ing some breaks from the temperature drop. Any snapping of wires would seriously cripple war industries.

Police Line Broken

The only break down in communications here was in the police and fire department Gamewell alarm system. The alarm wires were broken at Parker and English ave., but crews restored them with a few hours.

Persons seriously injured in falls on the ice were Mrs. Pearl Vasilis, 50, of 127 Bright st., broken ankle; Mrs. Flossie Thornton, 51, of 721½ Osgood st., broken leg; Mrs. Eva Edwards, 63, of 55 Arbor ave., broken arm; Mrs. Mary Scott, 44, of 615 N. New Jersey st., leg injured; Mrs. Thomas Willis, 43, of 2245 Bellefontaine st., back and ribs badly wrenched; Richard Wilson, 18, of Ft. Wayne, a Purdue university student, skull injury in fall at Union Station, and Carl Hilton, 200 E. Minnesota st., head injuries.

Snow Closes Eight Roads

Eight roads in the northern part of the state were closed when snow drifts made driving too hazardous for safety. Snow plows were at work, but were making little headway against the high wind, which covered the roads with drifts.

Roads closed yesterday by drifts were 41, north of Attica; 43, north of Brookton; 9, north of Albion; 55, north of Fowler; 23, south of Walkerton; 321, between Bremen and Bourbon; 17, between Logansport and Plymouth, and 49, south of Valparaiso.

The northern part of the state reported 10 to 12 inches of snow, the north central line from Lafayette to Marion, four inches, and the central region, one inch. South of Indianapolis, there was no snow.

Roads through the central part of the state were reported to be in fairly good condition for driving, but all those north of Lafayette and Marion were announced as very hazardous due to ice and packed snow.

URGE HOSPITAL FOR CARE OF PARALYTICS

A bill providing for the construction of a hospital in northern Indiana for children afflicted with infantile paralysis was introduced in the senate today by Senator Charles A. Phelps (R. Ft. Wayne).

The measure would provide for the appointment of an eight-man bi-partisan commission by the speaker of the house and the president of the senate to select a site for the hospital north of U. S. road 30.

After the site is selected, the governor would name a board of trustees which would have the power to proceed with construction of the hospital.

A $250,000 appropriation is proposed.

and students of the University of Chicago dictate our policy of local government? We're satisfied with our present form of government, while the city manager plan has proved a failure."

Rep. Charles Ehlers (R. Indianapolis) reminded the Indianapolis delegation that Indianapolis voted overwhelmingly for the city manager form of government several years ago.

The Indianapolis delegation voted unanimously in favor of keeping the resolution alive.

The committee held a hearing yesterday afternoon with the civic group out in force. They had their say, and the mayors arrived in time for the rebuttal, which was all they needed.

The hearing lasted an hour and a half, after which the room was cleared of all but committee members. The committee met for 15 minutes and voted 7 to 6 for indefinite postponement.

"Boys Were Afraid"

As one member put it: "The boys were afraid of their mayors."

Voting for indefinite postponement of the amendment were Reps. Bert Summerland (R. Wabash), Max Murray (R. Stroh), Carl Smith (R. Portland), Mr. Lowry, Beecher Conrad (R. Petersburg), Earl Randolph (R. Muncie), and Morris Manuel (R. Pendleton).

Signers of the minority report recommending passage of the measure were Reps. Kendall, Wilbur Grant (R. Indianapolis), Russell Colbert (R. Washington), Robert Heller (R. Decatur), and Matthew Welsh (D. Vincennes).

The large delegation of proponents was headed by Virgil Sheppard of Indianapolis, Home Rule league chairman. He outlined the story behind the home rule movement, tracing it from the time a study commission was appointed in 1934 to the introduction of the resolution the second time at this session.

Says Mayors Are Safe

He explained that it would be several years before the amendment could be approved, a charter commission appointed and any changes in local governments made.

"The present mayors need not worry about their jobs," he said. "And if they have been giving their cities good government they need not worry any more."

Mayor Vincent Youkey of Crown Point, secretary of the Indiana Municipal league, led the opposition.

He charged that the "so-called home rule" amendment was undemocratic because it would give the power to "powerful, well-organized minorities."

"I'm referring to the knife and fork luncheon clubs," he said.

Sen. Armstrong Sent to Hospital

James Armstrong, 25-year-old Republican state senator from Springville, today suffered a heart attack in the cloakroom outside the senate chamber while the senate was in session.

He was treated by Rep. Reuben H. Richards (R. Patricksburg) and sent to Robert Long hospital for observation.

His condition was not regarded as serious. Senator Armstrong is the author of the highly controversial bill to abolish the Indiana High School Athletic association and yesterday he attended a lengthy hearing on his bill before the senate judiciary B committee.
