

Benny Goodman To 'Loaf Awhile'

NEW YORK, May 3 (U.P.) — The way things look now, there won't be any music by a Benny Goodman band for some time to come. Goodman doesn't see eye-to-eye with the Music Corp. of America, which has him under contract, and is taking it easy until there is a mutual abrogation.

or, if necessary, until he has finished his time with M. C. A. a half a month from now.

Goodman said his trouble with M. C. A. stemmed from his feeling that it had come to serve as merely a booking agency for his band instead of in a managerial capacity.

The value of Crown's Sani-tone Cleaning and Finishing is reflected in the life and looks of your frocks. Sani-tone method is decidedly different . . . it floats out grease like dirt, dissolves sugar like soils and eases out gritty dust particles . . . that is the reason your second and third season dresses still look lively and fabrics feel rich after Crown's finer Sani-tone Cleaning.

THREE FILMS, high on your "must see" list, open at the neighborhood theaters this week.

"The Purple Heart" is the story of eight Yanks who set out to bomb Tokyo, but fall into the hands of the Japs after their mission. Starring Dana Andrews, with a fine supporting cast, the film is playing today at the Irving, St. Clair, Strand and Uptown, and opens tomorrow at the Granada, Rivoli and Ambassador and Sunday at the Daisy and Speedway.

Lynn Bari
The second film, "Frisco Kid," with James Cagney and Margaret Lindsay, portrays the wild and wooly days of the Barbary coast.

It's playing today at the Vogue and Zaring and opens tomorrow at the Rivoli and Speedway and Sunday at the Fountain Square and the Belmont.

"The Bridge of San Luis Rey," Thornton Wilder's prize-winning classic, starring Lynn Bari, Akim Tamiroff and Francis Lederer, is an exciting love story, full of the beauty and mystery of old Peru.

It opens Sunday at the St. Clair, Strand, Uptown and Ambassador and Tuesday at the Speedway.
