

STUDY OF INDIANA AVIATION PLANNED

A plan of action for the study of aviation problems in Indiana will be mapped at the initial meeting of the governor's commission on aviation tomorrow at the state chamber of commerce offices here, H. A. Hollister, commission chairman, announced today.

Kenneth L. Shellie, planning engineer of the Indiana Economic Council, and John J. Hogan, district airport engineer of the civil aeronautics administration office in Chicago, have been invited by the chairman to assist with organization plans.

Members of the commission will meet with Governor Schriener at a noon luncheon at the Indianapolis Athletic club.

CADETS TO HEAR VETERAN
SEYMOUR, Ind., Sept. 7 (U. P.). Capt. Robert E. Maggart, Gary, veteran of the African and Sicilian campaigns and pilot of a B-25 which participated in 50 combat missions, will speak tomorrow at graduation exercises for the cadet class at Freeman army air field.

Manual's 50th Year Under Way

WIDOW TO AUCTION PROPERTY OF RAHKE

A public auction of office equipment and other property of the late Emil K. Rahke, who left an estate valued at about $115,000, will begin Monday at 1121 N. Pennsylvania st.

The sale will be conducted by the widow, Mrs. Rose Bruce Rahke, and the Union Trust Co., executors of the estate.

According to the will on file in probate court, the proceeds from the sale of Mr. Rahke's Silent Salesman Co. and allied firms will be divided into six shares, one each to a daughter, Mrs. Marian Miller, a son, Fletcher Rahke, and the remainder will be placed in trust.
