BY EARL RICHERT

DAN TOBIN, the Teamsters' union chieftain who long has been a close personal friend of President Roosevelt, has begun the mobilization of his powerful union to help bring about the re-election of Mr. Roosevelt.

From union headquarters here over the week-end went 480,000 first-class letters to union members throughout the U. S., telling them to "take off their coats, go to work and use every facility within their means to bring about the re-election of Franklin D. Roosevelt."

The letters were signed by Mr. Tobin and John M. Gillespie, general secretary of the union.

MR. TOBIN pointed out in his letter that the President had made his first campaign speech as a guest of the Teamsters' conference in Washington on Sept. 23.

"You know," he said, "that no other labor organization was ever so thoroughly honored by the present head of our government."

"Our members, fully understanding the seriousness of this great world conflict and what may happen to the workers of the nation and to our returning soldiers at the ending of the war, will now, as per the request of our conference, take off their coats and get to work and use every facility within their means to bring about the re-election of Franklin D. Roosevelt."

"We are doing this for the safety of our nation, the safety of the world and for the protection of the men and women of labor."

Describing the U. S. as an "up-and-coming" country where the individual should and could have an opportunity to make something of himself, Mr. Tucker charged "the New Dealers use coercion to promote crack-pot theories."

"Youth wants its chance," Mr. Tucker continued. "Let's give it to them. Tom Dewey and John Bricker, middle class men who have earned their daily bread by work, are capable of giving youth that chance."

"While leaving the hotel with the short patrol," he continued, "one of the members of this group endeavored to get our names from both ourselves and the shore patrol officer. Upon refusing to divulge our identity, this man told me that I had beaten up a personal friend of the President's and that he was going to take the matter up with the higher authorities and see that we got severe punishment."

"During the whole fight I was not aware of the identity of these men and I am still not aware of them."

COOPER DECISION DUE TOMORROW

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Oct. 2 (U. P.)—Juvenile Court Referee Albert Doyle announced today that he would give his decision tomorrow in the case of former film star Jackie Cooper and three others charged with contributing to the delinquency of two teen-age South Bend girls.

Cooper, 22, a V-12 naval trainee at Notre Dame university; George Bender, 24, another naval trainee of Shelbyville, Ill.; Pauline Frederick, 19, South Bend; and Olive Lowery, 49, hotel bar waiter, were charged in connection with an alleged "wild drinking party" last July 22, during which one of the minors said Bender seduced her. The hearing was concluded Saturday.

STATE RESTS CASE IN BEDFORD TRAIL

BEDFORD, Ind., Oct. 2 (U. P.)—The state rests its case today against Everett Toon, 60, charged with the slaying of Dennis Coleman with a shotgun during an argument over politics.

Prosecutor H. Wayne Baker said his evidence would be concluded when court was resumed after a week-end recess. Toon faced another indictment charging him with the fatal beating of Coleman's brother, James, in the same argument.

DEWEY JOCKEYS INTO GOOD SPOT

Due to Talk 2 Days After FDR as Bitter Debate Nears Resumption.

By LYLE C. WILSON United Press Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—Republican managers have maneuvered Governor Thomas E. Dewey into a favorable position in his bitter debate with President Roosevelt which will be resumed this week with the candidates speaking 48 hours apart in adjacent areas.

Mr. Roosevelt broadcasts on the night of Oct. 5 from the White House. Dewey will reply two nights later from Charleston, W. Va.

Dewey's appearance in Charleston is another significant G. O. P. move in the campaign to break the Democratic hold on border states. It will be a difficult job.

This campaign already is bitter. If the President again ridicules his opposition as he did in his address here to the A. F. of L. teamsters' union, Dewey can be expected to come back at him as he did in Oklahoma City.

The young man from New York knows as well as the President how to bluster with words, and in this exchange will have preferred position as second speaker and 48 hours in which to compose his reply.

Bricker Quotes Truman on New Deal

BOWLING GREEN, Ky., Oct. 2 (U. P.)—Governor John W. Bricker of Ohio, Republican vice presidential candidate, today quoted Senator Harry S. Truman, Mo., his Democratic opponent, as chief witness to his charges that the New Deal was guilty of bungling, waste, dictation and mismanagement.

Invading this border state, which gave its electoral vote to President Roosevelt three times, Bricker, in a speech here said the Republican campaign this year is directed "against the record of the waste and confusion of the New Deal."

Bricker said that Truman wrote in the American magazine last November that his senate war investigating committee found "lack of courageous, unified leadership and centralized direction at the top."

In senate speeches, Bricker continued, Truman agreed with Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg (R. Mich.) that responsibility for lack of war preparedness lay at "the White House."

Charges Republicans Wouldn't Keep Promises

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2 (U. P.)—Chairman Joseph C. O'Mahoney (D. Wyo.), of the senate Democratic campaign committee, asserted today that the Republicans would not keep the campaign promises Governor Dewey is making but that they merely want to regain control of the government to secure political patronage.

In an interview, O'Mahoney denied Republican assertions that Dewey had won hundreds of thousands of Democratic and independent voters to the G. O. P. ticket during his recent transcontinental campaign tour.

He said that the social reforms which Dewey has endorsed were written on the statute books over Republican opposition and that "the people aren't likely to forget when they go to the polls in November."

PAC Fund Drive Ends Far Short

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2 (U. P.)—The C. I. O. Political Action Committee's four-week campaign to raise $5,500,000 at the rate of $1 apiece from each of the union's 5,500,000 members ended today far short of its goal, it was learned.

Only sketchy reports on the drive have been received here but they prompted leaders of individual C. I. O. unions, including the 1,000,000-member United Auto Workers, to make preparations for an intensive drive to raise funds for the P. A. C.

The A. F. of L. was also understood to be lagging in its effort to raise money among its unions throughout the nation to defeat proposals to abolish the closed shop in Florida, Texas and California.

Dewey Helps Son Observe Birthday

ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 2 (U. P.)—A birthday celebration, the 12th for his older son, Thomas E. Jr., held the top place on the calendar today for Governor Thomas E. Dewey.

Dewey conferred last night at the executive mansion with state banking superintendent Elliot W. Bell, one of his chief political advisers, relative to speeches he will make when he resumes his campaigning with a speech in Charleston, W. Va., next Friday.

Earlier in the day he attended church with members of his family and then returned to the mansion to rest up from the 850-mile campaign trip he completed last Thursday.

When Dewey swings into the second phase of his campaign, he will visit the middle-west and New England, reserving a part of his time for a drive to capture New York's 47 electoral votes.

DUST CONTROL RECIPE

DALLAS—Dust control on an army airfield in Texas has been obtained by plowing the land, sprinkling 5000 gallons of oil to the acre, mixing with a farm harrow, smoothing and rolling with a steam roller.

YANKS CAPTURE PEAK NEAR NAZI LIFELINE

ROME, Oct. 2 (U. P.)—American 5th army troops captured Mt. Cappella, a peak dominating the Florence-Imola highway, in a thrust today which threatened to cut off German forces being driven up the Po valley by the British 8th army in the Adriatic sector.

The Americans also repulsed the fourth German counter-attack in as many days at previously captured Mt. Battaglia, two miles east of Mt. Cappella, and clung to the height after bitter fighting.

First Blow to Free Greece Seen in Seizure of 3 Isles

By ROBERT DOWSON United Press Staff Correspondent

LONDON, Oct. 2.—British broadcasts reported today that British commandos had struck what may be the first blow of an allied campaign in Greece by liberating three Greek islands, one of them only six miles from the mainland.

A. B. C. correspondent in Cairo, said the commandos landed without opposition on Kythera, six miles from the southernmost tip of the Greek province of Peloponnese, and on two other islands whose names were withheld for security reasons.

The fate of the German garrisons was not disclosed, but it was believed the enemy troops either escaped by sea before the commandos landed or were killed or captured by Greek patriots.

Destroy Installations B. B. C. said inhabitants of Kythera reported that 150 Germans on that island destroyed their installations several days ago preparatory to departing.

Greek patriots shot up several German boats while they were waiting for air and submarine escorts. B. B. C. said, but it did not reveal what proportion of the garrison actually escaped.

The British commandos were given a "tremendous welcome" by Kythera's inhabitants. B. B. C. said.

The landings raised the possibility that the allied command may en-

Flanks Being Squeezed

The German flanks already were being squeezed together by allied troops who landed in Albania and on Dalmatian islands, Marshal Tito's Partisan army in Yugoslavia and Russian armies in Yugoslavia, Romania and Bulgaria.

A United Press dispatch from Cairo revealed that allied planes had dropped thousands of leaflets over the Athens area several days ago. Though the text of the leaflets was withheld, the dispatch said that they "stimulated the population to a high pitch of enthusiasm."

Secrecy still cloaked the progress of the allied landings on Yugoslav islands off the Dalmatian coast and in Albania, but Rome dispatches said the capture of all Dalmatian islands appeared imminent.

London, Oct. 2 (U. P.)—An Indian news agency asked George Bernard Shaw for a message to Mahatma K. Gandhi today, Gandhi's 75th birthday.

"I have a cordial personal liking for Gandhi," Shaw replied, "but being myself a mahatma I never send messages to my colleagues in that profession."
