dance will be held at 8:30 p. m. next Saturday at the Northeast center with 50 soldiers attending as the guests of the Northeast cadets.

A Halloween frolic for adults, with 60 per cent of all receipts going to the USO, is planned at the Rhodius community center Friday night at 8 o'clock and Christian park community center will be the scene of a dance the same night at 7:30 o'clock under the sponsorship of 4-H girls.

Another dance for young people is planned at the South Side center Thursday night at 8 o'clock with Pat Kelley, president of the South Side Youth Council, in charge.

Children's parties will be held at Hill center Friday at 4 p. m.; Ray Street center Friday at 3 p. m. Northwestern center, next Saturday at 4 p. m.; Rhodius park Thursday at 3:30 p. m., and Municipal Gardens Friday at 4 p. m. Principals and members of the parent-teacher associations at Flackville and school 75 are assisting in arrangements for the Municipal Gardens party.

OFFICIAL WEATHER

U. S. Weather Bureau
Central War Time
Sunrise.....7:05	Sunset.....5:33
TEMPERATURE
Oct. 24, 1942—
7 a. m.....41	2 p. m.....56
Precipitation 24 hrs. ending 7:30 a. m.
Totals precipitation since Jan. 1.....2.27
Excess since Jan. 1.....2.27
The following table shows the temperatures in other cities:
Atlanta.....72	High 74
Boston.....71	Low 54
Chicago.....47	Low 25
Cleveland.....48	Low 25
Denver.....33	Low 21
El Paso.....49	Low 26
Frankfurt.....49	Low 26
Los Angeles.....49	Low 26
Miami.....49	Low 26
Minneapolis.....49	Low 26
New Orleans.....49	Low 26
New York.....49	Low 26
Oakland.....49	Low 26
Omaha.....49	Low 26
Pittsburgh.....49	Low 26
San Antonio.....49	Low 26
St. Louis.....49	Low 26
Washington, D. C.....49	Low 26

Myers Invites Voter Analysis

JUDGE DEWEY E. MYERS, Democratic candidate for mayor, declared in an address at the South Side Turners hall last night that the Democratic candidates welcome a critical analysis by the voters.

"We are convinced," he said, "that we will win an overwhelming victory at the polls if such an analysis is made."

"In my candidacy for mayor, I have based my campaign on one theme—I love Indianapolis. I want to serve it well and to protect its good name. I would not seek this high honor if I were not convinced in my own mind that my experience gained in public office these last 11 years has equipped me to serve well."

CANDIDATES GIVEN LEAGUE SUPPORT

A group of men calling themselves "The Good Government League" today announced their indorsements of candidates for the state legislature from Marion county and for the Indianapolis city council.

Indorsed for the state senate were Roy Moore, Republican; joint senator—Robert E. Kirby, Democrat; state representatives—Alva Baxter, Harry W. Claffey, Lloyd D. Claycomb, Nellie B. Downey, Wilbur H. Grant and J. Otto Lee, Republicans; and Ronald B. Coapstick, George H. Herrmann, Herbert H. McClelland, Modessa B. Parr and Judson H. West, Democrats; joint representative—Ross J. Moore, Democrat.

For city council—John A. Schumaker, Edward R. Keating and Herman E. Bowers, Republicans; and William B. Sullivan, Arthur C. Paetz and Carl Vestal, Democrats.

Heading the group making the indorsements are Caleb M. Adams, president; Louis W. Heagy, secretary; Robert F. Shepherd and Vernon L. Cole.

Mr. Heagy said the indorsements were made on a bi-partisan basis to "lessen partisan politics and to effect more unity in our efforts to win the war."

AUSSIE AD PLEASSED

CANBERRA, Oct. 24 (U. P.).—Australian Naval Secretary N. O. J. Makin today expressed gratification over a report that the United States would adopt the name Canberra for a cruiser.

PROTECTION FOR SCHOOLS URGED

Candidates of Citizens Committee Promise to Guard Standards.

Ward and precinct workers for the Citizens school committee heard three of the Citizens candidates pledge to maintain the school system's present high standards, or improve them if possible, at an organization meeting in the Fletcher Trust building last night.

Mrs. Eldo I. Wagner promised on behalf of all candidates "to give the best service that five persons can give."

"Children in our public schools," she said, "are our responsibility. If elected we will pledge to accept the responsibility of providing proper school and playground facilities, good teachers, and we will do our utmost to keep the present high standards of our school system, or improve them if possible."

Clarence Farrington, another candidate urged workers to impress it upon citizens to back the Citizens ticket "to give our children the best possible opportunity along educational lines."

Might Have Saved Europe "If European school systems had been maintained," he said, "along the same standards as we know them in this country—and in Indianapolis especially—there wouldn't be the bunch of raving maniacs that all are over there."

Dr. Harry G. Mayer, the committee's outside candidate said, "The best we can give our school children is none too good. This board, if elected, will face many difficult problems, and will meet many wartime emergencies."

To help meet these unusual emergencies, Dr. Mayer said that if he were elected he would solicit the aid of the board of health, the board of safety and park board for the well-being of the school children.

Other citizens school committee candidates who did not attend last night's meeting are Edgar A. Perkins and Howard S. Young.

Harry R. Champ, committee secretary, answered the criticism that Citizens school committee candidates were "hand picked." He explained how the final five were selected from a suggested list of more than 200 Indianapolis citizens.

"We follow a strict set of standards," he said. "First, we sponsor persons of integrity, honesty and with the ability of getting a job done. We think the board should be made up of fathers and mothers who have, or have had, children in Indianapolis public schools. Our candidates are selected geographically and all sections of the city are represented."

"As a committee, we are non-partisan politically, and our participation is worked out in order that there would be the proper political balance. The system has worked well as is shown by the records of the past three boards sponsored by the Citizens school committee."

CLAIM EDEN-WINANT FACT ISTANBUL, Oct. 24 (U. P.).—The German-controlled Turkish Post said today that British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden and John G. Winant, American ambassador to England, had signed an agreement in April dividing the middle east into British and United States spheres of influence.

LAVELLE FUNERAL TO BE HELD MONDAY

Funeral services for Thomas A. Lavelle, who died yesterday at his home, 522 N. Gray st., will be held Monday at 8:30 a. m. at the home and at 9 a. m. in St. Philip Neri church. He was 69.

A native of Richmond, Mr. Lavelle came to Indianapolis 35 years ago. Survivors are his wife, Flora; and a son, John; three daughters, Lucy, Florence and Nancy; two brothers and four sisters.

STRAUSS SAYS: WHAT'S COOKIN'?

Vol. 1—No. 15 Saturday Oct. 24, 1942

Dear Fellows—

THINGS REALLY were cookin' this week-end, what with 16,000 schoolmarm here for their annual convention. . . . Guess there were a few Hoosier schoolmasters here, too. . . . Gosh, those schoolmarm seem to get cuter every year. . . . And they really took over the town. . . . You should have seen the home town boys giving them the eye and angling for dates. . . . Before the schoolmarm got us all upset, the talk of the town was the army's big War Show, out at Butler Bowl. . . . They gave us five nights of the most thrilling entertainment we've ever had here. . . . Glad it was only make believe fighting. . . . You fellows may be interested in knowing how they got all those tanks and jeeps and artillery into the bowl. Well, that was easy for the army. They just cut a big hole in the north end of the bowl. . . . Nothing stumps those army engineers.

★ ★ ★

No Vandalism This Year—

IT LOOKS LIKE the old home town is going to have a safe and sane Halloween—the safest and sanest in years. . . . The boys and girls in school are pledging that they'll help prevent any property damage because of the war. . . . Hope they don't have their fingers crossed. . . . Any regular Halloween vandalism now is outright sabotage that would help Hitler. . . . Speaking of holidays, there's good news about Thanksgiving. . . . The news is that there'll be no shortage of the big bird, or chicken, either. . . . At least, not here. Hope you all get your favorite drumstick. . . . The coffee situation still is "critical." . . . The restaurant association warns us not to ask for a second cup. . . . Out at Allison's, they had "No Coffee Today" signs in the plant cafeteria Thursday. . . . Frightful hardships, we civilians have to undergo.

★ ★ ★

Howdy, Cousin Wendell—

WE HOOSIERS got a bang out of Wendell Willkie's return to Indiana after gallivanting around the world. He's going to tell us all about it over the radio Monday night. . . . County Auditor Glenn Ralston died this week. . . . Sheriff Al Fenney takes his place on the ballot.

★ ★ ★

DEATHS

Katie Boese, 84, at 2007 N. Capitol ave., arteriosclerosis.

Thomas O'Connell, 72, at St. Vincent's, chronic myocarditis.

Cynthia Doan, 87, at 2821 Merdith ave., chronic myocarditis.

Lulu Rogers, 62, at 3234 E. St. Clair st., pulmonary tuberculosis.

Sallie Lindsay, 62, at 1131 E. 15th st., cerebral hemorrhage.

WHAT'S COOKIN'?

Entire contents copyrighted, 1942, L. Strauss & Co., Inc.

Vol. 1—No. 15 Saturday Oct. 24, 1942

Dear Fellows—

THINGS REALLY were cookin' this week-end, what with 16,000 schoolmarm here for their annual convention. . . . Guess there were a few Hoosier schoolmasters here, too. . . . Gosh, those schoolmarm seem to get cuter every year. . . . And they really took over the town. . . . You should have seen the home town boys giving them the eye and angling for dates. . . . Before the schoolmarm got us all upset, the talk of the town was the army's big War Show, out at Butler Bowl. . . . They gave us five nights of the most thrilling entertainment we've ever had here. . . . Glad it was only make believe fighting. . . . You fellows may be interested in knowing how they got all those tanks and jeeps and artillery into the bowl. Well, that was easy for the army. They just cut a big hole in the north end of the bowl. . . . Nothing stumps those army engineers.

★ ★ ★

No Vandalism This Year—

IT LOOKS LIKE the old home town is going to have a safe and sane Halloween—the safest and sanest in years. . . . The boys and girls in school are pledging that they'll help prevent any property damage because of the war. . . . Hope they don't have their fingers crossed. . . . Any regular Halloween vandalism now is outright sabotage that would help Hitler. . . . Speaking of holidays, there's good news about Thanksgiving. . . . The news is that there'll be no shortage of the big bird, or chicken, either. . . . At least, not here. Hope you all get your favorite drumstick. . . . The coffee situation still is "critical." . . . The restaurant association warns us not to ask for a second cup. . . . Out at Allison's, they had "No Coffee Today" signs in the plant cafeteria Thursday. . . . Frightful hardships, we civilians have to undergo.

★ ★ ★

DEATHS

Katie Boese, 84, at 2007 N. Capitol ave., arteriosclerosis.

Thomas O'Connell, 72, at St. Vincent's, chronic myocarditis.

Cynthia Doan, 87, at 2821 Merdith ave., chronic myocarditis.

Lulu Rogers, 62, at 3234 E. St. Clair st., pulmonary tuberculosis.

Sallie Lindsay, 62, at 1131 E. 15th st., cerebral hemorrhage.

★ ★ ★

Howdy, Cousin Wendell—

WE HOOSIERS got a bang out of Wendell Willkie's return to Indiana after gallivanting around the world. He's going to tell us all about it over the radio Monday night. . . . County Auditor Glenn Ralston died this week. . . . Sheriff Al Fenney takes his place on the ballot.

★ ★ ★

DEATHS

Katie Boese, 84, at 2007 N. Capitol ave., arteriosclerosis.

Thomas O'Connell, 72, at St. Vincent's, chronic myocarditis.

Cynthia Doan, 87, at 2821 Merdith ave., chronic myocarditis.

Lulu Rogers, 62, at 3234 E. St. Clair st., pulmonary tuberculosis.

Sallie Lindsay, 62, at 1131 E. 15th st., cerebral hemorrhage.

IN INDIANAPOLIS—VITAL STATISTICS

Here Is the Traffic Record

FATALITIES

County	City	Total
1941.....49	61	110
1942.....31	72	103

Accidents.....11 Arrests.....194

Injured.....1 Dead.....0

FRIDAY TRAFFIC COURT

Cases Convicted—Fines

Violations	tried	ctions	paid
Speeding.....14	8	$27
Reckless driving.....6	5	27
Failure to stop at through street.....1	1	2
Failure to stop at signal.....0	0	0
Drunk driving.....3	3	130
All others.....23	16	9
Total.....47	33	$195

EVENTS TODAY

Indiana Nurses association, convention, Claypool hotel and L. S. Ayres & Co., all day.

Indiana department of the American Legion, fall conference, Legion headquarters, 777 N. Meridian st., all day.

Open-air public dance, sponsored by war bond drive and U. S. O., war memorial plaza, 8 p. m.

Indiana Federation of Art Clubs, convention, John Herron art institute, all day.

Indiana Physicians and Industrial Safety Engineers, study of "Medical Aspects of Chemical Warfare," 1 U. medical building, all day.

EVENTS TOMORROW

American Legion Indiana department conference, mass meeting, address by Route Waring, national commander, Legion headquarters, 2 p. m.

First Scout week, opens with participation in local church services throughout Indianapolis.

Fathers of Sons in Service, meeting, World War memorial, 230 p. m.

First Scout week, opens with participation in local church services throughout Indianapolis.

First Scout week, opens with participation in local church services throughout Indianapolis.

First Scout week, opens with participation in local church services throughout Indianapolis.

First Scout week, opens with participation in local church services throughout Indianapolis.

First Scout week, opens with participation in local church services throughout Indianapolis.

First Scout week, opens with participation in local church services throughout Indianapolis.

First Scout week, opens with participation in local church services throughout Indianapolis.

First Scout week, opens with participation in local church services throughout Indianapolis.

First Scout week, opens with participation in local church services throughout Indianapolis.

First Scout week, opens with participation in local church services throughout Indianapolis.

First Scout week, opens with participation in local church services throughout Indianapolis.

First Scout week, opens with participation in local church services throughout Indianapolis.

First Scout week, opens with participation in local church services throughout Indianapolis.

First Scout week, opens with participation in local church services throughout Indianapolis.

First Scout week, opens with participation in local church services throughout Indianapolis.

First Scout week, opens with participation in local church services throughout Indianapolis.

First Scout week, opens with participation in local church services throughout Indianapolis.

First Scout week, opens with participation in local church services throughout Indianapolis.

First Scout week, opens with participation in local church services throughout Indianapolis.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

These lists are from official records in the county clerk's office. The license therefore, is not responsible for errors in names and addresses.

Robert Joseph Anthony Berry, 25, of 1828 N. Talbot; Esther Marie Miller, 24, of 1250 N. Talbot.

William Franklin Dallen, 22, of 5505 College; Anna Louise Davis, 21, of 2131 Ellipse.

Thomas J. Southern, 20, of 5837 S. Prairie; R. R. Augusta Walden, 20, of 922 N. California.

Herman William Mitchell, 30, of 3140 N. Meridian; Dorothy Mae Hill, 32, of 2131 Ellipse.

George Scott, 47, of 235 E. Michigan; Ruby Holland, 44, of 1107 S. State.

Henry Israel Friedman, 23, of Harrison; Kathryn Louise Klingner, 24, of 1430 Thompson rd.

Philip Maurice Metzger, 21, of 2451 N. LaSalle; Edna Marie Scott, 21, of 427 N. Hamilton.

Arthur Carl Arnold, 55, of 3000 N. Indiana; Ruth Ramona Johnson, 35, of 3812 Graceland.

William John Knappstein, 37, of 1809 E. Michigan; Ruth Ramona Johnson, 35, of 3812 Graceland.

Raymond Franklin Long, 19, of 962 Oak; Lloyd B. Cowin, 23, of 215 N. Navy; Mary Conway, 22, of 449 Alton.

Henry Reynolds Stephenson, 25, of 37 E. Maple rd.; Prudence Ann Brown, 25, of 409 E. 7th.

Henry H. Bauer, 29, of 200 N. W. Y.; Ray Mary Beck, at Methodist.

John C. Jolly, 21, of 252 S. Temple; Althea Rose Robertson, 21, of 62 N. Sherman st.