BEST bouts on last night's professional fistic presentation at Sports Arena were a five-rounder between Arnold Deer, Indianapolis middleweight and Tito Taylor, Chicago, and a four-rounder between Jimmy Crowe, Danville, Ill., and Frank Rand, Indianapolis.

The heavyweight match between Colton Chaney, Indianapolis, and Homer McClain, Chicago, was declared "no contest" by Referee Dick Patton. McClain was frightened by Chaney's rugged appearance and shortly after the opening bell he was struck on the chin by a hard left and kissed the canvas.

McClain refused to get up, and that was that. . . . He didn't want any more of Chaney. . . . The state athletic commission ruled that the Chicago heavyweight "wasn't trying" and he was suspended.

Boxers to Show in Armory Next Week

THE six-bout outdoor finale was staged before about 1200 cheering fans. . . . Next week's fistic program is to be held at the Armory on Friday night and will offer as a feature a return go between Corp. Jerry Kieger, Ft. Harrison, and Billy Parsons, Danville, Ill., over the eight-round route.

In the Deer-Taylor bout last night Deer was awarded the decision. . . . He had Taylor on the floor in the third stanza and in the fifth and last heat the Chicago boxer scored a no-count knockdown with a left to the local boy's chin.

It was a rousing match of give-and-take and both lads threw a lot of leather. . . . Deer's best round was the third when he barged in with both gloves and rocked Taylor with body punches.

Crowe and Rand Set Blistering Pace

JIMMY CROWE and Frank Rand met in a torrid affair and there were no idle moments during the four rounds. . . . The judges awarded the verdict to Crowe. . . . The Times scored in favor of Rand by a shut. . . . The adversaries set a blistering pace and Crowe received a cut left eye and a cut on his forehead.

JAMES SHERRON, Indianapolis welterweight, defeated Al Jackson, Chicago, by technical k. o. in the fifth round. . . . The local better outlasted his opponent and scored knockdowns in the second, fourth and two in the fifth. . . . The referee called it a night after the second knockdown in the fifth and awarded the honors to Sherron. . . . Jackson substituted for Bob Fowler, Minneapolis.

IN OTHER bouts Tiger Kiggins, Indianapolis middleweight, defeated Mike McKessick, Indianapolis, in four rounds of interesting action and in a five-rounder, Ted Christie, veteran Chicago lightweight, decided Dick Cook, young Camp Aterbury boxer. . . . Christie used his experience to advantage and registered two knockdowns, one in the third, the other in the fifth.

Nelson and McSpaden Tied With 69 Cards in Texas Open

DALLAS, Tex., Sept. 8 (U. P.).—It was the same old story with scenery in the Texas victory golf open today—Byron Nelson and Harold (Jug) McSpaden were pacing the rest of the field into the second round of the 72-hole medal play tournament.

The pair of par-pruners, who have dominated the majority of the major tournaments this year, paced the big field of more than 150 competitors with two under par 69. No other golfers were within four strokes, leaving them as the only two in the field to beat par.

Next in the field were two amateurs, Cpl. Earl Stewart of Dallas, Tex., the former national intercollegiate champion, and Labron Harris, a professor at Oklahoma A & M college. Both had 72s.

Nelson, the Toledo, O., veteran managed to recover with amazing putting accuracy after being in trouble on the fairways. McSpaden, Philadelphia pro, had five bogeys on the front nine to go two over par, but shot a four-under-par 32 on the back side to gain the tie.

Putting Saves Nelson
Tied for fifth, with 73s were Ray Mangrum of Beverly Hills, Cal., and Denny Shute of Huntington, Va. In sixth spot, with 74s, came Jimmy Walkup, San Antonio, Tex., Tony Penna, Dayton, O., veteran, and Sgt. E. J. (Dutch) Harrison, the former Little Rock, Ark., star now at Wright Field. O. An amateur, A. C. Janney of Dallas, also had a 75.

The biggest disappointment of the day was the failure of Lt. Ben Hogan from the Ft. Worth, Tex., army air base. Hogan, top pro in the nation two years ago, had shot sub-par golf for three years, but yesterday could do no better than a 78.

Bob Hamilton, national P. G. A. champ from Evansville, Ind., had to withdraw because of an appendicitis attack and left for home for an operation.

Al Lopez Seeks Catching Record

CINCINNATI, O., Sept. 8 (U. P.).—Catcher Al Lopez of the Pittsburgh Pirates set his sights on the major league catching durability record of Bill Dickey of the New York Yankees today after tying the National League mark last night by appearing in 100 or more games for 12 seasons.

Lopez, catching his 100th game this year against the Reds, equaled the National League mark set by Gabby Hartnett with the Chicago Cubs.

Dickey holds the American league record of 100 games for 13 seasons.

'The Terrible Turk,' Ex-Fighter, Is Dead

HOLLYWOOD, Sept. 8 (U. P.).—Abdul Majid, known to the prize ring as Abdul the Terrible Turk, died last night of a cerebral hemorrhage.

The 62-year-old former pugilist, who once fought Philadelphia Jack O'Brien for the world welterweight championship, came to this country from Turkey at the age of 13.

For the past 22 years he had been on the staff of Warner Bros. studio, where he was a physical conditioner and an actor.

Tribe Garners Only 6 Bingles And Loses, 5-2

TOLEDO, Sept. 8.—The sixth-place Indianapolis Indians complete their series with the second-place Toledo Mud Hens tonight in a single tilt at Swayne field, after which they will shove off for Columbus to close the season, playing the Red Birds one game tomorrow night and a double-header Sunday afternoon.

The Tribesters had no luck last night and the Hens made it two in a row by coming from behind and winning, 5 to 2. Bill Seinoth, southpaw, held the Redskins to six hits and allowed no runs after the first inning. He fanned five.

10 Hits Off Odom
Dave Odom worked the route on the Tribe mound and was combed for 10 blows, including three doubles and a home run. The home run was belted by Bill Burgo. The Mud Hens tallied three markers in the second stanza, one in the sixth and one in the eighth.

Gil English got two of the Tribe's six safeties and Chet Clemens garnered the Indians' lone extra base hit, a double in the first frame.

It was the Hens' 13th triumph over the Redskins this season. The Tribesters have defeated the Hens eight times.
