ADMIRALS KILLED

By UNITED PRESS

Japanese Domei agency today said the death of seven Japanese rear admirals had been announced by the Yokosuka naval station, one of Japan's four major imperial navy yards, which is commanded by Adm.
Naokuni Nomura, former navy minister in the Tojo cabinet.The Japanese agency, in a dispatch to the controlled press of East Asia recorded by FCC monitors, identified the dead officers as Kanichi Higashii, Sotokuji Moro-i, Toseburo Ogura, Fuji Arima, Shizuo Akasawa, Ryo Mori and Seizo Mikumoto.The dispatch gave no details as to how the high-ranking naval officers met their deaths nor whether they had been killed at the yard, about 60 airline miles from Tokyo where warships and naval auxiliaries of all types and sizes are built for the Japanese navy.Domel also failed to mention whether the deaths occurred over a period of time or simultaneously.Nomura was appointed to the post of commander of the yard following his resignation from the cabinet of Gen. Hideki Tojo."I am not in a position to make a statement about the united nations at this time," he added.Porter Talks to Safety Council

Times Special

CHICAGO, Oct. 4.—Earl D. Porter, chairman of the program committee of the fleet division of the Indianapolis safety council was one of the principal speakers at the 33d national safety congress here today.He declared that although drivers are delivering a larger annual load with less equipment and fewer men on the job, fleet accidents have shown only a slight increase."Sound programs of safety education that reach each driver will help hold accidents to a minimum," Mr. Porter said in his panel discussion.BRITISH LIST HITLER AS WAR CRIMINAL

LONDON, Oct. 4 (U. P.)—Prime Minister Winston Churchill told commoners today that Adolf Hitler, Hermann Goering, Paul Joseph Goebbels and Heinrich Himmler are on the British list of war criminals."I am not in a position to make a statement about the united nations at this time," he added.

Smoke Inspection Staff Due For a Shake-Up on Jan. 1Its status is a bit smoggy now, but the city smoke inspection staff is due for a shake-up Jan. 1. Personnel Director Larry Parsons announcedMr. Parsons cleared the air somewhat by asserting that Chief Smoke Inspector David Matthews, will be demoted at that time to the rank of combustion engineer yet to be named.Because of salary readjustments made by the J. L. Jacobs municipal survey, however, Mr. Matthews will receive $2400 next year as compared with $2100 he now makes asThe combustion engineer, first in the city's history, is slated to receive $2000.Mr. Matthews was the subject of a controversial smog stirred up last winter by the mayor's smoke abatement committee, which demanded his dismissal.In the January shift, Charles Symmes, present smoke inspector, will climb the high tower atop the Merchants bank building as "smoke observer." The incumbent "smoke observer," John Burcham, will climb down and out, Mr. Parsons intimated.
