

BOARD FORMED BY METHODISTS

Area Council to Direct Crusade for Christ and Other Affairs.

Representatives of the Indiana church organized a new Methodist area council yesterday in the Roberts Park Methodist church.

The council will direct the Crusade for Christ program and all other affairs of the Indianapolis Methodist area during the coming four years. Bishop Titus Lowe of the Indianapolis area is council chairman. Indianapolis ministers on the council include Dr. Guy O. Carpenter, district superintendent; Dr. John F. Edwards, pastor of the Broadway Methodist church; Dr. D. L. Browning of the North Methodist church, and Dr. S. L. Martin of the Roberts Park church.

Embodies Five Programs

The Crusade for Christ embodies these five programs: The promotion of a new world order; a four-year evangelistic campaign; an attempt to increase Sunday school attendance; an emphasis on stewardship, and the rebuilding of missions destroyed by war.

A sum of $25,000,000 will be raised outside the routine offerings of the denomination, to finance the crusade for Christ. The crusade will be launched in Indiana with 17 rallies held between Oct. 8 and 15.

The rally in Indianapolis on Oct. 15 will be addressed by the Rev. Claude Garrison, Mishawaka; Dr. Wesley Bransford, Anderson; Dr. E. Burns Martin, South Bend; the Rev. B. B. Shae, Ft. Wayne; Dr. A. W. Pugh, Muncie; the Rev. Jesse Fox, Kokomo, and the Rev. Howard Brown, Richmond.

CONFERENCE SLATED BY CHIROPRACTORS

The 34th annual conference of the Indiana Chiropractors association will be held Oct. 15 to 17 in the Lincoln hotel. Dr. Hazel L. Ramsey of Sullivan, president, announced today.

The first formal meeting will be held at 1:30 p. m. Oct. 15 and Mayor Robert H. Tyndall has been invited to make the welcoming address. Several nationally known speakers have been invited, Dr. Ramsey said.

Other officers of the association are Dr. V. W. Dean of Indianapolis, vice president; Dr. C. E. Sowards of Bluffton, secretary-treasurer, and Dr. F. H. Maisel of Gary, state director of the national association.
