Rites will be held at 3:30 p. m. Saturday in the Planner & Buchanan mortuary for Edward Grebe, 2478 S. Delaware st., the Rev. F. R. Daries, pastor of the Zion Evangelical and Reformed church, officiating. Burial will be at Crown Hill.

Mr. Grebe, who was 55, died yesterday in the Veterans' hospital. An employee of the Andrews restaurant, he was a native of Louisville. He spent his childhood in Madison, but had lived in Indianapolis most of his life.

A veteran of world war I, he spent 21 months in France as a

MALAN WARNS OF EDUCATION PERILS

Clement T. Malan, state schools superintendent, was principal speaker at the annual wiener roast of the Warren Township Republican club held last night on the farm of Spencer Askren, 7300 E. 21st st.

"The threat in this country of centralized control of educational facilities is parallel to Hitler's control of education," Mr. Malan asserted. He called attention to "the control of the country by 3500 directives."

Charles Kohler introduced the speaker, while the presiding officer was Samuel Montgomery, Republican chairman of Warren township, outside.

A feature of the meeting was a program of martial music by the Price four-piece band which played during the 1888 campaign of Benjamin Harrison.
