

GOP COMMITTEE MAPS STRATEGY

New Group Hopes to Roll Up One of Largest Votes in History.

The newly organized county Republican campaign policy committee, at its first meeting yesterday, outlined strategy intended to "roll up the biggest G. O. P. vote majority in the history of local elections."

Headed by Guy A. Wainwright, manufacturer, the committee announced it would conduct weekly conferences until the Nov. 7 election to advise the G.O.P. central committee on campaign maneuvers.

Mr. Wainwright issued the following statement on general policy:

"The committee has begun its duties with a real sense of its great public responsibility. While its first concern is to assure a large majority for Thomas Dewey, the committee recognizes that Mr. Dewey's administration can be successful only if he is supported by Republicans in other important offices. It is, therefore, the aim of the committee to elect the entire ticket by a margin that will leave no doubt about the temper of the people of Marion county."

Membership of the committee, besides Mr. Wainwright, is composed of representatives of both City hall and regular organization Republicans—Mayor Robert H. Tyndall, Charles A. Huff, chairman of the City hall Victory Committee; Joseph Daniels, former 11th district chairman, and Henry E. Ostrom, community chairman.

NOVENA HONORS FRENCH SAINT

Church of Little Flower
To Commemorate St. Therese of Lisieux.

The 19th annual novena in honor of St. Therese of Lisieux will be held from Monday, Sept. 25, through Oct. 3 at the Church of the Little Flower, 14th st. and Bosart ave. Services will be held at 8 o'clock nightly and the solemn close will be marked by the Feast day of St. Therese, the Little Flower of Jesus, Oct. 3.

The novena was instituted following organization of the Little Flower parish, honoring St. Therese of Lisieux, a young girl saint born in Alencon, France. She was declared a saint in 1925, 28 years after her death.

The Rev. Albert A. Murray of the Paulist Fathers of Chicago will conduct the services, which consist of the recitation of the rosary, sermon, novena prayers, prayers for peace and those in service, and benediction of the most blessed sacrament.

Several relics of the Little Flower will be offered for the veneration of people attending the novena. High mass will be offered each morning and special services will be conducted at 3 p. m. daily for children, and those unable to attend evening services.

CHURCH FEDERATION PLANNERS TO MEET

The Rev. O. M. Walton, executive secretary of the Cleveland Federation of Churches, will describe the work of his federation at the fourth annual planning conference of the Indianapolis Church Federation tomorrow.

At the planning conference, from 4 to 7:15 p. m. in the Roberts Park Methodist church, the executive committee of the Indianapolis Church Federation will map its program for the year.
