

Hoosier Heroes: News of Husband's Death in France Replaces Roses on Fourth Wedding Anniversary

Pvt. Herbert J. Sanders, who last night missed sending his wife red roses on their wedding anniversary eve for the first time since they married, was killed in combat in Germany, Sept. 19.

Husband of Mrs. Mary T. Sanders, and father of 20-month-old Donald Lee, 1427 E. Raymond st., Pvt. Sanders and his wife were married four years ago today. He met his wife during his childhood days at St. Catherine's Catholic school before he was graduated and entered Manual high school.

While employed at the Ernest Products Co., the 27-year-old private was called for induction into the army March 3, 1944. He was sent to Camp Walters, Tex., and then to Ft. Meade, Md., before getting his last furlough from July 13 to July 23 before going overseas.

On Aug. 7 he shipped out and arrived in England, Aug. 14. Four days later he went into France and began fighting Aug. 25. He had been in combat from that date until his death.

In his last letter Pvt. Sanders, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Sanders, 1422 E. Tabor st., mentioned that he regretted that he couldn't send the red roses but that he would give them to his wife when he got home. Saturday night the telegram came announcing his death.

Besides his parents, wife and son, survivors are a brother, Aviation Machinist's Mate 3-c Lawrence T. Sanders, stationed at Norfolk, Va., with the navy, and five sisters, Mrs. Arthur Ratz, Mrs. Fred Schroeder, Mrs. Lawrence Underwood and Misses Margaret and Roseline Sanders.

Lt. Robert H. Krueger, formerly of 6654 College ave., and brother of Adelbert Krueger, 5805 Rosslyn ave., was killed Sept. 19 in China. He was serving as an air force pilot and had been in service since Aug. 31, 1942, and in China since Aug. 10, 1944.

Lt. Krueger's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Krueger, resided at the College ave. address until about a week ago, when they moved to Greenwood. His wife, Norveta Allice Krueger, and his 8-month-old son, Richard Allen, are residing with his parents at Greenwood.

Lt. Krueger was 22 and formerly was employed by the McCollum Paper Co. He graduated from Shortridge high school in 1939, and was the 101st Shortridge graduate to lose his life in world war II.

Paul U. Brinker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ferd Brinker, 1206 E. Tabor st., was killed in France Sept. 24. His family was notified Saturday night.

A graduate of St. Catherine's parochial school and Technical high school, he entered the army Jan. 9, 1943, and went overseas in July, 1944. He was in England one month and entered France about Aug. 1. He was 21.

He received his infantry training at Camp Robinson, Ark., Ft. Meade, Md., and Camp McCoy, Wis. Before entering the service, he was employed by the Bemis Brothers Bag Co.

Survivors besides the parents, include five brothers, Father Robert Brinker, Quincy, Ill., and Cletus, Norman, Everett and Rudolph, all of Indianapolis.

Pfc. Robert E. O'Bannon, nephew of Homer C. Barklee, 710 E. Walnut st., and Charles V. O'Bannon, Puritan hotel, was killed in action in France Aug. 24. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilford O'Bannon of Dresden.

Pfc. Robert B. Yates, who formerly resided with Mr. and Mrs. Forest Alberson, 1815 Singleton st., has been missing in action in France since July 12. He was serving with an infantry unit and has been overseas a year.

Pvt. Yates, who is 21, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Yates, Delphi, and entered the army Jan. 27, 1943. While residing with Mr. and Mrs. Alberson he was employed by E. C. Atkins & Co.

Signalman 3-c Robert Carver Wood, who previously was reported wounded when a destroyer escort was lost off the coast of France, has been missing in France since D-day. He had been on active sea duty in the Atlantic since his ship was commissioned a year ago. He is a former employee of the P. R. Mallory Co. and entered the service in January, 1943.

The navy announced that 216 men went down on the ship but that 65 were rescued. Signalman Wood was listed among those who were rescued. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wood Sr., 2946 Washington blvd.

Mrs. Wood asked the Red Cross to investigate and it was unable to locate her son in any hospital in England. Then the navy department sent word that the young sailor was missing.

ment at Thayer General hospital, Nashville.

Pvt. Gross is the son of Mrs. O. M. Gross, 4115 Madison ave., and is 36. Prior to entering the service, two years ago, he was employed for 10 years by the American National bank.

Tech. 3d Gr. Joseph H. Fitterer, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Fitterer, 847 N. Gray st., was seriously wounded Sept. 25 in France. He had been overseas since July and in France since August.

A former employee of the Shell Oil Co., he is 34 and entered service in July, 1942. He was graduated from high school in Mt. Carmel, Ill., where he lived before moving to Indianapolis 12 years ago.

Marine Sgt. Thomas M. Brasher, son of Mr. and Mrs. McKee J. Brasher, 1217 1/2 Newman st., was wounded July 22 on Guam and is in the naval hospital at San Diego, Cal.

The 22-year-old platoon sergeant has been a marine five and one-half years and overseas two and one-half years. He participated in campaigns on the Marshall Islands and on Guadalcanal. He attended Technical high school.

Sgt. Rudy L. Cesnik, son of Mrs. Agnes Cesnik, 602 N. Alton ave., a radio operator in the infantry, was wounded the third time the

5TH GAINING UNDER LONG TOM BARRAGE

ROME, Oct. 10 (U. P.).—American "Long Toms," 155-mm. rifles perched high in the Apennines mountains, hammered the main Bologna-Rimini highway in Northern Italy today as 5th army troops inched forward through mud-filled fields to within less than 10 miles of the Po valley.

The systematic artillery fire was concentrated on the 30-mile section of the highway between Bologna and Imola in an attempt to cut off German transport movement from the north central Italy to Rimini on the Adriatic coast.

(A BBC broadcast, recorded by NBC, said it was reported in London that American guns were shelling the outskirts of Bologna, although this was not confirmed by any other allied source.)

Ground operations virtually were stalled along the entire front by the sixth consecutive day of rain.

An open house for Pvt. Poland held Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Warringer, 3795 Rockville road.

The 20-year-old marine enlisted in February, 1943, and was overseas eight months. He will report to the naval base hospital in San Diego, Cal., Oct. 21.

JAP WARNS OF U. S. DRIVE INTO CHINA

LONDON, Oct. 10 (U. P.).—The German D. N. B. news agency today quoted a Japanese naval spokesman as saying that "great concentrations" of American troops are being assembled in the Pacific for a drive into China by way of the Philippines.

The spokesman, Capt. Keizo Matsushima, said the American forces outnumbered the Japanese in the Pacific island campaigns, but asserted that the Japanese navy "is waiting for the most favorable opportunity to shatter the American offensive."

BOYS CLUBS TO SEE MOVIES EACH WEEK

Movies will be shown each week, beginning Friday, at the Lauter Boys' club and English Avenue Boys' club through donation of a projector by the Kiwanis club.

A feature picture, an educational short, a serial and a cartoon will be shown each Friday night at the Lauter clubhouse and each Saturday night at the English Avenue clubhouse. It is expected that about 800 boys will attend these weekly programs, supported in part by the United War and Community Fund.
