

L. S. AYRES & CO.

Shorts

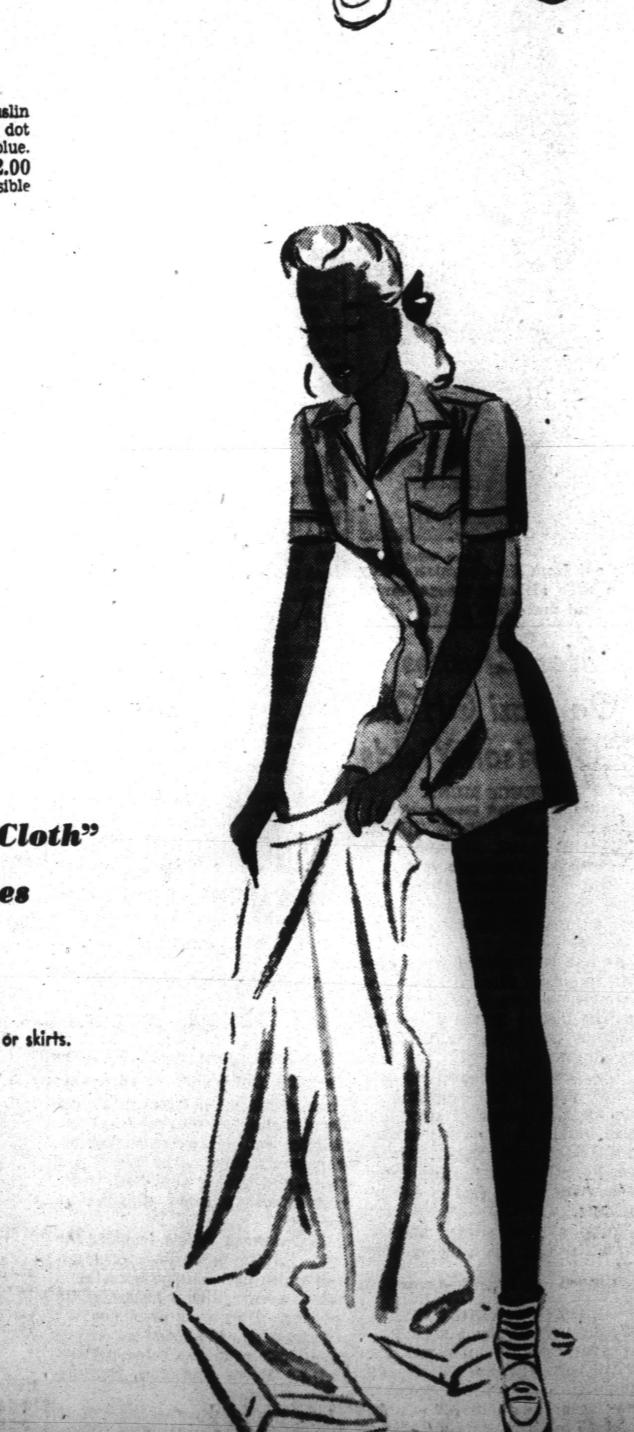

FOR LONG SUNNY DAYS

Play-perfect comfort in expertly styled shorts. Halter combinations to promote "brown" studies or shirts to prevent sunburn. All in delightful washable cotton.

Sportswear, Third Floor

A. Cotton crash bib short. Blue only. 2.00
Bandana shirt, red only. Sizes 12 to 20. 1.94

B. Little Boy short in twill, white or navy. Sizes 10 to 20. 3.00
Striped T shirt in blue, red, green, navy or white. 2.00

C. Unbleached muslin short with polka dot trim in red or blue. Sizes 10 to 20. 2.00
Matching reversible halter. 1.15

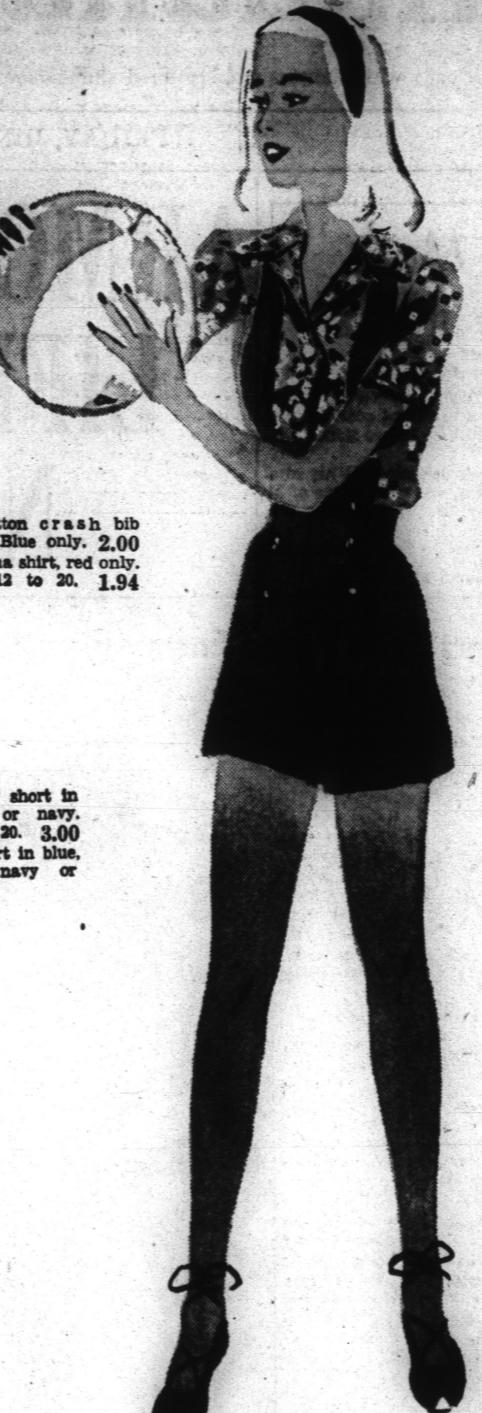

"Blitzie

"Everlast" Racquet Cloth Styled by Eastern Isles

Panty, blouse and slip all-in-one! Solves shirttail trouble. Wear it with slacks, shorts or skirts. Detachable tab for easy laundering. Pink, blue and maize. Sizes 32 to 38.

*Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.

Lingerie, Second Floor

CLASS DAY SET AT WASHINGTON

Program Scheduled Tuesday, With Commencement On Thursday.

Washington high school seniors will hold a class day program in the school auditorium next Tuesday, to be followed by commencement exercises in Technical high school gymnasium on Thursday.

Class day features at 3 p. m. Tuesday, will include Senior President Carter Byfield's presentation of the gavel to Frank Hines, junior class chief; acceptance of the class gift by W. G. Gingery, school principal and singing of the class song composed by Lois Ollman.

Graduation exercises will be at 8 o'clock Thursday night, with Theodore L. Locke, president of the board of school commissioners, presenting the diplomas. Mr. Gingery will award the Riley scholarship medal.

Senior students Kathryn Harris and Norma Messner will speak. The Rev. Basil G. Stultz, West Park Christian church, will deliver the invocation.

TRANSPORTATION OF WAR GOODS STUDIED

Indianapolis businessmen will study ways best to insure swift and efficient transportation of war goods at a meeting of the Ohio Valley Transportation Advisory board meeting next Tuesday at the Columbia club.

Freeman Bradford, secretary-general manager of the Indianapolis Board of Trade, heads the committee on arrangements. H. A. Hollister, traffic director, Indiana Chamber of Commerce, is chairman of the executive committee of the board. Shippers, receivers of freight and railroad officers from Indiana, Ohio, Kentucky and West Virginia will attend.

OPTIMISTS TO MEET

The Optimist Club of Indianapolis, Inc., will meet at noon today in the Columbia club to hear Paul O. Samson, St. Louis. A dietitian, Mr. Samson is associated with the International Nutrition Laboratories.

MEET IN FT. FRIENDLY

Catherine Merrill tent 9, Daughters of Union Veterans of the Civil War, will meet at noon Monday in Ft. Friendly. Mrs. Charlotte Halter will preside.

BROAD RIPPLE SETS SERVICE FOR SUNDAY

Broad Ripple high school baccalaureate services will be held at the Roberts Park Methodist church Sunday at 7:45 p. m. Dr. Sumner L. Martin, church pastor, will deliver the sermon.

Special music will be sung by the school choir and by Miss Louise Martin, soloist. Mr. K. V. Ammerman is school principal.

"Through The Looking Glass"

—Atop Your Beret

Fascinating, tiny mirrors trimming

smart berets of beautiful dark felt. 7.95 Each.

Millinery, Third Floor

FRIDAY, JUNE 9, 1944

Tech Boys Slate Concert Sunday

Technical high school's Boys Concert club will present its first annual spring concert at 4 p. m. Sunday in the Centenary Christian church, 11th and Oxford sts. Sylvia Harriman will be guest soloist and John Gates guest pianist. William F. Moon is the director and Eloise Gillespie, Miss Harriman accompanist.

Included on the program are: First tenors: Arnold Maves, Larry McMillen, Keith Snodgrass, Richard Trotter and Walter Welsh.

Second tenors: Randolph Brinkley, Donald Denby, Jack Holmes, Kimball Long, Harold Martin, Joseph Man, John McGuire, Roy Potts, Philip Gifford, Thomas Vies, Paul Waggoner and Wallace Young.

Graduation exercises will be at 8 o'clock Thursday night, with Theodore L. Locke, president of the board of school commissioners, presenting the diplomas. Mr. Gingery will award the Riley scholarship medal.

Senior students Kathryn Harris and Norma Messner will speak. The Rev. Basil G. Stultz, West Park Christian church, will deliver the invocation.

ALL PARKS TO HAVE SUMMER CONCERTS

Summer concerts will be given at all city parks, the park board announced today. Miss Ruth Smith, recreation department's supervisor of music, simultaneously closed an eight-program series to be held in Northwestern park.

Series for Garfield and Brookside parks have already been announced and schedules for 13 other city parks are near completion.

Northwestern's opening program will feature the Senate ave. Y. M. C. A. band on July 2, and on July 10, Granville Owens and orchestra. July 16, Foster Hall quartet; July 31, talent night youth programs. Aug. 4, union song service for neighborhood churches; Aug. 13 and Aug. 27, Senate ave. Y. M. C. A. band, and Sept. 3, church pageant.

BROAD RIPPLE SETS SERVICE FOR SUNDAY

Broad Ripple high school baccalaureate services will be held at the Roberts Park Methodist church Sunday at 7:45 p. m. Dr. Sumner L. Martin, church pastor, will deliver the sermon.

Special music will be sung by the school choir and by Miss Louise Martin, soloist. Mr. K. V. Ammerman is school principal.

FRIDAY, JUNE 9, 1944

Armored Life

(Continued From Page 2)

rauge railroad between and St. Mere Eglise, to the north. An observation command referee, striking out from the town might be best.

British forces continue forward in the Caen area. The Germans have still held the proportions of a

Allies Take Many

German prisoners taken in sizeable numbers, said the spokesman, leading to figures.

The weather, one of the problems of the invasion, has turned for the worse. The wind kicked from the southwest.

The word at supreme headquarters late in the day was that an invasion could be considered a satisfactory program.

Allied beachheads are stiffly resistance stiffened, armor engaged by the increasing, and the British Take a

All enemy thrusts are from the north, to above St. Mere Eglise, and ground was yard. That statement

quarters suggested

and British beachheads

joined to form a

British Take a

A later report said were at St. Formigny northwest of Bayeux on July 16, evening and had advanced since

June 10, capture of

was announced yesterday.

Canadians a

At the same time announced that new scored in the advanc

The Canadian thi

revealed to be taking allied advance. C

and men were enga

allied parachute landi

A front dispatch

British and Cana

were made in the

Surmer, 11

and 10 miles west

estuary. Bernieres

along with a nu

places.

British Empire

reported nearing the

beleaguered commun

miles to the east, f

closed.

Canadians forces

had with capturing

many towns in a

across the Bayeux

the main Cherbourg

and highway. La

on both the Ameri

Canadian beaches

enemy strong poi

dured steadily.

The Berlin dispa

holm Aftonbladet

feared that a lin

beachheads—the A

Carentan and Ch

British Empire for

enemy strong poi

—was imminent.

Such a junction

quoted the Germa

would make the

every difficult" an

the abandonment

The German

navy Telegraph

Berlin dispatch, re

appeared from

Montgomery's

approaching St. Lo,

after violent bat

west of Bayeux a river, southeast of

The German

only that tank

vanced southwest

west of Bayeux.

pledged that Ameri

St. Mere-Eglise, so

to Cherbourg, ha

in the face of stu

More Para

Radio Vichy re

ive landings" by

and glider-borne

some 20 miles so

A total of 10 C

150,000 men—have

in action, and

ports indicated

being reinforced highway despite allied aerial at communications.

Diminishing w

ther the landing

troops, tanks, and

equipment on be

and British-Can

IN IN

Technical high sc

stadium, 6:45 p. m.

Moscow high school,

pub. 8:30 p. m.

Chicago Attacks

ment, Cade tab

Presentation of equ

school children's

Indians. Indianapolis Speaks

Washington, 7:30

American Prisoners

world war m