JOHN LAUCK'S RITES SATURDAY

Special Representative of Fletcher Trust South Side
Branch Dead at 90.

Services for John Lauck Sr., special representative of the Fletcher Trust Company's South Side branch who died yesterday, will be conducted at 9 a. m. Saturday in Sacred Heart church. Burial will be in St. Joseph cemetery.

Mr. Lauck was born in Newport, Ky., in 1854, and had lived in Indianapolis since 1881. He was married to Miss Caroline Wagner in 1881. They celebrated their golden wedding anniversary in 1931 and Mrs. Lauck died in 1936. Mr. Lauck was residing at 1334 Union st.

He established a contracting sheet metal and hardware business in 1882, which still is operating. In 1911 he retired to become president of the South Side State bank, which he helped organize. In 1928 this bank joined with the Fletcher Trust Co. Mr. Lauck was affiliated with the South Side branch of the trust company from that time until his death.

Helped Organize Church

He was the last surviving charter member of Sacred Heart church, which he helped organize and finance through the St. Cecelia Dramatic club. The club presented plays in which he was an actor to finance the erection of Sacred Heart school.

While serving at the South Side bank Mr. Lauck braved six bandits, who robbed the bank. He defied their order to lie upon the floor and was beaten into unconsciousness with revolver butts. All six men eventually were slain, one at a time, during battles with the law.

Mr. Lauck is survived by two daughters, Miss Cecelia Lauck and Mrs. August G. Mueller, both of Indianapolis; four sons, John Jr., Frank and Albert, Indianapolis, and Charles, Los Angeles, Cal.; 13 grandchildren, and 11 great-grandchildren.

The Knights of Columbus will pay tribute to his memory tomorrow night at 8 p. m. at the Lauck funeral home.

MRS. HATTIE J. HORN

Rev. J. R. Flanagan, pastor of the Brightwood Methodist church, will conduct funeral services for Mrs. Hattie J. Horn, at 10 a. m. tomorrow at the Harry W. Moore peace chapel. Burial will be in Carmel cemetery.

Mrs. Horn, who resided at 5124

Norway st., died Tuesday in St. Francis hospital. A native of Hamilton county, she was 81 and had lived in Indianapolis most of her life. She was the widow of James H. Horn, retired city fireman who died in 1932.

Mrs. Horn is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Dovey Adair, and Mrs. E. S. Dugan, Indianapolis, two sons, James L., Indianapolis, and Oliver H., Portland, Ore.; a sister, Mrs. Ella Huffman, Carmel; six grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

FOR ATHLETE'S FOOT
HERN'S A DIFFERENT TREATMENT
As the fungi grows deeply, a fungicide must be more than a surface application. Powders, ointments and liniments do not afford sufficient contact. Alcohol solutions furnish greater penetrating power. Fungi is the only solution we know of made with 95% alcohol. Reaches more germ. Use at any drug store. Today is Foot's Dependable Drug Store.
