Charles E. Cosler, Former Postoffice Clerk, Dies Here

Charles E. Cosler, former post office clerk, died Saturday at the home of his nephew, Ray W. Bowman, 7501 E. Washington st., after a brief illness. He was 80.

The son of David and Mary Cosler, pioneer Warren township residents, he worked at the post office from 1889 to 1914. He then operated a dairy in Warren township several years and later was employed as a school bus driver. He was a member of Irvington Methodist church and a former member of Oriental Masonic lodge. He is survived by another nephew, Harry Porterfield, Omaha, Neb., and three nieces, Mrs. Alberta May, Mrs. Mary Tegedander, and Mrs. F. W. Hogle, all of Indianapolis.

CENSOR OF G. I. VOTES CHARGED

Congressman Wilson Cites Letter as Evidence of Pressure.

"The soldier vote law was drawn up so that censorship was unnecessary and prohibited," Congressman Earl Wilson, Huron, said Saturday in clarifying his charges that soldiers were being coerced into voting for the New Deal and that their ballots were being censored.

Mr. Wilson said that the clerk in Delaware county had received several ballots from overseas that bore the censor's stamp.

He also quoted a report from Jackson county that a woman there had received a letter from her son in the South Pacific who said he did not intend to vote because he was told by his commanding officer that he would have a furlough if he voted for Roosevelt and no furlough if he voted against him.

Mr. Wilson said he knew of several similar instances but this was the only one "I could take you to and show you the letter."

Mr. Wilson said he would investigate the matter as soon as he reached Washington to see on how wide a scale this was being done. He said that it might be possible to have President Roosevelt, in his capacity as commander-in-chief, issue an order that all ballots come through the mails without censorship.

"Soldiers can't be made to vote for Roosevelt, but they can be made to suffer for it if they don't. Thus many soldiers will not vote," Mr. Wilson pointed out.

He also said that "the men in the foxholes do not like the administration and its tolerance of strikes. Tom Dewey will get more than an even break from the men in uniform if they are permitted to vote freely."

Here's one TABOO a girl can forget when she wants relief

You can thank your lucky stars that women are no longer squeamish about discussing their troubles. Otherwise you might never know of the 2-way help that CARDUI may bring when nervousness, headaches and cramp-like pain are due only to periodic functional causes. Many women find that, starting three days before the time and taken as directed, CARDUI aids in relieving functional periodic discomforts. Used as a tonic, CARDUI often wakes up sleepy appetites, aids digestion by increasing the flow of gastric juices, and helps to build up resistance against the days it's needed most. Try it!
