

ABIE SCHAEFER FUNERAL FRIDAY

Ft. Wayne Newspaper Man Dies at 65; Burial to Be At Pekin, Ill.

FT. WAYNE, June 1 (U. P.).—The body of Abie Schaefer, 65-year-old advertising director of the Ft. Wayne Journal-Gazette, will be taken to Pekin, Ill., Thursday for funeral services there Friday afternoon. Mr. Schaefer died at his home here yesterday following a three-year illness.

Prior to coming to Ft. Wayne in 1920 as advertising director for the local newspaper, Mr. Schaefer was publisher of the Pekin Times.

Mr. Schaefer was born in Cincinnati in 1878. His newspaper career began at Pekin while he was still in high school.

He became associated with the Peoria, Ill., Star, and later was made business manager of the Peoria Journal-Transcript. He then accepted a similar position with the Peoria Journal-Gazette. Later he joined the Newark, N. J., Ledger, as advertising manager, but returned to Pekin to take over duties as publisher of the Times.

Mr. Schaefer was a past president of the Morning Newspaper Publishers of America, serving in that post five terms, and was vice president of the American Newspaper Executive association for Indiana.

LEON HECHT RITES TO-BE TOMORROW

Leon Hecht, pioneer in electrical advertising who died yesterday at his home, 4353 Park ave., will be buried in the Indianapolis Hebrew cemetery following funeral services at 2 p. m. tomorrow in the Aaron Ruben funeral home. The services will be conducted by Rabbi Morris Feuerlicht and Rabbi Maurice Goldblatt.

Mr. Hecht was 67. He was born in Philadelphia and had lived here 32 years. He was associated with the Smith-Hecht Co. until its dissolution, then founded the Leon Hecht Advertising Co. He was a charter member of the Kiwanis club, a life member of the Elks and the Shekinah lodge in Philadelphia.

He is survived by his wife, Hilda; a daughter, Mrs. Charles S. Kaufman, Indianapolis; two sisters, Mrs. Max Dyalish, Ardmore, Pa., and Mrs. Mamie Bearmitt, Philadelphia, and one grandson.

HONOR LOANS

$25-$50-$100 OR MORE
Borrow up to $300 without security of any kind—Pay charges only for the time you have the money

SHORT OF CASH? If you have a steady job, you should investigate Household's Honor Loan plan. This plan offers a quick, simple way for men and women who are working to borrow at reasonable cost. If you can make small monthly payments, get an Honor Loan on just your promise to repay.

Choose your own plan
You may repay your Honor Loan in a few days or in a number of monthly installments—whichever way best suits your needs. Charges are made only for the actual time you have the money. At our rate of 3% per month a $25 Honor Loan costs $1.55 when repaid in three monthly installments, but only 18¢ when repaid at the end of a week. A $50 Honor Loan repaid in four monthly installments of $13.46 each costs $3.84—or if repaid in one month costs $1.50.

The table below shows some of our many monthly payment plans. All payments include principal and interest. You pay nothing more. You are welcome to repay ahead of schedule at any time to reduce the cost.

To get an Honor Loan you merely give us a few facts about yourself and your job and sign a simple promissory note. The Honor Loan plan spares you the embarrassment of asking friends or fellow-workers to sign the loan papers with you. We do not question friends or relatives about your credit at any time.

Solve your problem here
You may get an Honor Loan to pay your doctor or dentist, insurance or taxes, old store bills, repairs, union fees—for almost any purpose. If you need extra cash, write, phone or visit Household Finance.

NEW GUINEA YANKS NOTE MEMORIAL DAY

SOMEWHERE IN NEW GUINEA, May 31 (U. P.).—Allied forces at this overseas front held Memorial day services today for war dead buried under white crosses in a green New Guinea valley.

Fighter planes circled overhead during the ceremonies, patrolling against a possible Japanese surprise attack.

Brig. Gen. Hanford MacNider of Mason City, Iowa, former commander of the U. S. American Legion, paid tribute to the troops "who have marched out under the colors but haven't marched back again."

SUB VICTIMS SAVED AT EDGE OF SAHARA

MIAMI, Fla., June 1 (U. P.).—Fourteen survivors of a torpedoed United States merchant ship said today that they were rescued from the edge of the Sahara desert, near where they landed their small boat, just as they decided to begin what they feared would be a journey into death.

Thirty-five crew members of the vessel, the James W. Denver, commanded by Capt. Edward Staley of Baltimore, Md., are missing. The navy departed from its usual custom in permitting disclosure of the ship's name.
